EUROPE URGES CARRANZA TO AVOID A BREAK

ALLIED AGENCIES SEEKING TO CHECK DRIFT TOWARD WAR

Bare Possibility Their Effort May Prove Successful--Carranza Aiding Americans in Quitting Mexico City.

NO HINT COMES OF HIS ATTITUDE ON U.S. NOTE

Washington, June 21.—Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon General Carranza by representatives of European power to prevent him from forcing a break with the United States. Indirect reports reaching the state department today told of these efforts and said there was a possibility they would be successful.

Agencies of the entente allies are understood to be active for peace, particularly as they believe German influence has sought to inflame the Mexican government against the United States with a view to preventing this country from gathering in trade formerly controlled by Germany in Mexico, South and Central America.

It is pointed out that Carranza might avoid war by calling for an international commission to discuss the border situation as provided for in the treaty of 1848. So far, however, no suggestion for such a step has come from Mexico.

Carranza Protects Americans

A definite statement has been received that Gen. Carranza is doing all in his power at this time to protect Americans in Mexico from attack by the populace. He is said to have given Special Agent Rodgers, in Mexico City, all the aid in his power in arranging for trains to carry American refugees from the interior to Vera Cruz. In some quarters here this was construed as evidence that he is not bent upon provocating hostilities.

The state department had no advices bearing out these hopeful indications except that from Special Agent Rodgers announcing the progress of his efforts to get American citizens out. With the full consent of the Carranza authorities, he said, and the promise of adequate protection from possible bandit attacks he had arranged for a special train to leave Mexico City carrying Americans to Vera Cruz.

Mr. Rodgers added that he and his diplomatic associates in the Mexican capital had been given every assurance of safe conduct and protection on their trip to the coast if it became necessary for them to leave.

The corps of American newspaper correspondents has decided to remain with Mr. Rodgers until such time as he may find it necessary to leave.

Await Carranza's Attitude

The United States today anxiously awaited word from Mexico City regarding Carranza's attitude toward the American note sent him yesterday. High officials here admitted privately they look for war, but they are taking every possible care to avoid any formal expression or acts which might appear to be fore-runners of a declaration of war.

The only answer required from Gen. Carranza is action suppressing outlaw treatment of Americans and officials feared this would not be done. Officials versions of the note probably were published in Mexico City today and the official text may already be in Gen. Carranza's hands.

Expect Threatening Movements.

Military authorities were looking for the de facto government's attitude in Mexico threatening troop movements today near the border and in preparation for these the war department was getting ready to act on Gen. Funston's request for immediate dispatch of a number of national guard units to the border. It was said Secretary Baker and President Wilson probably would determine what organizations should be sent. Several days may elapse before any great number of militia units can be mustered into the federal service.

Reports of great enthusiasm and rapid recruiting continued to come in from anw states today.

In Event of Battle.

Great interest was expressed in the probable course to be followed in case Mexicans attack the American column. It was regarded as probable that a general rapid advance will be ordered in the border to a line perhaps 100 or more miles south of the border. This line then would be fortified and held until volunteer reinforcements became available.

An overnight dispatch from Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City received at the state department today said arrangements had been concluded satisfactorily for the special train to carry out Americans and foreigners to Vera Cruz.

Americans Get Out Today.

He reiterated hope that it would start today, taking many of the 600 or more American citizens still in the capital. A number of dispatches were received from consular officers and agents. They agreed that the tension everywhere was keyed to a high pitch, but that no disturbances to Americans had occurred.

Consul Guant at Progreso, Mex., reported there was no truth in the rumor

FOUND IN HIS BUGGY WITH SKULL CRUSHED

Lafayette, Ind., June 21.—Donald McGregor, aged 50, a farmer who has been living alone for several years near Oxford, a small town in Benton county, was found on the road in his buggy in a semi-conscious condition this morning about 9 o'clock with his skull fractured and he was brought to a local hospital where it is said that there is little chance for his recovery.

According to officials there is evidence of foul play and an investigation is being conducted. McGregor was a recluse and nothing is known about his relatives. He was well to do.

BULLETIN.

Washington, June 21.—Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City telegraphed the state department today that the American note had reached there and was being considered by General Carranza and his cabinet. He made no mention of how it was received.

Mexico Making Her Plea Before European Public

Paris, June 21.—Mexico is placing its case before the European public in the form of statements issued by Mexican legations on the continent. Such a statement appeared in Madrid on Monday and a similar statement is printed in the French press today from the Mexican legation in Paris. It says the reports that war is inevitable and that Gen. Carranza's attitude is due to German intrigue came from American sources.

"Imputations against the government of Gen. Carranza," it declares "are unwarranted. Mexico has not wished and does not wish war with the United States."

The statement reviews the negotiations for permission for American troops to cross the frontier to pursue bandits and declares that the interchanges were interrupted by the sending of an expeditionary corps constituting a violation of Mexican sovereignty.

"We are authorized to state that it is not Mexico which attacks," the statement continues. "In ordering Gen. Trevino to prevent American forces from advancing south, east or west the attitude of the Mexican government is purely defensive. This is established from documents in this legation which will be published at an opportune time."

Mexican Attack Fails to Come

GERMANS ARE BEATEN BACK

Curtain of French Artillery Fire Stops Teutonic Attack at Verdun.

AUSTRIANS ARE GIVING BATTLE

Report Some Success in Stemming the Russian Onslaught.

Today's War News Given in Summary

While the weight of German military power is being increasingly felt on the eastern front, where it has stiffened the Austrian resistance to the drive of the Russians, the pressure on the French at Verdun has momentarily lessened. There has been rather heavy artillery action around the extreme west fortress, but no further moves by the infantry are recorded in this afternoon's Paris bulletin.

The Germans have not been altogether idle on this front, however, for after having touched off two mines northwest of Rheims, a district in which the deadlock of the armies has been just about as complete as anywhere along the line, they attacked French trenches on a height south of Berry-au-Bac. Paris declared the defensive curtain of fire caused the assault to fail completely.

Athens dispatches forecast probable changes in the Greek ministry as a result of economic pressure which the allies have exerted because of their dissatisfaction with the Greek government's attitude. Resignation of the cabinet of Premier Skoloudis is expected in some quarters. Former Premier Zaimis may be asked to form a ministry acceptable to the entente.

Paris, June 21.—(11:50 a. m.)—A violent attack on the French positions northwest of Rheims was made by the Germans last night at Hill No. 108, and in the direction of Berry-au-Bac, according to an official statement today. The attack was repulsed by the French artillery fire.

The Germans exploded two mines before launching their infantry against the French trenches. Their repulse was due, the statement says, to the effectiveness of the French screen of fire.

In the Verdun sector no infantry action was reported but a mutual bombardment was maintained during the night.

MRS. DREXEL GETS $50,000 PER YEAR

American Banker's Wife Is Given Judgment By London Court.

London, June 21.—(12 noon)—Mrs. Rita Armstrong Drexel, wife of Anthony J. Drexel, the American banker, was given judgment against her husband for a yearly allowance of $50,000 by Justice Neville in the chancery court today. When the case was last before the court in December, 1915, Mr. Drexel contested the jurisdiction of the British courts on the grounds that he was a resident of France. This point was decided and when court opened today the bankers' attorney said that as it had been decided that the English courts had jurisdiction he could handle the case.

Mrs. Drexel separated from her husband in 1911 while they were living in London and it was announced that she proposed to institute divorce proceedings. These proceedings were dropped when the separation agreement was entered into by which Mrs. Drexel was to receive an annual sum of $50,000 and five policies on the life of her husband aggregating $300,000, which were to be assigned to a trustee and held for her benefit in event of the banker's death. In July, 1915, Mr. Drexel filed a suit for divorce in Paris and stoppd the allowanc to his wife. The present suit was the result of this action. The Drexels were married in 1886 and have lived abroad for the last 20 years.

CANDIDATES MEET TO PLAN CAMPAIGN

Prof. L. W. Fairfield, Republican Nominee for Congress, Speaks.

For the purpose of discussing the political situation and to outline plans for the campaign, a meeting of the various republican candidates in Allen county was held Wednesday afternoon in the republican headquarters on East Berry street. The meeting was well attended and much enthusiasm was manifested, all of the candidates expressing themselves as confident of victory in November, a claim, however, that is stoutly denied by the democrats.

One of the features of the meeting was an address by Prof. L. W. Fairfield, of Angola, the republican nominee for congress from the Twelfth district. Incidentally, it might be mentioned that Prof. Fairfield is letting no grass grow under his feet. For the past two weeks he has made a specialty of attending picnics, family reunions, farmers' gatherings and meetings of every description. He is desirous of seeing every voter in the district between now and election.

Representative Cyrus Cline, Prof. Fairfield's opponent, will remain at his post in Washington until congress adjourns

LOT OF LIVE WIRES TO AID M'CORMICK

Will Assist in Direction of Wilson Campaign for Re-Election.

Washington, June 21.—In conference today with members of the democratic national committee President Wilson indicated that detailed plans for the fall campaign will be held up until the executive or steering committee is appointed. The president hopes to select a group of active men to aid National Chairman Vance C. McCormick, but has not definitely decided upon the personnel.

The time and place for the ceremony of notifying the president of his renomination probably will also await appointment of this committee and be discussed by the president with its members before a decision is reached. Committeemen who saw the president were C. S. Cummings, of Connecticut, vice chairman; Samuel A. King, of Utah, and John H. Wilson, of Hawaii.

Mr. King discussed the western situation, particularly in Utah and Wyoming. He urged a vigorous campaign, declaring that with proper support the democrats could carry Utah next fall and elect a successor to Senator Sutherland.

PENNSY FURLOUGHS EMPLOYES TO ARMY

Pension Allowed to Cover Time of Furlough in Military Service.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 21.—S. H. Church, secretary of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, has made public a resolution passed by the board regarding its policy on payment of salary to employes who may enlist in the national guard or United States army. It was announced similar action had been taken on all Pennsylvania railroad lines east of Pittsburg.

The resolution grants "furloughs to all employes desirous of enlisting for such time as they may be engaged in state or national military or naval service in the event of war or other emergency and that the pension allowance of such employes so furloughed include the time of such furlough."

GEORGE D. CRANE CRITICALLY ILL

George D. Crane, for many years a well known Fort Wayne citizen, is reported critically ill at his home on West Jefferson street, and his condition is such as to give but scant hope for his recovery.

Mr. Crane is suffering from an acute attack of kidney trouble, following a protracted period of poor health caused by chronic heart affection of some years' standing. His condition became alarming on Saturday, and it is said the patient is growing gradually weaker.

CO. E READY FOR SERVICE

Recruits Flocking Rapidly to the Colors in Fort Wayne.

BUSY SCENES AT THE LOCAL ARMORY

Preparations Are Made to Move for Camp at a Moment's Notice.

Company E, Indiana National Guard, will be ready to move when the call comes, which is expected Saturday. Capt. John E. Miller does not expect it before that time.

Up to noon Wednesday the Fort Wayne company numbered one hundred, not counting twenty-five or more minors who have made application and who will be accepted as soon as they secure the consent of their parents.

Without doubt the war spirit has hit Fort Wayne a shrapnel blow and the recruits are flocking to the colors even more rapidly than was expected. Bad teeth, underweight, overweight and other physical defects were keeping many of the applicants out. Although new members are wanted badly, Captain Miller is taking great care not to accept undesirables, many of whom have been rejected since the opening of the recruiting station.

When the company leaves, the armory headquarters in the Flick building on West Berry street, will be vacated and upon its return new quarters will have to be secured. The government does not pay rent for armory quarters while the company is away and for this reason preparations were made Wednesday to move everything out at a moment's notice. The lockers, furniture and paraphernalia that is not taken along will be stored.

Funds Running Low.

The funds of the company are running low and while several Fort Wayne citizens have responded most liberally, there

HUGHES TURNS TO COLLEGE AFFAIRS

Nominee Marches With His Class of '81 at Brown Commencement.

Providence, R. I., June 21.—Charles E. Hughes, republican nominee for president, motored to Providence today from the home of his friend, Benjamin Barker, at Tiverton, whose guest he had been since his arrival here Monday night, for a day of activity in college affairs.

Mr. Hughes marched with his class, that of '81, in the Brown university commencement exercses, was seated with the board of trustees at the historic First Baptist meeting house, not far from a place reserved for Franklin Lane, secretary of the interior, who was invited some time ago to deliver an address and later was the guest of President Faunce, of Brown, at a reception. The day's program also included a reception at the headquarters of the Young Men's Republican club and a dinner tonight at the home of Gov. R. L. Livingston Beekman. It was announced that there would be no discussion of poltical affairs. Mr. Hughes expects to leave here at midnight for New York, where he will remain till Saturday afternoon.

TAXI IN WRECK ON FAIRFIELD AVENUE

At 3 o'clock Wednesday morning a taxicab driven by Herbert Wolverton and occupied by a single passenger came in contact with the center support of the Wabash elevation on Fairfield avenue, with the result that the taxi suffered the worst. The driver was slightly injured as was the passenger.

The taxi is owned by the Fort Wayne Transfer company and men at the barn on Harrison street know nothing of the facts surrounding the accident. It is thought, however, that the heavy rain which was falling at this time of the morning may have blinded the driver or that the car skidded on the slippery pavement. The auto was badly damaged, the entire front end being smashed.

PERSHING SENDS TROOPS EASTWARD

Gives Mexicans Chance to Make Good the Threat to Attack Him if He Moved, But Issue is Declined.

San Antonio, Texas., June 21.—General Pershing has given the Mexican troops the opportunity to make good their threat to attack him if he moved east or west, but the Mexicans declined the issue.

The American commander sent a small force eastward to Guzman, about thirty-five miles from his line of communication yesterday to investigate a report that concentration of Mexican troops had been made there. He reported the incident to General Funston today, adding that the detachment had returned without finding any Mexican troops in that vicinity.

Remembering Gen. Trevino's threat to attack the Americans if they moved in any but a northerly direction, officers here regarded his failure to do so as indicative of reluctance on his part to carry out his threat.

Mexican Troops Arrive.

Reports to department headquarters told today of the arrival of more troops at Ojinaga, opposite Presidio, and at Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass. Beyond Ojinaga increased activity was noticed, but officers believe Col. Gaston, commanding the American side, has men enough to meet the situation. The heaviest addition to the Mexican border army was that at Piedras Negras, where Gen. Murgia arrived with 2,000 men.

Gen. Funston announced that to the army's equipment here had been added today, a large number of searchlights. He was notified by the war department that detailed instructions have been sent him for organization in this department of four regiments of infantry and two cavalry regiments under the army reorganization bill, which will become effective July 1.

SILLIMAN AT EAGLE PASS.

Last American Consul Has Now Left Mexican Territory.

Eagle Pass, Texas, June 21.—Consul J. R. Silliman arrived in this city early today from Saltillo, coming by way of Monclova, owing to the cessation of railroad traffic between Monterey and Nuevo Laredo. He expects to remain here for several days. Mr. Silliman is the last American consul to leave Mexico.

ROTARIANS ARE TOLD HOW TO BAKE BREAD

George M. Haffner was the principal speaker, Wednesday noon, at the first meeting of the Fort Wayne Rotary club in several weeks. He explained the art of break baking so vividly that each member of the club who heard him should have no trouble in baking bread, should they ever be called upon to do so. The meeting was called principally for the purpose of discussing and making arrangements for the contemplated trip to Cincinnati, but inasmuch as several members who are in charge of the trip were not present, the matter was not presented. Frank E. Stouder presided as toastmaster and several songs were sung by the male quartet with the LaSalle Musical Comedy company.

JUSTIFY ADVANCES IN GASOLINE PRICES

Washington, June 21—Officials of the Standard Oil company of Ohio, testified today in the closing hearing of the federal trade commission's investigation of the increase in the price of gasoline that economic causes justified the advances. They were unable to give any reason for the failure of the Standard Oil company of Indiana to compete in the Ohio terrtory.

Independent oil men told the commission recently that demoralization of the oil business was due to high prices maintained in Ohio as a result of the failure of the Indiana concern to enter that field. A. P. Coombe, president of the Ohio concern denied that the two companies had any contract or agreement concerning competition.

SIGNAL CORPS NOW IN CAMP

First Indiana Guard Unit Reaches Ft. Benjamin Harrison.

BRISK RECRUITING ALL OVER STATE

Col. Conde Quits Service Because of Age Limit and Ill-Health.

Indianapolis, June 21.—Company A, signal corps Indiana national guard of this city, moved to Fort Benjamin Harrison today, being the first of the Indiana troops to go to the Indiana mobilization camp. The company, which was recruited to full strength before the mobilization order was issued by the president, was ordered to Fort Harrison last night to guard the military stores being sent to the post for the Indiana troops which are expected to begin to arrive the latter part of the week.

In the meantime recruiting over the state continues brisk, according to reports received at the office of Adjutant General Franklin L. Bridges, commanding the Indiana militia, and it is expected that all the companies will have their required quotas by the end of the week.

The Indiana field artillery companies are encamped at the state fair grounds, awaiting orders to move to Fort Harrison.

Gov. Ralston has practically agreed to accept the resignation of Col. Henry Conde, commanding the Second regiment, who asked to be relieved of his command because of the age limit and ill-

SUNDAY SPENDS AN HOUR IN FT. WAYNE

Famous Evangelist Closes Successful Meeting in Kansas City.

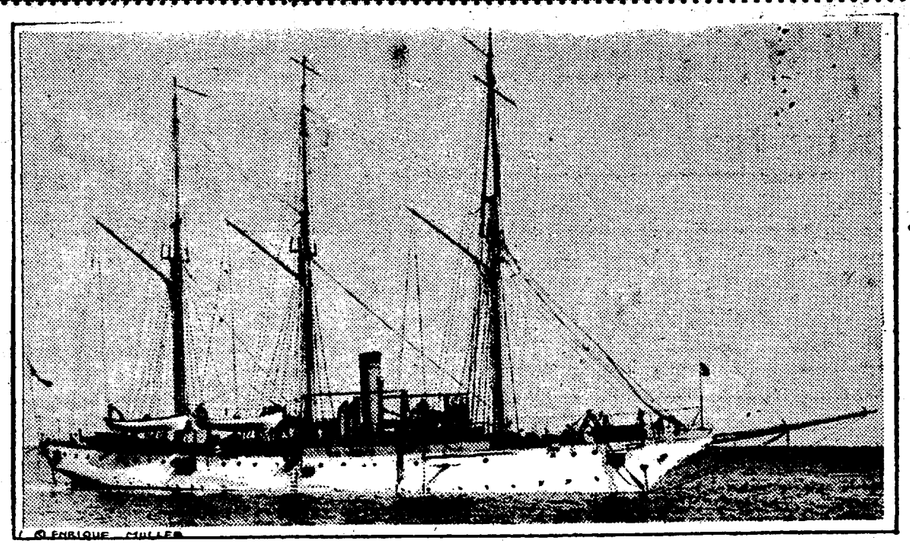
"Billy" Sunday, the famous evangelist, was a visitor in Fort Wayne Wednesday for an hour, while on his way to his home at Winona Lake from Sturgis, Mich.

There is no hope of "Billy" Sunday conducting a series of meetings in Fort Wayne very soon. A Sentinel reporter asked him if there would be any chance of him coming to Fort Wayne withia the near future to which he replied that he had enough engagements to keep him busy for several years. He would not promise to give any time to Fort Wayne as he is devoting his efforts almost entirely to the larger cities of the country.

Mr. Sunday has delivered two or three temperance lectures in Michigan this week and he is very much encouraged over the prospects of Michigan voting "dry" next fall by a big majority. He also stated that he has given up his meeting in New York city next spring, but that he would probably hold meetings in Boston and other eastern cities. His first fall campaign will be held in Detroit in September.

Evangelist Sunday closed a most successful campaign in Kansas City Sunday night, where a total of 20,646 "hit the sawdust trail." In his campaign of seven weeks he preached ninety-three sermons in the tabernacle to 1,356,000 persons. Seventy-five thousand persons heard him preach Sunday and 2,121 was the day's record of converts. Before leaving Kansas City the famous evangelist was presented with a cashier's check for $32,000, which the people gave him as a thank offering.

HERE'S U. S. SHIP IN MEXICAN RUMPUS.



Sailors from this vessel, the gunboat Annapolis, were fired on when they landed at Mazatlan, Sinaloa, and two naval officers were seized by the Mexicans and later released. Bos'n's Mate I. M. Laughter, of Edna, Tex., was wounded. Mexican officials say the first shot was fired by a drunken Jap, and that as Carranza soldiers then ran down the wharf the American sailors opened fire, wounding six Mexicans.

AMERICANS IN FEAR HIDE IN MOUNTAINS

El Paso, Tex., June 21.—Five Americans are in hiding in the mountains in the vicinity of Parral in southern Chihuahua fearing to attempt to make their way to the border because of the feeling of the native populace, according to reports reaching here today. The men, employes of the Alvarido Mining and Milling company, of Parral, recently started toward El Paso, but were obliged to seek refuge in the mountains. In the party are T. G. Hawkins, jr., A. W. Morris, R. C. Higley, H. A. Buck and H. W. Collins Officials of the company here express the belief that Mexican friends could be depended upon to afford them protection.

With the exception of these five the exodus of Americans from Chihuahua was practically complete today with the arrival of eight members of the colony in Chihuahua City. Some of them told stories of a shortage of food and increasing anti-American sentiment.

Much interest was aroused among El Pasoans, many of whom have large holdings in Mexico, in dispatches received from Mexico City at the local Mexican consulate. These said in substance that a decree had been issued by the de facto government holding that any foreigner acquiring real estate in Mexico either by purchase or contract must renounce first his allegiance to his native country and register as a Mexican citizen.

URGES MOTORIZATION OF FIRE DEPARTMENT

Resolutions Are Passed at Meeting of Real Estate Exchange

A resolution urging the complete motorization of the city fire department was passed Tuesday evening at the regular weekly meeting of the Fort Wayne Real Estate exchange. The resolution urges that the city make complete arrangements for motorization in the next budget. It will be presented to the city council at its next session.

The resolution points out that the decreased rate of fire insurance and other advantages that would result from the motorization of the department will more than justify the expense.

A committee of eight members of the exchange was appointed by President Lule H. Moore to assist Charles L. Biederwolf, of the Commercial club, in obtaining automobiles for the civic beauty and health parade. One to four machines were pledged by each member of the exchange.

The feature of the meeting of the exchange next week will be an address by Edward Kearney, president of the Wabash railroad. The meeting scheduled for the week of the Fourth of July will be held on July 6 as the regular meeting night falls upon the holiday.

NOT AFRAID TO FIGHT BUT SEE BIGGER DUTY

Secretary Lane Discusses American Spirit in Address.

Providence, R. I., June 21.—The American spirit is against war not because Americans are afraid to fight, but because they are too busy with other enterprises more important than war, Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, declared in a commencement address at Brown university today. The degree of doctor of laws was conferred on the secretary. Charles E. Hughes, republican nominee for president, was another honor guest of the university.

"The spirit of America is against war not because we have grown cowardly and fear death," said Mr. Lane, "nor because we have grown flabby and love softness, nor even because we have become conscious converts to the Prince of Peace. But we in American have something larger to do. We are discovering our country. We have no time for war. We are doing something much more important. We all work. That is the greatest of all adventures. When war comes to a democracy it comes because we are not allowed peacefully to work.

"What would we fight for? For what Roger Williams fought for—to be let alone; to have the opportunity to show what man can do for man."

MARSHALL TO FACE BAR OF THE HOUSE

Washington, June 21.—United States District Attorney Snowden Marshall, of New York, will be haled before the bar of the house to answer a charge of contempt because of criticism of the judiciary committee's investigation of impeachment proceedings against him. This action was decided upon by the house yesterday when it sustained, by a vote of 208 to 85, charges of contempt against Mr. Marshall. Speaker Clark was prepared today to issue a warrant for his arrest, although it was thought he might appear voluntarily. Just what sentence will be imposed upon the district attorney has not been determined, but it is probable that he will be publicly censured. Imprisonment may also be imposed.

The married men employed at Lafayette have signed power of attorney to their wives and they will collect their husbands' wages. The order becomes effective at once.

The Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company is the corporation which owns and operates the Fort Wayne gas plant.

SAYS TELEGRAPHERS ARE NEEDED AT KEY

Postal Head Declares They Can Best Serve Their Country at Work.

New York, June 21.—In a letter to a recruiting officer for the Plattsburg military training camps, Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph Cable company, declares that from a national point of view it is a mistake for a telegraph company to have its operators prepare for and enlist in the regular army instead of serving their country in the capacity for which they are peculiarly fitted.

The company had been asked to grant to some of its operators a four week leave of absence to attend the Plattsburg camps. In his reply, made public today, Mr. Mackay wrote: "It may not have occurred to you that telegraph operators are needed in time of war far more as telegraph operators than as soldiers or officers. The attendance of these operators at the camp at Plattsburg would not aid the nation anywhere near so much as to have them available for telegraph purposes in case of war."

To emphasize his assertion, Mr. Mackay pointed to the attitude of the British government declining to enlist cable operators.

An important question to be decided is the proposal for the organization of a chamber of commerce to represent all industries in the musical trade.

American Schools and Hospitals at Two Points Commandeered.

CALL ACTION A WAR NECESSITY

Home-Comers Tell of Antipathy Manifested in Turkish Capital.

New York, June 21.—Schools and hospitals owned and conducted by the American board of foreign missions at Marsovan and Sivas, Turkey, valued at more than half a million dollars, have been commandeered by the Turks for military purposes and the missionaries in charge compelled to abandon their work there, according to Americans who arrived here today from the orient.

The property was taken over, they said, in May, when the diplomatic situation between the United States and Germany was tense over the negotiations growing out of the U-boat controversy. The missionaries who arrived in Constantinople prior to the departure of the Americans who arrived here today, said that the Turks first informed them that the United States and Germany were at war. This they afterward denied, but excused their commandeering of the properties by saying they were required for military purposes.

Given But Short Time.

The missionaries in charge, it was added, were given only a short time to leave—sufficient only to gather their personal belongings. They are still at Constantinople, where they are being sheltered by other organizations controlled by the board. It was stated also that strict censorship was imposed regarding the sending out of news of the Turks taking over American properties. In all other respects, however, the arrivals here said properties and work of American missionaries in Turkey were unmolested. The various schools are flourishing and the enrollment for the coming year of pupils is at its maximum.

Come From Constantinople.

Sixteen Americans who said they had left Constantinople owing to a scarcity of food supplies and because the native population had evinced strong antipathy for all English speaking persons, arrived here today as passengers on the Danish steamship, Oscar H. from Scandinavian ports. Among them were Prof. Henry B. Dewing, Charles L. Lewis and George H. Huntington, connected with Robert Scott and Prof. Maurice Tanguary, a zoologist, who was with the McMillan Crockerland expedition.

The Oscar II stopped at Kirkwall, where the British authorities removed 130 sacks of mail, forty of which were restored to the ship when it was found that they contained correspondence addressed to Danish officials at Washington and the West Indies and to persons on Danish warships at the West Indies.

Stomach Gets the Blame, But the Liver Is the Cause

A Wineglassful of Tollo Water Will Make the Liver Act Freely and Relieve Your Stomach in Thirty Minutes.

Most cases of stomach trouble are caused by a clogged liver. It does no good to dose the stomach with drugs when the real cause is not removed.

When the bile tubes of the liver are clogged the bile is forced back into the stomach and even into the blood, causing stomach trouble, gas, heartburn, headaches, coated tongue, sallow complexion.

An occasional Tollo Water liver bath will remove all these symptoms in thirty minutes. It will clean out the bile tubes, flush the waste out of your system and give your stomach a fresh, clean start.

Tollo Water is found at Dawson Springs, a famous Kentucky health resort, and has the property of dissolving the obstructions in the bile tubes and stimulating the action of the liver and bowels.

Clean your liver tomorrow with a Tollo Water liver bath. It will remove all waste matter and you will be surprised and pleased at its quick results. Your stomach trouble will disappear and you will be able to eat what you like and enjoy it.

Get a 15-cent bottle from your druggist. Take a little before breakfast in a glass of drinking water. In thirty minutes it will make you feel better than you have in weeks.—Advertisement.

"MISS NOBODY FROM STARLAND."

Lasalle Company in Beautiful Little Comedy Tomorrow.

"Miss Nobody From Starland," the tuneful little beauty of a musical comedy gem, with eighteen catchy singing airs in the score and with the impressive ship scene, the absurd rehearsal showing a stage built within a stage and the elaborate cafe interior, is quite the most pretentious offering on the entire list of attractions afforded by the Lasalle company. This organization will open a four-day engagement in "Miss Nobody From Starland" Thursday evening, playing a matinee on Saturday. The rehearsal scene in which the audience is taken behind the scenes at a theater and shown how the works are put on is the most excrutiatingly funny bit in the show business.

The Lasalle company this evening will close in "Lovers and Lunatics" after a particularly successful run. This absurd little farce with music built around a youth eloping with the mother of the girl his father had started on a honeymoon with, and all four meeting in a country town boarding house, is a riot from start to finish. Guy Voyer, as the youth, and Harrie Lee, as the seventeen-year-old daughter who, according to her mother, "had seen but four birthdays," have some pretty scenes, while J. J. Woods, as the father, and Aleen Morrison, as the kittenish mother, are taught their real ages when Mlle. (Harrie Lee) starts the game of Jericho and tires them all out. J. Flanagan's comedy role of Steve, the country bumpkin, who is constantly interrupting the lovers, is rich and cleverly done, too.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

WILL MARK DETOUR ON LINCOLN HIGHWAY

Route West From Convoy, Ohio, to Avoid Mud Road is to Be Marked Out.

Van Wert, Ohio, June 21.—Within the next two weeks a new detour from Convoy to Fort Wayne will be marked out with Lincoln highway markers by the Van Wert Good Roads club. The route will be used by autoists instead of the present Lincoln highway, which is almost impassible. The exact route that will be followed is that selected by the business men several weeks ago. It is also planned to repaint all the markers along the present highway.

CITIZENS TO HELP.

Kendallville, Ind., June 21.—Believing that Kendallville should now retain its company, and fully realizing what it would mean if the members who have pledged themselves thus far should be detailed to fill out other companies, efforts are being made on the part of several interested citizens to increase the enrollment of Company D to the required number. In hopes of creating interest and stirring up sentiment a public meeting will be held tonight opposite the city building. Among those who have been assisting in the preliminaries are J. J. Cole, A. J. Berhalter and J. E. Jellison.

WILL BE HEARD MONDAY.

Huntington, Ind., June 21.—The slander suit of Moses H. Clemens against A. G. Johnson has been set for trial Monday of next week. The suit was set for trial at the request of Johnson, the defendant. Johnson has filed an answer admitting that he made the statements which Clemens says are slanderous. By this the defense will be that the statements made were the truth. But even this suit will not help Judge S. E. Cook in deciding the habeas corpus case as the issue of insanity is not raised.

INJURED IN A RUNAWAY.

Huntington, Ind., June 21.—A broken collar bone and three fractured ribs are the injuries received by Mrs. F. P. Anthony, of Salamonie avenue, when she was thrown from a buggy in a runaway at Markle. The horse scared at the Erie crossing in Markle. The horse stopped when he had crashed into the barn of A. May and overturned the buggy, throwing out Mr. and Mrs. Anthony. Mr. Anthony was slightly injured. The couple were on their way to the L. G. Anthony home two miles northeast of Markle.

MEMBER OF THE GUARD.

Bluffton, Ind., June 21.—Marion O. Reiff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manson O. Reiff, is probably the only Bluffton boy who was made happy when the order for the mobilization of the national guard was issued Sunday night. Marion is second lieutenant of Company B at Indianapolis and he reported for duty at the armory yesterday. Yesterday the company with the other Indiana guardsmen went to Fort Benjamin Harrison, where they will train awaiting further orders from President Wilson.

DIES WHILE ON VISIT.

Montpelier, Ind., June 21.—Jesse Mason, age 73 years, one of the oldest citizens of this city and section, who has lived at Marengo, Ohio, for several years, is dead at the home of Dorsey Mason and wife, southeast of this city. Mr. Mason and other relatives arrived in this county Friday for a visit, and was taken suddenly ill, and only lived a short time. The body was prepared for shipment to Marengo, Ohio. Funeral there on Wednesday.

DAUGHTER TO ACT AS MAYOR.

Van Wert, Ohio, June 21.—Franklin Chryst, president of the city council, who will be in charge of the executive affairs of the city administration during the absence of Mayor Morrison, who is captain of Co. D, has arranged to place his daughter, Miss Margaret Chryst, in the office for the purpose of receiving notices from taxpayers and citizens concerning public matters.

CONCERTS AT LAGRANGE.

Lagrange, Ind., June 21.—The first of a series of weekly band concerts will be given by the Citizens' band of Lagrange in the court house park, Thursday night of this week. With the homecoming of some of the college boys and the addition of other players from Howe and Mongo, the band has been augmented to over twenty pieces. A program of more than ordinary merit is promised.

MILITIAMAN WEDS.

Warsaw, Ind., June 21.—Just before he left to join his company at Albion, Private Harry B. Frank, of Wawaka, rushed to Warsaw, summoned his sweetheart, Miss Ora J. Hoover, of Wooster, and the ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's brother, Roy King, of South Lake street. Private Harry B. Frank then departed immediately for Albion to join his company and leave with them for Fort Benjamin Harrison.

DRANK CUP OF COAL OIL.

Columbia City, Ind., June 21.—A two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rosenagle, of Noble county, drank a half tin cup of coal oil while playing about the house. A few minutes later the child grew very sick and Dr. Otto Grisier, of this city, was summoned. He caused the child to vomit and the oil and other contents of his stomach were thrown up. The child was greatly relieved and soon fully recovered.

ENTERTAINED AT TRI-LAKE.

Columbia City, Ind., June 21.—The members of the Isaac Knapp dental coterie, an organization of Fort Wayne dentists, spent Wednesday at Tri-lake, fishing and enjoying an outing. They were guests of the Columbia City dentists, who dined the visitors, twenty or thirty in number, both at noon and in the evening.

DEATH AT MENTONE.

Mentone, Ind., June 21.—Mrs. William Clemmer, of this place, who has been an invalid for a number of years, died at her home on Tuesday about 2:30 a. m. The funeral from the home in Mentone Thursday at 1 p. m. Mrs. Clemmer is survived by her husband, William Clemmer, of Mentone, and one sister, Mrs. Henry Leffel, of Warsaw.

NEW BANK AT CRAIGVILLE.

Bluffton, Ind., June 21.—According to word from Craigville that town may have a new bank within a short time. Two Portland men have been investigating the proposition of organizing a state bank with a capital stock of $25,000 and they have made several trips to Craigville but nothing definite has ever been done.

LIGHTNING DESTROYS BARN.

Bluffton, Ind., June 21.—A barn on the Adam Myers farm, near McNatts, was struck by a bolt of lightning last night and was completely destroyed. Most of the contents were destroyed. A cow and calf were cremated.

WELLS COUNTY PIONEER DEAD.

Bluffton, Ind., June 21.—William D. Markley, 75 years old, is dead at the home of his daughter, Miss Cora Markley, at Petroleum, from heart trouble. The decedent was the son of John Markley and wife, who were numbered among the early pioneers of the county, and who were among the founders of the extensive Wells county family which bears their name.

LEAGUE MEETING.

Decatur, Ind., June 21—The annual convention of the Epworth league of the Fort Wayne district is being held in this city. Miss Iona Easley, of Fort Wayne, district president, is presiding. Rev. F. F. Thornburg, of Decatur, and Rev. J. A. Nipper, of Fort Wayne, were on the program Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Charles Smith, of Peru, was the speaker Tuesday evening.

FALLS DEAD IN GARDEN.

Pleasant Lake, Ind., June 21.—David Miller, a well known resident of this place, fell dead while plowing in his garden yesterday. He was found by his wife. He was 73 years old, and a veteran of the civil war.

ANOTHER PIONEER CALLED.

Decatur, Ind., June 21.—Mrs. Elizabeth Nussbaum, 71, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Gentis, after a six weeks' illness with dropsy. The deceased was a native of Berne, Switzerland, came to America when 11 years old, settled at Vera Cruz, and later lived at Linn Grove.

MORE WATERMELONS COMING

But Canteloupe Acreage for This Year Shows a Decrease.

Washington, June 21.—Increase in watermelon acreage and a slight decrease in that of cantaloupes this year is reported by the department of agriculture. In fifteen principal producing states watermelon acreage is 100,965, compared with 96,508 acres last year, and cantaloupe acreage is 41,273, compared with 41,980 acres last year.

NO TICKET IN KANSAS.

State Progressive Nominees Will Not File Declarations.

Topeka, Kan., June 21.—There will be no progressive party ticket in Kansas this year. This was made known today when it was announced that the ten candidates chosen at the state convention would not file their declarations. It was announced some time ago that there would be no progressive state or congressional tickets in this state.

Labor Chiefs Defy Railroads; Will Not Arbitrate

WARREN STONE (TOP.)
TIMOTHY SHEA (BOTTOM.)

Warren Stone, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and Timothy Shea, assistant president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, are among the men who framed the refusal of the railway employes to arbitrate before the interstate commerce commission the demands which the workers have made on the railroad companies. They want an eight-hour day and time and a half for overtime work.

FT. WAYNE'S GREATEST BARGAIN STORE

Bring Smiles

New Post Toasties were perfected to overcome the defects of old-style corn flakes. And the hearty welcome they have received is ample proof that their superiority is recognized.

New Post Toasties have a self-developed, inner-flavor—the rich flavor of choice Indian corn. Try a handful dry—they're mighty good that way, and the test will prove that, unlike common flakes, they do not depend on cream and sugar for their palatability.

New Post Toasties do not "chaff" in the package, and they don't mush down in cream like common "corn flakes." The New Post Toasties are identified by tiny bubbles on each flake—produced by the quick, intense heat of the new process of manufacture, which also develops their wonderful new flavor.

Have your grocer send a package for tomorrow's breakfast.

BULLFIGHT INSPIRES HAT DESIGN.

Dame Fashion takes her ideas wherever she finds them. To relieve the monotony of "military" hats she has traveled far from the battlefields to the bull rings of Spain.

The latest millinery novelty is the "toreador" hat, the effect being obtained by running wide fluted gros-grain ribbon around the edge of the brim.

The broad net ruff and enormous bow of ribbon at the neck also are recent innovations.

HIGH VOLTAGE WIRE BREAKS.

Fire Department Is Called; Capt. Stahlhut Has Narrow Escape.

A high tension wire of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company running through the alley just west of Davis street, broke shortly before midnight Tuesday and people residing near called the fir edepartment. Capt. John Stahlhut, of No. 3 engine house, had a narrow escape from death when he attempted to cut the wire. He suffered a severe shock, and it was afterward learned that the wire carried over 4,400 volts. The current was turned off and the break mended.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Acts 10:1-15.

1. There was a certain man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band.
2. A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always.
3. He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.
4. And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.
5. And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:
6. He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.
7. And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually:
8. And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.
9. On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour.
10. And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,
11. And saw Heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:
12. Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.
13. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.
14. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.
15. And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

The Reply to Carranza.

Secretary Lansing's note to the Mexican government flatly denying General Carranza's demand for the withdrawal of American troops from Mexican territory will, we think, take rank as one of the most forceful documents in the history of American diplomacy. It goes to the very heart of things, and while bristling with emphasis and making the decisive stand of the United States so clear that he who runs may read, is singularly free from bombast, intolerance or buncombe. The Mexican government must be dull indeed, if it fails to fully comprehend the precise meaning of the United States, and utterly reckless if it fails to comport itself in a manner that will amount to complete acceptance of the situation as America has laid it down.

In the face of provocation such as perhaps no other country has ever been called upon to endure, the United States in its friendship for its southern neighbor has been patient to the remotest extreme. It has suffered insult, indignity, robbery, murder and defiance times almost without number in the past eight months. Despairing at last of remedial measures from the opposite side of the border, the United States has reluctantly taken up a task imposed upon it by circumstances not of its own making. Even in the stress of the moment the American government has taken occasion to impassionately set these facts out and to appeal to the reason of the southern republic. Secretary Lansing's note is argumentative as well as positive, yet it is characterized by the modest restraint of a powerful man who knows his cause is just, who has no doubt of the outcome of an appeal to the sword, but who is profoundly reluctant to take that step.

The full extent of General Carranza's insolent insinuations and unwarranted charges of bad faith on the part of this country, we think, were not fully appreciated by the public until Mr. Lansing's reply set them out in some degree of detail. The inevitable result is one of popular resentment on this side of the border, and only stultification could have permitted it to pass without the severe rebuke administered in Secretary Lansing's reply. The insolence of Carranza, who owes his recognized authority as head of the defacto government in Mexico at this moment to the friendliness of the United States, is the element in the situation that rankles most. It is almost unheard of in international procedure, and would be sufficient in itself to warrant drastic measures.

Perhaps General Carranza will indulge a bit of sober judgment. There is faint hope for it, it is true. But there can be no mistaking the fact that he has been told definitely what will happen in certain eventualities, and that responsibility for future outcome rests entirely with him.

There are many angles to the question which has been raised regarding the proposed location of Hope hospital on a site fronting Reservoir park, and all of them deserve due consideration. The possibility that the proximity of the hospital might curtail to some extent the free use of the park for purposes of recreation and entertainment has been advanced, and there may be merit in it. On the other hand who would deny the sick and the convalescent the advantage of pleasant surroundings, agreeable outlook and the healthful influence of fresh air and the inviting scene that is presented when one sees old and young in the enjoyment of the recreations and the pleasures of the city parks. The situation is one which calls for full consideration of the interests of the neighborhood, the park and the hospital. We feel very sure that will be given before any irrevocable step is taken.

It will be with much regret that Allen county parts with the services of County Agent Henry, who is shortly to go to Purdue university to take up a wider field of the county agricultural work. Mr. Henry is not only extremely capable, but he is enthusiastic in his vision of agricultural and social possibilities for the rural communities and has a most happy faculty of developing his vision into reality. He has splendidly launched his work in Allen county, and set a very high mark at which those who may follow him must aim.

The city of Duluth, in a total of 15,000 votes cast, has just given the "dry" cause a majority of about 400 in the local option election, which seems to indicate that it is not alone in the smaller towns that the "dry" cause is making progress. Duluth will be "dry" after July 1, 1917, and it will be the largest American city to banash the saloon by individual initiative.

Many friends of Vice President Marshall are urging that the formal notification of renomination to the vice presidency occur in Indiana rather than at Washington, as was originally contemplated. There's no place like home when one is compelled to face these tremendously staggering shocks of surprise

SOME NIPPERISMS IN TABLOID FORM.

If the average saloonkeeper didn't display any more enthusiasm to get business than the average layman does to get members, he'd have to close and you could call this a dry town.

I haven't any patience with the person who flies up and gets mad when you offer him the best thing on earth.

A lot of people think just because they don't believe a thing it isn't true.

A lot of folks want to just take a few things out of the bible and throw the rest away.

Some people have the bible in their home for a bluff.

If you will believe the devil's testimony you will go out from this place a saved man.

The person who is saying no to the invitation to accept Christ is letting the devil make the decision for him.

Revival meetings in progress at the corner of Ewing and Main streets, conducted by the Jones-Nipper evangelistic party, continue of a spiritual nature and last night a large audience heard Rev. Nipper deliver a forceful sermon. The musical program was featured by a duet by Loren Jones, of the Nipper-Jones party, and Guy R. Sutton, well known member of the Lyon evangelistic party, which conducted services in Fort Wayne last year. Mr. Sutton is a vis- campaign.
itor in the city. His singing was a feature of revival services during the Lyon campaign.

The meeting on Friday night will be attended by members of the Men's Christian league of the city, who will assemble at the First Baptist church at 7:15 o'clock and march to Calhoun street, to Main street and west to the tent meeting. "The members of the Men's league have a chance to show their colors and to do something in a constructive way," declared Rev. Nipper in his announcement. "We must do something besides drive out the saloons; we must have an even broader vision.

"It takes money to run this campaign and we would like to have the necessary funds to defray all expenses contributed by next Sunday night," continued the pastor. "We now have something over $200 given, but more money is needed." Rev. Nipper announced a donation of $100 by a Fort Wayne resident, whose interest in the revival did not wane, despite the fact that he will be out of the city a greater part of the time it is in progress.

Visiting clergymen were given seats on the stage and among those present last night was Rev. T. M. Guild, of Huntington, brother of Rev. D. H. Guild, pastor of the First M. E. church, of Fort Wayne.

Rev. C. E. Boyer, pastor of the Crescent avenue Evangelical church, gave the opening prayer. Rev. J. B. Blair gave the offertory prayer. Rev. Nipper made announcements in the absence of Rev. O. E. Tomes, pastor of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ, who was out of the city. Rev. Tomes is chairman of the executive committee of the evangelistic campaign.

The choral work, under direction of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Jones, is still an inspiring feature of the revival. Mr. Jones directed the large chorus last night in several selections, which brought out some of the best singing of the protracted meetings.

Rev. Nipper's Sermon.

"Let Us Alone," taken from Mark 1-24, was the subject of Rev. Nipper's sermon, which was in part as follows:

We sometimes take a text of scripture and tell who the author is. You will readily see that these are not the words of Peter, James or John, but that they are the words of satan. They were spoken when Jesus approached a man who was possessed with the devil.

This cry has rung down through all the ages. It was the cry of Israel, even when they had been delivered from bondage and while in the wilderness. They cried, let us alone and let us go back and serve old Pharaoh. It was the cry of the south when the north took arms and went down there to free the colored people. They cried, let us alone. It is the cry of the liquor traffic when there is a protest against them for unlawful acts. If I had my way I'd have every drop of booze in hell before tomorrow morning. Say, if the average saloon keeper didn't display any more enthusiasm than the average church man he'd close up and you could call this a dry town. It is also the cry of the individual. I always feel sorry for the man who is always saying let me alone in my sin. I haven't any patience with the man or woman who will fly up and get sore when you ask him or her to accept the best thing on earth.

Show me a man that is swamped by sin and I'll show you a man that is saying, "Let me alone." Show me a city that is wide open and when a law is passed to close it up I will show you a city that is crying, "Let us alone." But there is coming a time when there will be a lot of people left alone, and then they will wish they had a little company of Christian people. Listen when Jesus comes, and his bride is caught up with him, and all the Christian people are caught up with him, and nothing left on earth but people that have refused to accept Christ. I say to you I don't want to have any part in that, for it is then that those who have been crying "Let us alone" will be left alone in their sin and can have the time of their lives in it.

Not Found in a Saloon.

I want you to notice that this man was not found in a saloon; he was not found indulging in any game of vice; he was not criticising the Bible, but he was in the synagogue or in the church. If the devil could be cast out of a lot of people that fill the church pews, it would not take long to close up this dispensation. But someone says, "I don't believe in the devil." Then I wonder who this voice was referring to when it said "us." I am sure that "us" doesn't mean me, and I am sure that it does not mean one person, and if it means two persons, then there must have been someone else there except this man. I am sure the devil was the spokesman for this man and every other man. I tell you when a man gets to the place where he will speak for himself he will always decide for Christ, but as long as he lets the devil decide for him he will never be a Christian, because the devil doesn't want anybody to be a Christian. The devil has given a testimony for Christ. He said: "I know thee who thou art; thou art Jesus, the Son of God." If you are serving the devil you should believe him, and if you will believe the devil's testimony you will go out of this place a saved person tonight.

Revival for Parents Needed.

I honor the father and mother who are living their lives before their children, and let me say right here that what we need in Fort Wayne is a revival among the parents of children. Listen to me just a minute. Are you a father of a boy? If so, what kind of a man will he be if he follows in your footsteps? Are you a mother of a girl? If so, what kind of a young lady will she be if she follows in your footsteps? Oh, you say, he's a great big-hearted fellow. Well, that may be, but he may be black-hearted as well; it may be a big heart, but not a true heart. Remember, fathers and mothers are going to have to give an account to God for the way they bring up their children. If you are here tonight away from God don't go away from this place saying, "Let me alone," but come right now and settle this matter and go away with peace of mind.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Perosns and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Miss Sarah McDonald, of the public schools, will spend the summer at Toronto, Canada.

The forty-fifth annual commencement of St. Augustine's academy was held at Library hall last evening.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the dinner given by the teachers of the Bloomingdale school last Tuesday.

Perry Achtenbruch, of the Leo road, fell off a wind mill ladder yesterday, a distance of ten feet and dislocated his right shoulder.

Captain J. R. Tyler, teacher of penmanship in the public schools, is building an addition and improving the ground at his Rome City cottage.

The sewers in Williams' addition failed to carry off the water fast enough during the rain storm the other evening and several cellars were flooded.

N. C. Browand and Joe Burger, the well known barbers, have introduced a new fad in the way of dress while at work. They wear long linen dusters in the shop.

The Marvin Kuhns murder trial will commence at Tiffin, Ohio, on Monday of next week. A large number of witnesses from Noble county and some from this city will attend as witnesses.

A big row boat arrived in the city this morning by freight and was taken to the country home of R. T. McDonald, where it will be launched and used for pleasure riding by Mr. McDonald and his friends.

For two days past the trustees of Taylor university have been holding meetings with closed doors. Dr. C. B. Stemen, the acting president, submitted his resignation, which was accepted.

Adjutant General N. R. Ruckle will arrive from Indianapolis this evening to make final arrangements for the state military encampment. The Tabor tract will in all probability be the chosen site for the encampment.

VICTIMS OF BOOZE LINE UP IN COURT

Long List Had Gotten the Worst of It in Encounter With Liquor.

Bleary-eyed booze hoisters lined the prisoners' bench in the city court Wednesday morning to answer charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Lee Ellis, hardware man of Lafayette, was fined $1 and costs, charged with being drunk.

John Harris and Earl Roach were fined $5 and costs each and Henry Parks drew $1 and costs, all charged with being drunk in a hobo camp along the Wabash railroad. Parks, it seems, did not get so much of the amber juice, and his state of hilarity and fine were correspondingly reduced.

Tom Shackey, if his testimony was to be accepted was a "gentleman drunk." Thomas laid claim in court to a "wardrobe" worth $325, but the most distressing part of it was that he did not have it on when he appeared in court. "If I could get to Cleveland," exclaimed Shackey, but the court at that juncture gave him $5 and costs.

Gust Wiebke told the court he had a job at Gary, but the police had a bigger one when he was found annoying passengers at the "Pennsy" station. "I don't know whether the officer knew I had a ticket to Gary or not when he arrested me," said Wiebke. The court gave him $5 and costs.

John Firestine, a bartender, must be the man who put the "fire" in "stine." He was charged in police court with abusing his wife and using profane language at his home, in the rear of 317 Dawson street. His wife, though not in court, told the officer that Firestone made $16 a week, but she never saw any of it. Officer Pattee testified against Firestine. The court reconsidered his action of placing Firestine under $25 bond to appear June 22, when his wife could testify, and fined him $5 and costs.

The case of William Brown, charged with disorderly conduct, was continued under $25 bond. He was found drunk in a box car at the Harrison street railway crossing.

Cyrus Wright, charged with being drunk, was fined $10 and costs. And the court told Cyrus that another offense of a similar nature would send him to the state farm. The accused was a good little confesser before the judge. He admitted several times having been drunk.

James Carmody studied hard last night whether he should empty the contents of a bottle of whisky, while he waited in a protected place, as it was raining, or just "listen" to it rain. From the looks of Jeems' lamps in police court, he drank the liquor. But he told the court that he fell asleep with the whisky still in the bottle. Carmody was released from the state farm May 17 and was fined $5 and costs for being drunk June 5. The court gave him $1 and costs.

Theodore Weichman, charged with loitering, told the court he could get a job at Huntington and for "Theo's" kind of work the judge decided Huntington was the place for him.

Dan Lung, charged with allowing prostitutes in his saloon, was found not guilty.

WILL FEED SOLDIER GUESTS.

Pittsburg to Follow Precedent Set During Civil War.

Pittsburg, June 21.—Pittsburg will follow the precedent established in the civil war and feed all soldiers passing through this city. Coffee, sandwiches and probably more substantial food will be provided for a number now estimated at 30,000. No soldier passing through the city will go hungry. The Pittsburg chapter of the women's division for preparedness will have the work in charge and the city council has agreed to pay all expenses.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

FEELS BUOYANT IN THE MORNING NOW

John W. Spangler Tells of the Benefits Tanlac Brought.

"I've gained fifteen pounds since I started taking Tanlac a few weeks ago," John W. Spangler, well known machine operator at the Pennsylvania R. R. shops, of 2207 Hanna street, said recently.

"I had stomach trouble in nearly all of its forms," Mr. Spangler continued. "After eating, it would seem for several hours that my stomach was heavily loaded. Accumulations of gas formed in my stomach and I bloated easily. I didn't sleep well. I'd just toss and roll about the bed and I'd get up in the mornings feeling tired. I didn't enjoy or relish my food.

"My first bottle of Tanlac brought benefits. I've taken four bottles of the medicine now and I can eat all I care for without a trace of the heavy feeling in my stomach I formerly suffered The bloating is entirely gone. I sleep well now and I get up in the mornings feeling refreshed and buoyant. I have a fine appetite now. I recommend Tanlac for all who suffer from stomach trouble."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kindney trouble, catarrhal complaints. rheumatism, nervousness, loss of appetite and the like.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Fort Wayne at Meyer's drug stores, Wayne and Calhoun, Calhoun and Columbia, 1420 Calhoun and Broadway and Taylor.—Advertisement.

Hope Hospital —Its New Site

Editor Daily Sentinel: A few property holders, who live facing Reservoir park, are fearful that the location of the new Hope hospital at the corner of Clinton and Suttenfield streets will have a tendency to lessen the desirability of that locality as a residence district and they are, therefore, making an effort to prevent such location. I do not think they need have any such fear. A handsome six story pressed brick building set back from the street fifteen to twenty feet, will certainly be far more desirable than the three vacant lots overgrown with weeds and tall grass—as vacant lots always are—which have marked that corner for the past thirty years. All the receiving and discharging of patients will be to the rear, back upon Clinton street. The grounds will be beautified and made most attractive. There is no finer neighborhood than that which is built about the Lutheran hospital on Fairfield avenue. At the time of its location Fairfield avenue residents were put out about it and feared it might prove objectionable, but such has not been the experience.

I have had this objection made to me to the new location of Hope hospital: "It will not be pleasant to have convalescents sitting or moving about in the park."

I answer, hospital patients return to their homes, as a rule, just as soon as they can get around. They do not remain after they have sufficiently recovered to walk about the building, let alone the park. If, however, an occasional one can enjoy the park, for a brief time, I would not envy the man or woman who would begrudge them that privilege.

Others have said: "A quiet zone would be established about the hospital and that would prevent our having our share of band concerts."

Not at all, it would be a reason for giving you additional such concerts. If the patients in our hospitals could exchange the thunderous noise of heavy interurban and city cars, which pass right under their ears until long past midnight and commence again at 5:30 in the morning, for "the concord of sweet sounds," which would float over the waters of Reservoir lake a block and a half distant from a band located on the island, playing only in the evening from 8 to 9:30 o'clock, they would be exceedingly fortunate. Open air music at that distance and at that early hour would interest and soothe the sick and be of postive pleasure and benefit. If our patients at present in Hope hospital could escape the nearly all night and early morning clatter of the Lincoln highway, with its constant stream of open-throated motorcycles and automobiles and the iron tired market wagons, rumbling over the brick pavement on Barr street, they would think the dim prattle of happy little children playing upon the ice in Reservoir park the sweetest kind of music and, as it would be winter, they would be asking the nurse to open the window a bit that they might hear it the better.

"Then, too, there is the school two blocks away; wouldn't the conversation of the children as they pass in and out morning, noon and afternoon be heard 500 feet away and greatly distress the patients?"

Scarcely; in the street noise of the day time they could not be heard at all.

"But suppose we should want to put on another centennial pageant in 2016, and fight another battle of Fallen Timbers for one minute for five nights, wouldn't the noise of the firing greatly disturb the sick?"

Why that one minute of pop-gun firing at the pageant for the entire five performances all combined wouldn't equal the noise of one interurban car, at midnight, pounding its way beneath the windows of the new St. Joe hospital.

The new site for Hope hosiptal was especially chosen because of its extreme quietness, as well as its great attractiveness.

CADOMENE FOR PREMATURELY OLD MEN AND WOMEN

"I'M GETTING OLD"

How many there are who make this remark?

And The Reeason—A run down nervous system, failing strength and energy. These men and women, too, many who have not yet reached the two score years are the victims of nervousness, "Shot to Pieces" the result of overwork, worry, excesses, exhaustion and dissipation of their natural strength and normal vigor.

CADOMENE TABLETS (3 grain) RESTORE ENERGY.

Cadomene Tablets are a True Tonic intended to arouse to renewed activity the exhausted forces of the human organism, to give fresh vigor to the brain and nervous system and cells of every structure.

With the loss of normal vitality and strength the mental faculties also become less active, on account of the direct nerve connection between the brain and the structures, muscles become flabby, tissue degenerates, the entire body becomes weakened and devitalized. Life becomes more and more burdensome. Whether the condition is due to youthful ignorance of correct living, or excesses in later life, or any other cause, the only treatment that can possibly be of help in such cases is one that tends to bring about natural conditions—which will awaken activity in the nerve cells, generating new vitality and life, increasing muscular strength and replacing worn out and wasting tissue with new.

If your energy and power to accomplish are lessening there's nothing on earth that will do as much good as Cadomene Tablets (3 grain) in restoring proper vim, vitality and life to every bodily structure.

Cadomene Tablets are guaranteed to satisfy and if they do not, every cent of your money will be refunded—it belongs to you and we want you to have it.

Every one should enjoy good health, mentally and physically and experience the consequent increased acuteness of the senses through which happiness is experienced. Cadomene Tablts (3 grain) offer amazing promptness of action in recent cases and gradual and pleasing improvement in chronic cases.

All druggists supply Cadomene Tablets (3 grain) in sealed tubes. Take no substitute.

LEGHORN WITH VELVET CROWN

THE black velvet crown is the paramount feature of the newest hats. Much ingenuity is shown in the shaping of the crowns. They aren't all smooth affairs following the regular crown outline. Some of them are regular tam o' shanters, others are three and four cornered shape and extend far over the brim. A few are oblong and are stiffened with buckram.

The combination of black velvet and leghorn is very rich. Proof of this is seen in the model photographed. A distinctly summer air is given the hat by the use of lilies of the valley and white roses. Sounds as though one were speaking of a bridal bouquet. The vogue of the velvet crown is as practical as it is beautiful, for it suggests a way to cover the crown which has been burned by the sun.

TO WEAR ON THE PORCH

THE economical woman is the one who looks out for little frocks that she can wear on the porch with a feeling of comfort. She does not want anything too elaborate and yet she desires something that "looks halfway decent." Now is the opportunity, for in the shops the most adorable linen, voile and other cotton frocks are offered for $5 and up.

There are pretty frocks made up of white and sprigged voiles which are finished at the neckline with quaint fichus and at the waistline with narrow bands of picot ribbon.

In most cases the skirts are either ruffled or trimmed with broad tucks. Here and there one will find an overskirt. Such a style was carried out in a blue and white polka-dot voile. The blouse portion was simply made and finished with a deep sailor collar of organdie. The overskirt was pointed and edged with a rolled hem. Three half-inch belts of the material gave the prettiest result one could desire at the waistline.

Many of the striped frocks have their blouses made in smock style, the skirts being perfectly plain and gathered to the belt. Belts of leather, ribbon or velvet confine the fullness of the smocks.

A darling lavender organdie frock, costing little over $7, was made with a little apron, front and back. The front buttoned up on one shoulder. Several strands of white wool were couched with lavender silk along the edge of the apron and continued in a straight line on the blouse, front and back. Two collars, frilly affairs, of lavender and yellow added a delightful touch to the frock.

One really needs at least one or more frock like these described. It is extravagant to wear one's best on the porch, and it is slovenly not to take some pride in one's porch frocks.

THE NEWEST WRITING PAPER

IF ONE is going to be fashionable in one thing, one should be fashionable in all things. For this reason, then, the up-to-date woman must cast aside her old collection of writing-paper and replenish it with the new varieties.

The most unique among the collection of latest stationery is the single sheet made with a panel. The sheet measures eight inches in length and seven inches in width. It can be had in white, gray or lavender. The latter two have a very narrow white border, but all three are edged with gold.

Striped paper is just as much in vogue as are striped materials for frocks. The stripes are of self tones, lighter or darker tones and of contrasting colors. In each case they are little larger than a pin stripe.

The woman living in the country or seaside home should, for her own convenience and the convenience of her friends, have her addresses engraved on her letter sheets. If desired, each address can be artistically illustrated. For instance, her wire address can be illustrated with a telegraph pole and wires. Her telephone number can be ornamented by a drawing of the instrument. Beside the postoffice address the figure of a postman might appear, and so on. Another feature that should win favor is the illustrating of the name of one's cottage.

MORE GORES

IN PARIS the well-dressed woman does not appear on the street in a wash dress. Rather does she choose one of dark silk. A very lovely simple frock for street wear is one seen at a recent display. It was made of dark blue taffeta, and the skirt had just exactly eleven gores. Each seam was outlined with a strip of silver braid. The bottom of each gore was interesting in that it was semi-circular in shape and closely resembled the gore of an umbrella. A white vestee and blue georgette crepe assured one that the frock would be quite comfortable on the warmest summer day.

A SMART SUIT

SILK jersey suits have been with us for some time, but a new feature has been introduced in them. The coat of a smart old rose suit is lined with white wool jersey. To wear with it is a one-piece dress of white wool jersey. It is made of white wool jersey following very straight lines from the high collar to the hem. The only trimming is the buttons, pockets and sash of rose silk jersey. The full, circular coat is three-quarter length and has neither pockets nor belt.

Other coats of silk jerseys are lined with satin, crepe de chine and a few have velvet linings.

SILK FOR THE SUMMER COAT

EVERY woman has need for at least one silk coat in her wardrobe. The possession of one is really an economy, for it means that madam has a wrap suitable for afternoon or evening wear.

There are any number of silks that can be used for the making of a coat like the one sketched. It is stunning in satin, but loses none of its attractiveness in taffeta. Faille, too, is popular material for top-coats.

The broad revers are an advantage to the slender woman who wishes to conceal her angular lines. To ornament them one might use heavy wool embroidery, or, if a richer effect is desired, colorful beads can be used instead.

The deep patch pockets should be lined with material of a contrasting color. These, as well as the cuffs and sash ends, are ornamented like the revers.

USING A TOY TRUNK

HAVE you ever thought of using a toy trunk for carrying the food and various utensils to the picnic ground? Try it some time and you'll find how convenient the little affair is. The tray can be used for napkins and silver. The napkins, by the way, should be paper, so that they can be thrown away as soon as used. It's a good idea to carry a roll of paper towels along, for the hands will become soiled. And don't think of carrying china or tin plates. You can get wooden plates of all sizes, even little square ones, for the dessert. They are light weight to carry and can be thrown away after being used.

SPORTS HATS

SO MUCH importance is attached to sports hats that it is not at all unusual for a girl of limited means to indulge in two hats of this kind and only one of a dressy type. A very practical hat which combines the sport and dressy idea is in the form of a medium brim Panama. It is transformed into a dressy sailor by the use of a three-inch extension of pink batiste. Other colors are just as effective.

A very unique idea used on one felt hat is the embroidering of one's monogram in a contrasting color on the side crown.

YOUR BOILED EGGS

IN FAMILIES where there are no maids its always a problem to know how to keep the boiled eggs warm while the cereal is being eaten. But the problem has been solved. For the sum of $4 one can get a china box which looks like a small-sized trunk. The box is fitted with a lid so that the eggs are sure to be kept warm. At one end of the box a peep is stuck, and to enable his head to come thru a hole has been cut in the lid. There's no mistaking the purpose of the box when you glance at the chick's head. 'Tis a novelty that is worth its price because it is practical.

Society

Preceding the entrance of the bridal party at the Suelzer-Berghoff wedding at St. Mary's church on Thursday morning will be a half hour musical program which Gaston Bailhe, violinist, will play with the accompaniment of the organ. The wedding is at 9 o'clock and pontifical high mass will be celebrated by Mgr. J. H. Oechtering and assistants.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Bernhart, of Attica, have returned to their home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gocke.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Wells come home on Wednesday evening from Detroit, where Dr. Wells attended the Dr. White clinic.

Little Helen Wright, of High street, though only two years old, had a party as nice as if it had been for a five-year-old child and entertained a few friends at Swinney park. The playground sports were enjoyed. There were present Helen Miller, Luella Elder, Pauline Davis, Dale Wefel, Wayne Davis and Clement Elder.

A shower party was given on a recent evening at the home of Mrs. Rah Deahl in honor of Miss Evelyn Wertman, whose marriage took place on Wednesday. Mrs. E. Baumgartner assisted in entertaining. The house was beautifully decorated in syringa and daisies. White roses were given as favors and the table for supper expressed the coloring of white and yellow with ribbon and flowers. A delicious luncheon was served and the bride-elect received many gifts. The guests were Misses Elsie and Bertha Weikert, Hilda Herman, Esther Fritz, Edna Seivers, Hazel Gooley, Elsie Krantz, Edith Shiffer, another bride of Wednesday, and Mrs. Joe Emerich and Mrs. Karl Granneman.

BURLAGE-DIETRICH

The wedding of Miss Solina E. Dietrich, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Dietrich, and Mr. Carl J. Burlage, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Burlage took place on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Mary's church. Mgr. J. H. Oechtering officiated at the nuptial mass and marriage ceremony. The church was decorated with palms and the altar with white carnations. Miss Catherine Burlage, a sister to the groom, was honor maid and other bridesmaids were Misses Gladys Neireiter, of this city and Grace Cantile, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Mr. Jerome Lauer was best man and Mr. William Kiep was groomsman. The bridal party made an extremely pretty appearance. The bride was gowned in white crepe de meteor made with a train, and trimmed in pearl ornaments and bands. Over the gown fell the long folds of the bridal veil which was held to the bride's hair with a tiny wreath of swansonia blossoms. The bride held a bouquet of bride roses and swansonia tied with tulle. Miss Cantile was gowned in pink taffeta and net combined and she wore a crown of flowers in her hair and held pink and white roses tied with pink, while Miss Neireiter, all in green of similar materials, wore pink roses in her hair and held pink flowers tied with green tulle ribbon. The maid of honor was gowned in light blue silk marquisette and she carried a blue basket filled with marguerites and wore a crown of the daisies in her hair. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, 1108 Summit street to about thirty people. The house and the bride's table were decorated in sweetpeas and roses with garlands of smilax. In the afternoon the bride and groom left on a trip but were keeping even the direction of their travels from their friends. After a week's absence Mr. and Mrs. Burlage will be at home at 1108 Summit street. For traveling the bride is wearing a dark blue poplin suit and white Panama hat. Mr. Burlage is assisting traffic manager at the Bowser company and is deservedly respected and popular. The bride has been showered with attention from her many friends for the past few weeks and she is admired and esteemed by all who know her. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cantile and Miss Cantile of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Fred Wagner and daughter, of Covington, Ky., were out of town guests.

Pupils Gave Good Recital.

Many relatives and friends gathered in Packard hall on Tuesday evening to hear a recital of piano pupils of Miss Edith Foster and were well repaid for their time. The entire program was characterized by a bigness and evenness of tone, by very good rhythm and correct reading and a positiveness of fingering that left no doubt as to training. The work was all from memory. Miss Helen Braun, a talented violin pupil of Mr. Nussbaum, lent variety to the program by some good playing of Thome and Beethoven numbers. Miss Braun, who is quite a young girl, plays with a very free bow and her ear seems perfect as to pitch and there is evidence of natural musical expression. Of Miss Foster's pupils one, Miss Ruth Anderson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, deserves special mention not because what she did was better than the work of the young pupils who individually did so well, but because of her talent and advancement. Miss Anderson played the Mendelssohn "capriccio brillant" concerto, first piano, with Miss Foster at the second piano, in admirable style, both as to accuracy, tempo and general spirit of interpretation. Others pupils who played beginning with the youngest were: Prelina Fletcher, Andrew Wells, Leonard Ehrman, Chester Ludwig, Frederick Ehrmann, Bernice Johnston, Jessie Parry, Mabel Bechtol.

Wagner—Frank.

A very pretty wedding of Sunday was that of Miss Anna Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mendel Frank, of 1420 Hanna street, and Mr. Harry Wagner, which was solemnized in the B'nai Brith synagogue by Rabbi Mendel Hurowitz in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Esther Frank, and by Misses Jennie Friedman, Frances Friedman and Sarah Salon. Mr. Herman Komisarow attended the groom, and Messrs. Elliot and Seymour Meyer and Alfred Zweig were ushers. The church was decorated with many garden flowers, palms and ferns. After the marriage service the bridal party and relatives and friends went to Dehm's hall where a reception was held and which had been prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride and groom have many friends in the city whom they will receive in their own home as soon as possible after they return from their wedding trip. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Wagner will be with the bride's parents.

Schroeder—Kilgore.

Miss Dorothea Kilgore and Mr. Carl L. Schroeder were married at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning in Trinity Episcopal church, Rev. E. W. Averill officiating and a few relatives and friends witnessing the ceremony. Miss Sally Cabler presided at the organ. The bride wore a blue taffeta suit with blue Bangkok Panama hat both very stylish and becoming and held a bouquet of Aaron Ward roses. The bride walked in with her father, Mr. William R. Kilgore, who gave her in marriage. Congratulations were extended to the young couple at the church and they left at once on a northern trip. After the first of August Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder will be at home at 2002 South Webster street, where they will go to housekeeping. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs William Kilgore, of West Butler street, and Mr. Schroeder is a son of Mrs. Louise Schroeder. Mr. Schroeder is a member of the Daily News staff of reporters and is very highly regarded. The bride is attractive and capable, a favorite with her many friends and an active worker in the societies of the Episcopal church.

Aiken—Wertman.

Rev. Dr. A. K. Zartman officiated at the marriage of Miss Evelyn Wertman and Mr. Clarence R. Aiken at the home of the bride at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. There were no guests. Miss Mildred Wertman was the bride's attendant. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wertman, of Columbia avenue, and with her husband will continue to make her home with her parents. Mr. Aiken, who is a mechanic in the Pennsylvania shops, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Aiken, of Lake avenue. Both young people are members of Grace Reformed church and are active in the work of the young people's societies.

Benninghoff—Shiffer.

Miss Edith E. Shiffer and Mr. William N. Benninghoff were united in marriage at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of the bride by Rev. Dr. A. K. Zartman. The bride has been a stenographer in the law offices of Heaton & Heaton for several years and is highly thought of by all who know her. Mr. Benninghoff is a mechanic employed as foreman at the Shryock Auto store. Mr and Mrs. Benninghoff will be at home with her parents at 2018 South Clinton street.

HAVE PRETTY WEDDING IN CATHEDRAL WEDNESDAY.

MR. PHILIP REILLY.

MRS. ISABEL M'DONALD REILLY.

Miss Isabel McDonald, a cousin of Miss Katherine MacDougal and Mr. C. M. MacDougal, with whom she made her home, and Mr. Philip Reilly, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reilly, of Harmer street, were married at 9 o'clock in the Cathedral on Wednesday morning. Rev. John R. Quinlan officiated at the ceremony and the nuptial mass and many friends were present. Miss Juliette Lange was bridesmaid and Mr. Byron Hayes attended Mr. Reilly. The bride made a beautiful appearance in a white georgette crepe gown, of which the only ornamentation was some exquisite hand embroidery. A veil of tulle held to the hair with a cluster of swansonia blossoms, fell only to the hem of the shoe skirt, while the bouquet of bride roses with ribbon and swansonia blossom forming the shower, made a finishing touch of beauty and simplicity quite befitting the youth and charm of the bride. Miss Lange wore a gown of pink taffeta and net and a large pink hat of georgette crepe and silk with pink rose trimming. The bridesmaid's bouquet was composed of snapdragon and sweetpeas, pink in color, and pink shoes and gloves were other details of a pretty costume. A feature of the service was the singing of appropriate solos by Mrs. E. H. Kirkland. The wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, the MacDougal residence in West Wayne street, to immediate family relatives. Covers were laid for twenty-two and Mrs. Schumaker catered. The house decorations were very prettily arranged by the Misses Flick in reception room and dining room of smilax about the chandeliers and Shoyer roses and swansonia in vases about the rooms. The sun parlor had many peonies and garden roses for decoration. The decorations at the Cathedral were hydranges plants in blossom and palms. In the afternoon the bride and groom left for Chicago and other western points. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit of garbardine, with white hat, shoes and white georgette blouse, all very becoming and in excellent taste. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Reilly will be at home for the summer at 918 Garden street, the residence of Mrs. E. H. Coombs. The groom, Mr. Reilly, is a fine young man and is employed in the Pennsylvania railroad offices. The bride came here from Glengary, near Montreal, Canada, several years ago.

Miss Gladys Becker left on Wednesday to spend the rest of the week with Miss Helen McClure in Lafayette.

The home of Miss Valette Klingmann in Lafayette street, was the scene of a pretty party on Monday evening which was given in honor of Miss Margaret Richter, of Chicago. Various games were played. Prizes were won by Ruth Brand and Edna Winsch. There was a fine supper enjoyed by everyone who took part. The guests were Margaret Richter, Ruth Brand, Virginia Draths, Edna Winsch and Marcella Ofenloch.

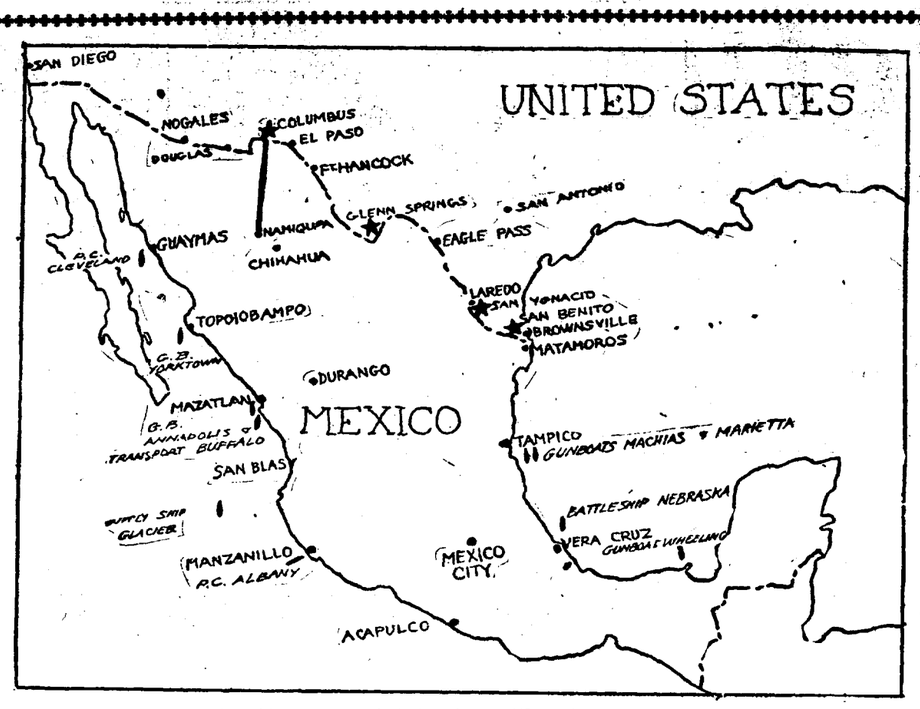
WHERE FOUR AMERICAN COLUMNS ENTERED MEXICO—HOW TROOPS ARE LINED UP FOR POSSIBLE WAR.



The accompanying map and table show the disposition of American troops along the Mexican border and in Chihuahua, the naval vessels in Mexican waters, and the points from which the four American punitive expeditions entered Mexico—Columbus, Glenn Springs, San Ygnacio and San Benito.

All these expeditions except that of Gen. Pershing, in Chihuahua, have been withdrawn, having accomplished their objects—dispersal of the bandit bands that attacked American settlements.

The battleship Nebraska is at Vera Cruz, the gunboats Machias and Marietta at Tampico, and the gunboat Wheeling at El Carmen on the Mexican east coat; on the west coast are the protected cruiser Cleveland at Guaymas, gunboat Yorktown at Topolobampa, gunboat Annapolis and transport Buffalo at Mazatlan, protected cruiser Albany at Manzanillo, and supply ship Glacier cruising between ports.

HOW U. S. TROOPS ARE DISTRIBUTED ALONG BORDER

With Gen Pershing in Chihuahua	15,000
At the base at Columbus, N. M.	2,500
At Douglas and Nogales, Ariz.	2,500
At Fort Bliss and Camp Cotton El Paso	3,500
At Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio	4,500
Between El Paso and Eagle Pass	1,500

Fashions.

There are fashions in medicine as well as in millinery. The old time cathartic pills with their harsh drastic effects hav gone out, and it is high time that they had. In their place we have the mild laxatives and gentle cathartics of which Chamberlain's Tablets is one of the most popular. When the proper dose is taken the effect of these tablets in so agreeable and so natural that you do not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Chamberlain's Tablets also strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

NEXT MEETING MAY COME TO FT. WAYNE

Phi Delta Kappa Convention Gets Under Way at Lafayette.

Lafayette, Ind., June 21.—The fourteenth annual convention of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity opened here today with close to four hundred members registered. The members are here from Ohio, Indiana, Washington and Oregon.

Large delegations from Marion, Muncie and Wabash arrived here Tuesday evening and hundreds poured in over the different lines this morning.

At 10 o'clock the address of welcome was given by Mayor Bauer to the assembled members of the fraternity at the convention headquarters in the Hotel Fowler and the convention then adjourned until the business meeting, which was started at 1 o'clock.

With the opening of the first business meeting several big fights were promised by the various delegates. A fight has also been started between several cities to see which one shall have the convention next year, Fort Wayne, South Bend, Elwood and Washington, Ind., being mentioned.

A number of the candidates for national office are here at the present time and they are already starting their campaigns. Among the strongest candidates at the present time are Russel G. Crevistón, of Marion, for national president; W. C. Eidson, of Greenville, Ohio, for national secretary-treasurer, and Earl W. Hamer, of Wabash, for auditor.

This evening the convention ball will be given in the Fowler hotel and it is expected that two hundred couples will enjoy this. The convention will close on Friday evening.

An Agreeable Surprise.

There are many who have no relish for their meals and who must be very careful as to what they eat, that would be agreeably surprised if they were to take a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its duties naturally. Hundreds have testified to the great benefit they have derived from the use of these tablets. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

CLINE TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR CANAL

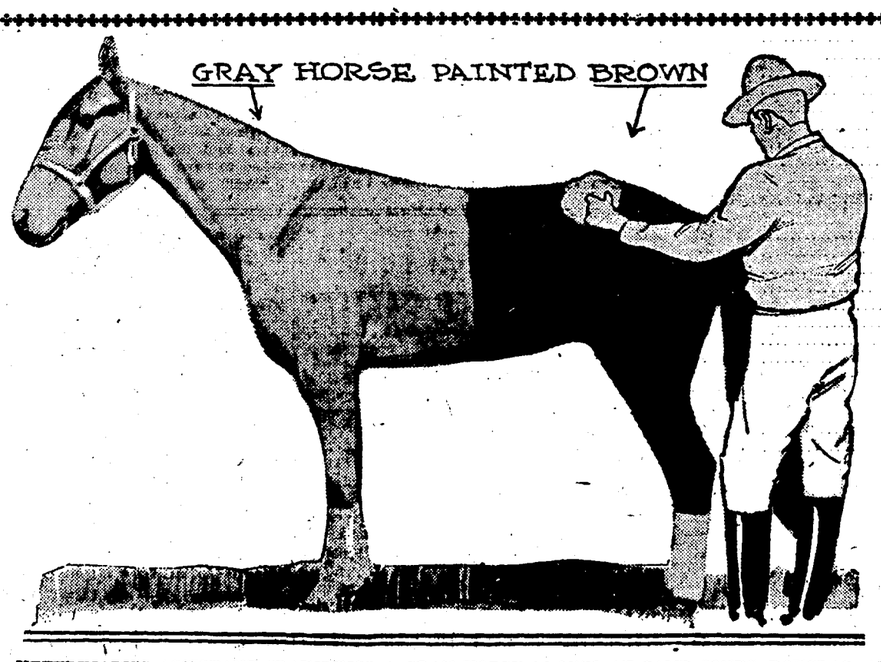
Representative Cyrus Cline has written to T. J. Logan, treasurer of the Erie and Michigan Deep Waterways association, relative to the report of the army engineers on the proposed Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal. Among other things Mr. Cline said:

"Every element entering into the problem has been decided in favor of building the canal except the one question, namely, the amount of commerce that would be carried on through the canal, which the board of engineers finds is not at present sufficient to warrant its construction. You are advised, of course, that the cost of constructing the canal is estimated by the board of engineers to be $148,000,000 by the northern route and $147,000,000 by the southern route. I do not give the odd figures; I am giving it to you in round numbers. I will be glad to give you any further information that you may desire."

Diarrhoea.

For this disease you will find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy unsurpassed. One or two doses of it are nearly always sufficient to check the attack. It is not disagreeable to take. This remedy contains no astringent and for that reason leaves the bowels in a natural condition. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

CAVALRY ON "INVISIBLE HORSES" SEEN GALLOPING ON THIN AIR IN MEXICAN DESERT.



VETERINARY'S ASSISTANT "PAINTING" A GRAY HORSE BROWN AT CAMP JONES, DOUGLAS, ARIZ.

Douglas, Adiz., June 20.—"Invisible horses" will be an adjunct of the American army if Uncle Sam fights with Mexico—or any other country!

They're making them invisible now, at Camp Jones, just east of Douglas.

Conspicuous gray horses are treated with a dye that darkens them to such a color they're almost invisible at 300 yards or more on the desert of Arizona or Mexico.

In the low desert hills you can sometimes see a man sitting on nothing and galloping through the air. You know he's on a horse, of course—but you can't see the horse.

Veterinary Coleman Nockolds, of the First cavalry, started dying horses. They were the first dyed for United States army use.

In 1905 an effort was made to introduce the system in this country, following its successful use by the British army against the Boers in South Africa. But the war department notified the veterinaries that "there are no paints on hand for this purpose" and the plan was dropped.

Nockolds and Veterinary A. L. Masen, of the Sixth field artillery, have dyed a number of mounts at Camp Jones with good results. Gray horses are colored so they can't be identified in a group of six pulling a gun.

The dye lasts until the horses begin shedding hair; then it must be renewed. But it's a simple operation, and the animal can be dyed and dried in an hour. Generally he gets a second coat, to give him a more even color.

When he's turned loose in a corral with the rest of the troop or battery mounts, the dyed horse can't be told from the others by an outsider. Some of the best looking animals in the camp are dyed.

But they have to get acquainted with the other horses all over again—for their own team mates can't recognize them.

Nockolds dyed a white mare used as a leader for some artillery mules. When the mare came back the mules wouldn't follow her.

Once in the Philippines an experiment was made in dying horses. It failed there, but afterward they discovered that in the Philippine climate it would have been necessary to bleach the horses before dying them.

Vacant Rooms? Don't Worry

If you have not found a tenant for your room, there's no use despairing and "publishing" the fact all over in scare headlines.

"There are just as good tenants in the city as ever been gotten."

The best way to reach them is to place your "For Rent" ad. in the paper that the tenants read. In Fort Wayne nearly everyone takes The Sentinel and reads Sentinel want ads.

CLEARY UNCOVERS A STAR PITCHER

Freese is Hurling Fine Ball for Cleary's Crows.

When the Crows stack up against the fast Payne bunch here Sunday the fans will not only have an opportunity to see a good ball game but will have a chance to see young Freese, Cleary's new find, in action. This youngster has the best of them baffled around here and seems to be started for something bigger. Herbert Heine will form the receiving end of the firing line and Cleary thinks with this battery he will be able to take a win home with him. Payne believes in preparedness, too, for they have signed Andy Ware, of the Kitty league, to play with them Sunday. Sunday will be ladies' day, and all are invited to attend. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

GIANT STAR PITCHES FOR HIS HEALTH

Anderson Studied Dentistry Until Health Failed, Now Pitches Ball

Fred Anderson, star of the Giants' curving corps, is one hurler who may truthfully be said to be pitching for his health, though of course he also draws down some cash stipend for his services.

Several years ago while pitching for the Boston Red Sox Anderson was studying dentistry on the side. Finally he decided to give up baseball and follow his other profession. He bought out the practice of an old tooth carpenter down in Georgia and hit 1.000 in the prosperity league.

Finally his health broke under the strain. A physician advised him to take a long rest and be outdoors as much as possible. The Federals, just starting up, offered an opportunity and Anderson grabbed it, signing with Buffalo. He soon regained his health and last year was regarded by many as the best heaver in the now defunct organization.

McGraw heard of Anderson's prowess and when the Feds blew the Giant boss bought him.

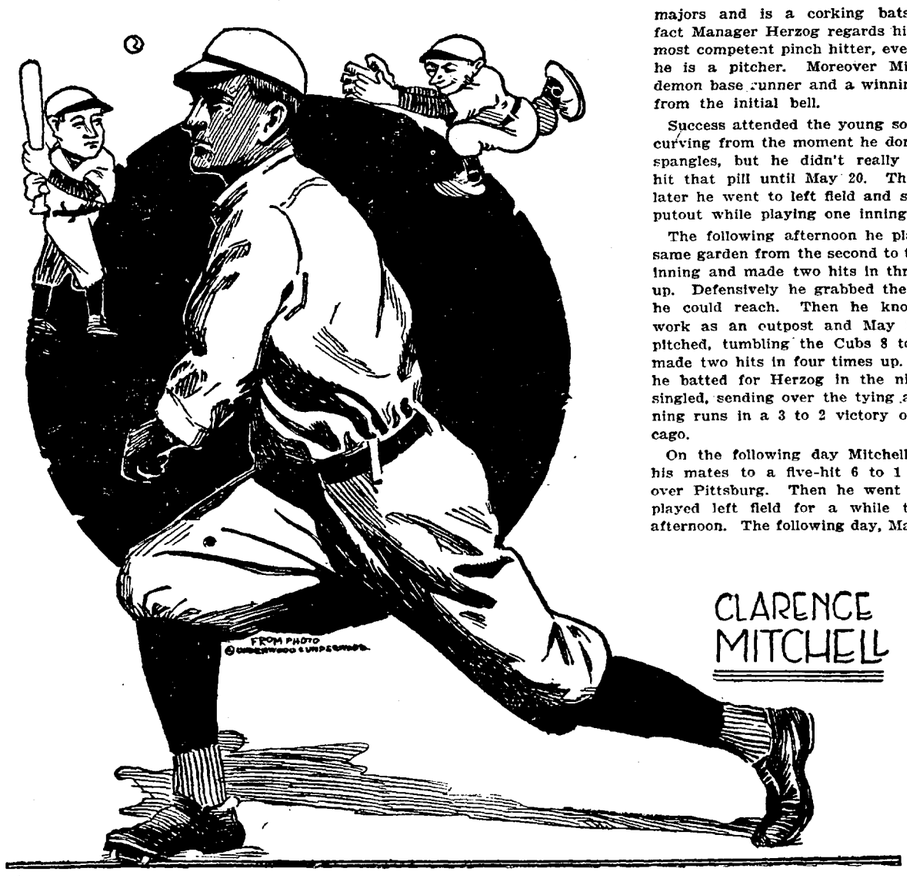
STAR OF RED'S PITCHING STAFF BATS DIZZY CLIP IN THE PINCHES



(By Harold Johnson.)

By trade he's a pitcher, a left-hander and hence a suspicious character, according to the unwritten laws of the baseball. But Clarence Mitchell, of the Cincinnati Reds slab staff, is "right" mentally, morally, physically and every other way.

That is why the Nebraskan is Redland's diamond idol and John McGraw's Giants have a wholesome respect for "Mitch" ever since he tamed them 6 to 4 in thirteen rounds. But when you say Mitchell is a darn good pitcher you haven't begun to tell it all. He's an all-around ballplayer.

He can hold down an outfield berth as good as most of the men playing it in the majors and is a corking batsman. In fact Manager Herzog regards him as his most competent pinch hitter, even though he is a pitcher. Moreover Mitch is a demon base runner and a winning player from the initial bell.

Success attended the young southpaw's curving from the moment he donned Red spangles, but he didn't really start to hit that pill until May 20. Three days later he went to left field and speared a putout while playing one inning.

The following afternoon he played the same garden from the second to the ninth inning and made two hits in three times up. Defensively he grabbed the only fly he could reach. Then he knocked off work as an outpost and May 25 again pitched, tumbling the Cubs 8 to 4. He made two hits in four times up. May 28 he batted for Herzog in the ninth and singled, sending over the tying and winning runs in a 3 to 2 victory over Chicago.

On the following day Mitchell pitched his mates to a five-hit 6 to 1 triumph over Pittsburg. Then he went out and played left field for a while the next afternoon. The following day, May 30, he ran for Clark in the sixteenth inning and scored a run.

Mitchell's best feat was performed June 2 at New York, when his drive started the rally that won for the Reds in thirteen innings, 6 to 4. Not a pass did he issue, and three whiffed.

Since that battle the former Denverite has been going like a streak.

DODGERS FACE 16 DOUBLE-HEADERS

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 21—Brooklyn fans will soon see a lot of their diamond idols at bargain prices. The copious rainfall this spring has been good for the crops but not for Col. Ebbets' club, and as the result sixteen double-headers have been piled up. Ten of these matinees will be staged at home. If the Dodgers' curving corps can stand up under the strain, Brooklyn must be reckoned with in the final rounds.

SPORT DOPE

Louisville dropped four games to Minneapolis in two days and are in fourth place.

Connie Mack released Infielder Malone and Outfielder Stellbauer.

The Phillies are following the footsteps of the Braves as in the spring of 1915. Moran's men closed the first month of the present season in the second division.

Spike Kelly and Mike O'Dowd will tango ten rounds at St. Paul July 10.

Ever Hammer will meet Johnny Dundee on July 4. He is starting training for the grind at Chicago.

If Jess Willard eats, drinks and wears half the things he has indorsed it's no wonder he's in a circus.

The Cardinals have signed a rook pitcher entitled "Mule" Watson. "Mule" is a promising young pitcher, barring a slight tendency to balk.

"Keen interest in chess match," reads headline. They say the same thing about roque, but nobody believes it, either.

It takes a lot of sacrifice to advance you in life's league.

Honus Wagner tried to steal home the other day. The old boy must be taking himself seriously. Next we'll hear of Larry Lajoie stretching singles into doubles.

Baseball is a killing sport in Cleveland. A fan dropped dead there the other day and the coroner decided he died a natural death.

INSURE WRESTLING BOUT.

Omaha, Neb., June 21.—Lloyd's of London have written a policy insuring the wrestling bout between Joe Stecher and Ed ("Strangler") Lewis, scheduled for July 4, against interference by rain. The match is to be held at the Douglas county fair grounds in the open air. The policy calls for the payment of $35,000 to Gene Melady, the promoter, should inclement weather prevent the bout.

SWAIN'S HORSE MADE HIM HAPPY TUESDAY

The Fort Wayne Amateur Driving club ran off their program Tuesday with George Swain the proud possessor of the winner, Georgene Swain. He has a smile for everybody today for his mind is filled with visions of his horse crossing the wire of a big derby. There were three races on the card and a fairly large crowd was present to see the races. The first place in the 2:25 pace went to Pete Craig, with Sam Kerr up. Lady Ashwood, driven by Ross Elston, won the 2:25 trot in straight heats. The Swain colt likewise won in straight heats. The results are as follows:

2:20 PACE.

Pete Craig (Kerr)	1	1
Rossie King (McLaughlin)	2	3
Ebony King (Bogash)	3	2

STUDENTS MUST BE TRACK MEN.

Cleveland, O., June 21.—Every student at Case School of Applied Science is to be a track athlete, according to plans announced by Pat Pasini, physical director. Mr. Pasini is working out a schedule calculated to show what must be expected of each athlete in jumping, running and feats of strength. Indoor work is to be reduced to a minimum and the boys will be started on outdoor work when they report next fall. "It's part of our preparedness plan of training the bodies as well as the minds," said Mr. Pasini.

ILLINOIS HAS SCHOOL FOR COACHES.

Urbana, Ill., June 21.—Want a job as athletic coach? If so beat it to Urbana and enroll in the school for athletic coaches just opened on a six weeks' run at the University of Illinois. Last year 195 persons were tutored by the Illini coaching staff and the registration this season has exceeded that number.

The school for coaches is a regular part of the annual summer session of the university and its presence on the curriculum demonstrates that the old days when the professional coach was looked on with disfavor by faculties have practically vanished.

George Huff, director of athletics, and famous baseball coach, is the originator of the school and is in charge of it with Coaches Zuppke, Jones and Gill as assistants. Huff reports that there is a constant and increasing demand for competent men to direct athletics and to coach teams and the state university is often asked to recommend men capable of filling such positions.

GROH'S TRICK POISE BAFFLES BATTERS

Cincinnati, O., June 21.—Just as a good pitching "move" baffles a base runner, so does a good batting poise fool a slabman. Heine Groh, of the Cincinnati Reds, is one big leaguer who has a trick batting style all his own.

Other majors face either toward first or third base, according to whether they are left o rright-handed hitters, watching the pitcher with the optic nearest the hurler. Groh, however, stands squarely facing the pitcher, his back toward the grandstand. Heinie stands that way until the pitcher has completed his windup.

Then, as the arm swings, Heinie, who is a right-handed batter, wheels into the same position other batters assume at the start. Occasionally the Red third sacker varies his tactics by jumping around before the delivery.

MORE MACHINES ARE NEEDED FOR PARADE

Success of Thursday's Parade Dependent on More Autos.

Five hundred automobiles are needed to carry the 2,500 children who will participate in the city's health and beautification parade, and Mrs. Josephine L. Nesbitt, promotor of the pageant, said Wednesday, that there was an extreme scarcity of cars threatening the success of Thursday's parade. Children, desirous of entering the parade are now being turned down in view of the lack of automobiles in which to transport them. "The number of children in the parade will be determined absolutely by the number of automobiles secured," today declared Mrs. Nesbitt. Provision for not to exceed 2,500 children had been made late this afternoon.

The Real Estate exchange is co-operating with Charles Biederwolf, of the Commercial club, and an effort is being made today to obtain every available automobile in the city. Mr. Biederwolf has directed the solicitation of 2,000 persons for their cars, and the task has been a big one. The Emanuel, St. John's and St. Paul's parochial schools will take part in the parade, according to notification received by Mrs. Nesbitt.

The parade will start at 1:30 o'clock, forming on West Wayne street, near the public library. After a ride of an hour over the city, the children will be taken to the Majestic theater, that they may see the pictures showing points of civic interest over the country as portrayed in motion pictures. These pictures will be inclusive of Fort Wayne scenes and the entertainment promises to be interesting as well as instructive.

At each important turn in the parade police will be stationed, assuring adequate protection to children. The parade promises to mark a new era in civic betterment for the city of Fort Wayne and especially will it implant in the minds of the children their duty of future years, the promoters declare.

Tractor Tryout Big Success

Mayor William J. Hosey is immensely pleased with the test of the new tractor used on a fire truck at Engine House No. 1. The tractor was taken to the hill at New Haven Tuesday and it negotiated the climb in easy fashion. It carried members of the board of safety, board of works, and several members of the city council.

One test of the tractor was to raise the ladders to the roof tops of several buildings to see if the tractor base would bear the weight of five or six firemen at one time. This test was satisfactory. The three pieces of the tractor cost approximately $14,000. It will make a big hole in the expense of mintaining a hose wagon drawn by horses, it is claimed.

Pythians Offer Services.

Col. Frank Shellhouse, commanding the First regiment Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias of Indiana, and Gen. W. B. Gray, commander of the Uniform Rank in Indiana, have offered their services to Gov. S. M. Ralston in case volunteers are called for, Col. Shellhouse said today. He said a number of members of his regiment had talked to him in regard to service in Mexico and added that he would recruit a Pythian regiment if the president called for volunteers.

The colonel said he had not yet taken the matter up with Maj. Gen. William Howe Loomis, national commander of the Uniform Rank, at Grand Rapids, Mich.

May Have Indiana Brigade.

Gov. Ralston, General Bridges and other national guard officers today considered the organization of an infantry brigade in the state's organized militia, which is the quota prescribed by the war department. To accomplish this it will be necessary to recruit three new companies; to bring to acceptable efficiency four companies recently placed on probation and to keep all other companies of infantry up to the minimum requirements of the war departments.

It is believed the three additional companies needed to fill in the gaps in the second infantry and the proposed new regiment will be obtained. As soon as such companies are mustered in and thereby are accepted by the war department, the state will be entitled to a brigade commander and it probably would devolve on Governor Ralston, as commander-in-chief of the guard, to recommend such an officer.

Gen. Bridges said he was telling persons who seek to organize companies throughout the state that all will be welcome.

ON WAY TO SPRINGFIELD

First Illinois Cavalry Ready to Go Straight Through, If Needed.

Chicago, June 21—After spending the night on the train to which they marched at midnight in a heavy rain, the First cavalry Illinois national guard under command of Col. Milton J. Foreman, are on the way today to Springfield, where they will go into camp to await further orders from the war department. This regiment was the first of Illinois contingent of guardsmen called for service on the Mexican border to start for the mobilization camp, but it will be followed today and tomorrow by other troops until the entire Illinois guard with the exception of the fifth and sixth regiments are encamped at the state capital.

In the meantime it was announced, recruiting will go forward in an effort to place the other regiments somewhere near war strength.

While Col. Foreman's orders called for mobilization at Springfield only it is said the regiment is equipped to go straight through to the border if it is found necessary.

As a result of the sudden call to arms, an even dozen weddings occurred yesterday among the guardsmen. The weddings had all been set for a later date, but on account of the departure of the guardsmen today it was decided to have them solemnized at once.

Many employers announced today their intention of continuing guardsmen on the payroll at full salary; some stated they would pay present salaries less the amount received from the government while others said they would make ample provision for all employes who go to the front

Gen. Murgia, a Carranza commander, arrived at Piedras Negras, the Mexican town opposite here, today, with a detachment of 2,000 Yaquis, reinforcing the garrison there. A large part of the civilian population of Piedras Negras has already moved south.

MEXICANS MAKE AMMUNITION.

Laredo, Texas, June 21.—Approximately 17,000,000 rounds of ammunition has been taken in charge by Carranza authorities throughout Mexico, and the government factory is working twenty-four hours daily to augment this supply, according to an American refugee from Mexico City, arriving here today. The output of the government factory is approximately 30,000 rounds of cartridges daily, he said.

TROOPS FOR OJINAGA.

Presidio, Texas, June 21.—Six hundred Carranza soldiers were reported today due to arrive at Ojinaga opposite here, tomorrow with another detachment following. This report, coupled with statements brought to the American side that Col. Riojas, the Ojinaga commander, had been instructed to prepare for war with the United States created great excitement here by army officials quelled the alarm.

rear guard closely engaging them, the Russians have crossed the river Sereth, the Austro-Hungarian war office announced in its report of June 20.

In the district of Lokatchi, southeast of Vladimir-Volynski the capture of 1,300 Russians, one cannon and three machine guns is reported.

Russian forces which crossed the Styr river west of Kolki were driven back by a counter attack, the official statement of the war office today announces. Northwest of Lutsk the Russians strongly resisted the German advances.

NOTED GERMAN AIRMAN KILLED.

London, June 21.—Lieut. Immelmann, the famous German aviator, is reported to have been killed.

Lieut. Immelmann had destroyed more aeroplanes of the entente allies in aerial battles than any other German aviator except Captain Boelke, who was reported to have been killed last week in an aerial combat with Roger Ribiere, a French aviator.

According to the German army headquarters report, Immelmann, up to May of this year, had accounted for fifteen hostile aeroplanes, while Captain Boelke was officially credited with bringing down eighteen. Immelmann, in March last, was awarded the decoration of Pour le Merite for his achievements. Immelmann's method in vanquishing his foes had been described as simple, but effective. He usually mounted to a great height and when he observed a hostile aeroplane beneath him would swoop in one long straight dive. His plan was to pass in a rapid diagonal just behind his antagonist, firing continuously as soon as he came within range. If his machine gun failed to bring down his adversary he would make no effort to pursue the aeroplane, but would continue his dive until it brought him into the German lines.

is not a sufficient amount on hands to defray the expenses much longer. The government is furnishing only a part of the rations, but the company must provide its own money to buy eggs, milk and other articles of food. The soldiers are being fed in the dining room of the old Hotel Edwin, on West Main street.

An effort is being made to induce the employers of members of the militia to grant them leaves of absence and allow them full pay for the time they are away. Announcement was made Tuesday by S. E. Mulholland, vice president of the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company, that he had received word from President C. H. Geist, stating that all employes of the gas company who are members of militia, would receive their pay in full during the time they are in the service of the government.

Word was also received Wednesday by J. R. Mitchel, local manager of the Washburn-Crosby company, that his company would pay all employes who belong to the National Guard, during their absence.

It was planned by Captain Miller that the entire company would march to the range north of the city Wednesday morning, where camp would be pitched. Because of the rain Tuesday night, this plan had to be abandoned. The march to the range will probably be made Thursday morning, where the men will be given lessons in shooting and drilling. Each man will be expected to cook his own meal.

Pleased With the Cook

The men as a whole are very much pleased with the company cook, Sam Taylor, who, up to this time, has never had an opportunity of demonstrating his ability as a kitchen mechanic. The Hotel Edwin has become a popular place for the boys.

Two members of the company who accompanied a young man to his home Tuesday afternoon after he had enlisted for service, state that they are willing to obey all orders from the officers, but that they are determined that never again will they accompany another new recruit to his home to break the news of his enlistment. They state that they accompanied the young man to the door of his residence, where they were met by the mother, who let out a scream that could have been heard for blocks away. The outburst continued for some time.

The contemplated war with Mexico has hit the Fort Wayne newspapers hard. Two of the collectors on the Journal-Gazette are members of Company E and have been compelled to quit; a stereotyper on the News is a member, as is also Ernest F. Fruechte, of the editorial department of the Sentinel. Besides Mr. Fruechte, Karl Detzer, Sentinel staff photographer, has enlisted as color sergeant and secretary to the colonel in the national reserves of Indiana. He passed the examination at Muncie Tuesday, and was ordered to report at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Wednesday night.

In Service Again.

Those who have already seen service in the Spanish-American war or in the insurrection in the Philippines and who have enlisted in Company E, are the following: Sylvester Yaiana, troop H, Sixth United States cavalry, served three years; Edgar W. Taylor, troop E, Eighth United States cavalry; Walter McDonald, who served four years in the navy and made a trip around the world as a fireman on the steamship Louisiana; William Schwartz, who served four years in the navy; James Clark, 159th coast artillery; Quartermaster Sergeant Bartel, Company G, 157th Indiana; George W. Sanderson, battery D, Fourth United States field artillery.

The New Recruits.

Among the new recruits in Company E since the last report were: Norbert Ladig, New Haven; Leslie M. Wolf, 1626 East Wayne street; Vernon Botts, 214 First street; Fred H. Shaw, Columbia City.

CLOSING EVENTS OF SCHOOL.

Just as the beautiful commencement exercises held last Friday evening closed the scholastic work of the academic students of 1916, so also did the brilliant affair given by the graduates of St. Catherine's academy in the Lyceum, partly draw to a close the social activities of the graduates. The auditorium was prettily decorated by the hostesses with palms and ferns and daisies, the class flowers, were prettily banked upon the stage and in boxes. A most refreshing punch was served by four of the undergraduates, who were Velma Noll, Genevieve Sullivan, Catherine Carroll and Charlotte McConnell. Music by the Franklin orchestra added zest and pleasure to the guests. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Conway, Mr. and Mrs. A. Moran and Mr. and Mrs. L. Swartz.

Attorney Jesse Macbeth returned this morning from a trip to Toledo and Norwalk, O., on legal business.

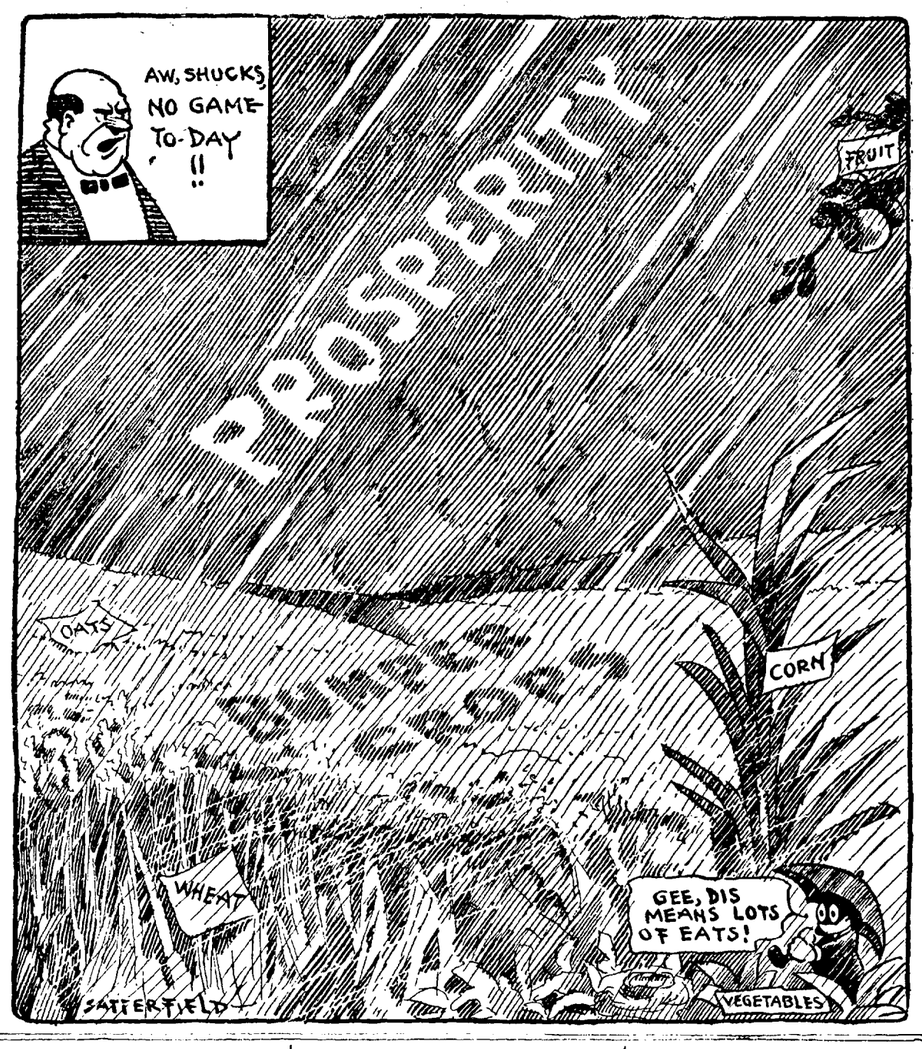
AND WE HOWL BECAUSE IT RAINS!



SEEKS WILSON VIEW ON SUFFRAGE PLANK

Washington, Jun 21—An interpretation of the uffrage plank of the democratic platform was sought from President Wilson today by Mrs. D. E. Hooker of Richmond, Va., acting as spokesman for the Congression union for women suffrage and the Virginia state federation of labor. She left the white house with the report that the president stated he plank means the question hould be decided by the states, not by federal action and still held to his refusal to urge the passage of the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment to the constitution.

The president said that he hoped the democrats in writing the plank would not be accused of "inincerity and bunko," said Mrs. Hooker. "He also said he hoped the plank meant what it said."

that Gen. Alvardo had declared war against the United States.

Another message from Mr. Rodgers said a train leaving Mexico City yesterday carried a special car with thirty American citizens, mostly women. The refugees should be in Vera Cruz by today unless the car has been detained.

Marching Orders Held Up

Marching orders for national guard organizations summoned to the colors under President Wilson's call are still held up at the war department pending completion of the mobilization of the troops at state camps. Just as soon as a sufficient number of the guardsmen have been mobilized, the war department will act on Gen. Funston's report of yesterday stating the number of units he desired and to what points he wished them forwarded.

Only preliminary reports on the progress of the mobilization in various states had reached the war department today. These were viewed as satisfactory. Secretary Baker said the suggestion that the senior class at West Point Military academy be graduated immediately for active service was under consideration but that no decision had been reached.

The cadets have completed three years of their work and could be commissioned as second lieutenants immediately if the emergency warrants such steps. The department had no additional advices from Gen. Funston regarding the movement of Carranza troops near the border or in the vicinity of Gen. Pershing's column in Mexico.

ORDERS CHARGES DROPPED

Washington, June 21.—Chief Bielaski, of the department of justice's bureau of investigation today telegraphed his El Paso agent to drop charges against Frederick Griese, a German banker of Mexico City, detained there yesterday for alleged attempts to violate American neutrality. Investigation convinced officials here there had been no violations.

DEPENDENT WOMAN WANTS REALTY SOLD

Says Husband Deserted With Part Title to the Property.

Support in the sum of $800 and the sale of real estate by a commissioner is asked in the suit filed in the superior court Wednesday by Mary E. Smith against Herman Smith, the action growing out of the acquisition of land by the plaintiff and her husband from the estate of her father, William Archibold, and in which Smith is alleged to have an interest. The defendant, it is charged, has deserted the plaintiff and she now has no means of support.

Mrs. Smith got $2,000 from her father's estate and she bought realty worth $4,200, it is alleged, on which a mortgage of $3,100 was placed in favor of J. E. Kaough. The title of the land is in the name of Herman Smith and his wife, but Smith deserted on March 3, 1916. Mrs. Smith says she must undergo an operation and in addition to money needed for the expense she has none with which to pay taxes, the papers say.

County Farm Supplies.

Contracts for furnishing county farm supplies have been let for the three months by the county commissioners. The successful bidders were: Grocers, George Herrmann, Coverdale & Archer, I. Freiburger & Co., Union Co-Operative store and White Fruit House. Dry Goods, Wolf & Dessauer and William Hahn & Co. Coal, United States Coal company.

Davis Found Guilty

A jury in circuit court Tuesday convicted Edward Davis of a criminal assault on Vairn Fleet, sentencing him to serve 2 to 21 years in the state reformatory. Jeff Davis, so-called "king of the hoboes," is reported to have made an appeal for clemency for his brother to President Wilson. Davis also went before the jury Tuesday by permission of Special Judge David E. Smith and addressed the jury in behalf of the defendant. But the fact that Jeff Davis, as he said, had spent his life reforming hoboes, did not prove to the jury that the defendant should be freed of the charge against the girl.

Davis came to Fort Wayne some time ago representing the Manhattan Garment company, but he was later arrested charged with operating a lottery. In a court of the justice the case was thrown out and Davis then filed suit for $10,000 damages against the Retail Merchant's association. The case was dismissed after Davis was arrested for criminal assault. Davis has a wife and child living in Cincinnati.

Divorce Is Asked.

Alleging that her husband beat her with a cane and abandoned her six months before their child was born, Theresa Wilkinson Wednesday filed suit in the circuit court against James F. Wilkinson asking a divorce, custody of the child, Edward Joseph, and alimony of $1,000. Wilkinson, according to the complaint, owns 40 acres of land in Glendale Acres worth $1,500. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson were married Nov. 10, 1904, and separated June 19, 1916. His first abandonment came in 1905 and lasted for seven years. The plaintiff also seeks a restraining order preventing Wilkinson from disposing of his property pending hearing of the case. The law firm of Breen & Morris represent the plaintiff.

Superior Court Rulings.

In superior court Wednesday Anna Sperando was granted a divorce from Leonard Sperando and the restoration of her maiden name.

Fay Luloy, who was suing William H. and C. W. Scherer with C. A. Bachelor, alleging the defendants sold her a worn out automobile. A jury in superior court gave the plaintiff judgment May 24 last in a verdict returned.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sought.

The sum of $500 is involved in a suit to foreclose mortgage filed Wednesday in circuit court by the state on relation of Will Johnson against Myrtle May Long and William H. Long. Barrett, Morris & Hoffman are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Notes of the Courts.

In the case of Albert E. Hutchinson vs. Monroe W. Fitch, et al, a change of venue has been granted from the county to the DeKalb circuit court.

Cases of Henry Branning, jr., receiver for the Cream of Rice company, vs. Harry Ziddis and F. W. Kelsey have been dismissed in superior court.

Everyone is requested to be present as the talk will be instructive as well as interesting.

PRESIDENT REVIEWS MOBILIZED MILITIA

Sees National Guard on Its Way to Camp Across Potomac.

Washington, June 21—President Wilson got his first view today of militia mobilization for Mexican border service. Standing on the curb of Penna avenue in front of the white house with Secretary Baker and Colonel Harts, his military aide, he reviewed the District of Columbia national guard, as it marched by on the way to its camp across the Potomac river at Fort Myer.

"They are mighty nice looking boys," the president remarked to Secrtarye Baker. Mr. Wilson wore a straw hat and stood without an umbrella in a drizzling rain. He manifested special interest in the signal corps and a battalion of negro militia. Secretary Baker recognized one of his messengers who is a captain. The president doffed his hat in saluting Gen. W. E. Harvey of the district guardsmen and also when color bearers passed by with flag flying.

YERGENS IS NAMED BUSINESS AGENT

At a meeting of Friendship lodge No. 70, of machinists, Monday evening, Ed Yergens, of the Bowser plant, was elected business agent to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Clayton H. Johnson, who has gone to Brush, Colorado, to accept a more lucrative position. William Frohmuth had been acting as temporary business agent until Mr. Johnson's successor could be named.

SEELBERG'S STOCK-SHIFTING SALE

126 E. BERRY ST. FT. WAYNE

A Real Reason for An Authentic Sale Sacrifice

Beginning Thursday Morning at 9 o'Clock Sharp

We have rented the two upper floors of our building to a prominent manufacturing concern of this city. Possession will be given July First. All our mammoth stock of Ready-to-Wear on these two floors must be moved. We haven't room to place it and must therefore sacrifice it and take our loss which is your gain.

We know the only way to do this is by cutting the prices down to cost and less, so that every garment is priced at below its real value and away from any attempt to equal in bargain giving. Nothing has been excepted; everything has been slashed to the last possibility to make these sensational offers.

OCCUPANTS JUMP TO SAFETY.

When a Pennsylvania Freight Engine Demolishes Auto.

Two men whose names could not be learned had a narrow escape from death at the Pierce crossing of the Pennsylvania road near Wheeler at 8:30 o'clock last night. The machine apparently stalled on the tracks as high class freight train No. 9242 was approaching and realizing their perilous position, the occupants jumped out of the auto just before it was rendered into scrap. The train was in charge of Conductor E. L. Carter and Engineer G. Keintz and was moving along at a good speed when it struck the automobile. The accident is said to have been no fault of the train crew.

ENGINE DREW ATTENTION.

A mammoth Santa Fe oil burning engine, No. 3157, just out of the Baldwin Locomotive works, which was cut out to be weighed and receive some slight repairs at the Pennsylvania round house, is one of the most modern locomotives of the day and attracted a great deal of attention from the round house men and others who happened in that vicinity this morning. This engine is an oil-burner superheater and is equipped with electric headlights and other modern improvements. The Santa Fe is receiving a number of these engines from the builders at present. They are delivered to that line at some point in Texas.

PLANS BIG JOURNEY

T. A. G. Stonebrook, assistant foreman at the Pennsylvania down town paint shop, will enter upon a two or three weeks' vacation tomorrow. He has arranged for an extensive western trip and tomorrow, with Mrs. Stonebrook and daughter, Miss Iva George, will leave for St. Paul, where they will stop a few days and then go on to the Pacific coast. En rote home they will stop at Cutbank, Mont., where Mrs. Stonebrook's sister, Mrs. Jack Britton, resides. Mr. Britton is general foreman of the Great Northern shops at Cutbank.

SOME FISH, THAT.

Cashier C. M. Jones, of the Pennsylvania, this morning received from Sitka, Alaska, a twenty-five pound king salmon. It was sent by C. G. Limecooly, formerly of this city and at one time employed by the Pennsylvania company. He is now purser on the steamship Northland, of the Border Line Transportation company, with headquarters at Seattle, Wash.

TONY KLOTZ PROMOTED.

Succeeds Shaub as Cashier at Wabash Freight Office.

L. Y. Shaub, cashier at the Wabash freight office, who is a member of the national guard, took an indefinite leave of absence today because the company will soon leave for Mexico. Anthony Klotz, abstract clerk at the office, has been promoted to take the place of Mr. Shaub at the cashier's desk and F. G. Cohen has been employed as abstract clerk.

OFFICIAL RELIEF ELECTION REPORT.

I. Fred Walters, member of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association for the third electoral divison, which includes the Western and the Chicago Terminal divisions, this morning received the official bulletin of the result of the election. Mr. Walters came second in the number of votes received. The highest was received by Howard C. Hartman, of the Cincinnati division, he getting 3,659 votes. Mr. Walters received 3,300 votes out of 5,001. The total vote of Mr. Hartman's division was 6,541.

OUT INSPECTING LINE.

Supt. W. F. Watterson, of the Fort Wayne division of the Nickel Plate, made an inspection trip over the division on a special train today, leaving the city for Bellevue at 7:30 o'clock. With Supt. Watterson were Trainmaster E. S. Kirby, Chief Dispatcher James T. Callahan and some others connected with the superintendent's office.

STARTS VACATION PERIOD

The vacation season for employes at the Pennsylvania round house commences next Monday, and W. J. Feary, foreman of the boiler department, will have the distinction of being the first to take advantage of it. Mr. and Mrs. Feary will leave for Michigan early in the week to spend two weeks with relatives and friends.

FINGER BADLY CUT.

While operating a saw at the General Electric works yesterday, O. Roe allowed the index finger of his right hand to get against the blade and a ragged wound across the back of the digit was the result. The accident will keep Mr. Roe from work for a few days.

FOLSOM TO SPEAK AT BOWSERS.

Rev. A. J. Folsom will give another of his talks on "What We Owe the Boy," before the Bowser employes tomorrow, Thursday, at 1 o'clock, and Mr. Loren Jones, with his wife, will lead the singing. Mr. Bowser says: "As usual, the public is invited and will find the entrance to the meeting on the west side of the shop."

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

A. F. Klein and F. X. Miller, Pennsylvania blacksmiths, are sick and off duty.

Robert Murphy, of the Pennsylvania tool room, is off duty on account of the wedding of his sister.

B. E. Beeman, of the Pennsylvania coal docks, is at Chicago, attending a meeting of the Veiled Prophets.

E. W. Zimmerman, of the erecting shop at the Pennsylvania, is off duty because of the sickness of his wife.

Fireman A. F. Bollinger and Engineers C. A. Perry and J. E. Gim, of the G. R. & I., are sick and off duty.

L. H. Luley and A. C. Stout, Pennsylvania shopmen, were unable to work yesterday on account of sickness.

H. H. Moore is on the Panhandle on business for the Pennsylvania. He is the company's chief tie and lumber inspector.

E. L. Yehl, brass moulder at the Pennsylvania shops, and Mrs. Yehl have arranged for a visit with friends in Akron, Ohio, next week.

Blacksmith Frank H. Gaylord, of the Pennsylvania shops, is working again after a month's idleness on account of a badly injured finger.

C. J. Dodane, heater in the night gang at the Pennsylvania shops, has resumed his duties after being off for several days on account of illness.

M. P. Reid, of the Pennsylvania round house, and Mrs. Reid, are at Indianapolis, where they went upon receiving news of the serious illness of a relative.

E. W. Study and C. D. Sperry, machinists' helpers in the erecting shop of the Pennsylvania, have gone to Chicago for a visit.

M. F. Nagle is a new employe at the Pennsylvania machine shop. He formerly worked for the Centlivre Brewing company.

Stanley Balzer, W. Palie, W. W. Knoll, laborers, and F. C. Hardendorf, machine operator at the Pennsylvania, have resigned their positions.

J. C. McMillen, road master, and Thomas Rippon, telephone lineman, from Hillsdale, are in the city on business for the Lake Shore company.

Alexander Zwierva has resigned his position as tank repairman at the Pennsylvania and has accepted a position at the Corrugated Paper company.

C. W. Roberts, a machinist at the Pennsylvania, sustained a painful injury to his foot yesterday when a dog from a wheel lathe fell on it.

J. P. Christman and C. Schmeider, boilermaker helpers at the Pennsylvania, have returned to their work, after being off duty several days on account of sickness.

Lawrence Schallenberger, a machinist at the Pennsylvania shops, will start on a two weeks' vacation Saturday, which he will spend at Montgomery, Illinois.

Alexander Boehr, a car wheel moulder at the Bass Foundry and Machine company, has returned to work after having been off duty for twelve weeks on account of an injured foot.

Assistant Road Foreman of Engines Collins, of the Vandalia, was in the city today on business connected with the air brake instruction department. He resides in Logansport.

The Social Aid to the Loyal Lodge, No. 85, L. A. to B. of R. T., will meet at the home of Mrs. Hays, 135 Brackenridge street, on Thursday afternoon. The Mesdames Potts, Kay, Banks and Walker will assist the hostess.

Mrs. William Darman, wife of the Pennsylvania boilermaker, and her baby daughter are doing well at St. Joseph hospital, and will soon leave for the family home. The baby is now four days old.

William C. Doehrman, Pennsylvania machinist, who had a portion of his finger taken off recently, has applied for a pass to Detroit, where he will spend some time in company with his wife.

Mrs. Schmidt, wife of Chief Clerk Charles Schmidt, of the office of Assistant General Foreman M. W. Kemp, of the Pennsylvania car shops, is quite sick and Mr. Schmidt is off duty on account of her condition.

L. J. Freiberger, store room keeper at the Pennsylvania pipe and tin shop, and R. Schwartz, fluewelder at the shops, have resigned. The latter will take employment at the General Electric works. He was employed at the Pennsylvania shops four years.

While chipping a piece of steel with an air operated chisel yesterday, Boilermaker R. Forst, of the Pennsylvania, had one of his cheeks painfully cut by a piece of the metal flying out and lodging in the flesh. He was attended by Dr. Van Sweringen.

Chief Clerk Harry Holliday, of Trainmaster R. E. Casey's office, at the G. R. & I., who is out on a vacation, will return tomorrow and the following day Gene Hoffman, of the same office, will enter upon his vacation. He is entitled to two weeks, but will take only half of it at present, reserving the other part for the fall.

Frank E. More, assistant road foreman of engines of the Pennsylvania, who was operated upon for abdominal troubles in the Reed hospital at Cincinnati two or three weeks ago, will be coming home soon. As stated by the Sentinel a few dags ago, Mr. More has left the hospital and is now in the recuperating home, rapidly improving and able to walk about.

Fo ran hour Sunday afternoon the relatives and friends of Brakeman O. H. Baas, of Bellevue, mourned because of the report that he had been killed at Leipsic Junction, on the Nickel Plate. The news was carried to Bellevue over the Western Union lines, but when the Nickel Plate telegraph department got on "the trail," it was soon discovered that Mr. Haas was alive and in his usual health. Two hours later he walked into his home at Bellevue.

A. M. Tower, jr., son of Machinist A. M. Tower, of the Pennsylvania shops, has changed his plans for the summer vacation term. Arrangements had been made for him to work in the Pennsylvania power plant, but arrangements were made later for him to spend the summer in the mines in Arizona, studying transmission systems. He will leave in a few days for Chloride, Arizona, to take up his studies. The young man is a student of the Illinois university.

'Squire A. C. Nierman, who has been critically ill for several weeks, was able to be downtown Wednesday.

Weds at Palace on Friday Night

MISS ELSIE WALKER

On Friday evening Miss Elsie Walker, the sprightliest of the merry merrys in the Lasalle Musical comedy company's roster at the New Palace, will be married on the stage of the theater to William Schumm, a former Fort Wayne boy and stage carpenter with the Junior Follies company. The ceremony will be performed immediately upon the conclusion of the performance of Miss Nobody from Starland.

CELEBRATES ITS SILVER JUBILEE

Wayne Knitting Mills Fittingly Observes Its Anniversary—Born in 1891.

The annual inventory dinner given by President T. F. Thieme, of the Wayne Knitting Mills to the board of directors, officers and some guests last night marked the rounding out of twenty-five years of the existence of the company. The dinner followed the annual meeting of the stockholders at which the usual 10 per cent dividend was declared and the old board of directors was elected as follows: Theodore F. Thieme, W. F. Mossman, John A. Thieme, Fred J. Thieme, Edward Helmcke, S. M. Foster, H. J. Miller, William H. Dreier, Louis Fox and William A. Spies. The officers elected were: Theodore F. Thieme, president; W. E. Mossman, vice-president; John A. Thieme, assistant manager; Fred J. Thieme, secretary; Edward Helmcke, treasurer; S. M. Foster, chairman of the board of directors.

The banquet was held in the Wayne-knit club, which was handsomely and appropriately decorated for the occasion and there were sixty guests, including the officers of the Wayne Knitting Mills, of the Thieme Brothers company and the merchants who handle the products of the mills. Addresses were made by T. F. Thieme, S. M. Foster, John A. Thieme, F. J. Thieme, M. Dukes and General Manager F. S. Hunting, of the General Electric company. Interspersing the speaking were some excellent musical numbers by Mrs. Edith Nickell-Bailhe, Gaston Bailhe, Ferd Urbahns and Saxonia Singing society, composed of employes at the mills, with Mrs. D. F. Urbahns presiding at the piano. An amusing feature was a three-act play depicting the various events of interest in the history of the Wayne Knitting Mills from its inception in 1891 to the present time. The early struggles of the company, with the first arrival of knitters from Germany, were graphically described, as were also the additions to the plant and business from time to time, until it has reached a prominent position in the ranks of the industrial concerns of the United States.

After a fine dinner of seven courses had been served, with Frank Gross, manager of the clubhouse, catering, the assembled company arose and sang the jubilee song to the tune of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching," William H. Shambaugh acting as toastmaster.

The annual meeting of the Thieme Brothers company was also held yesterday, at which the usual dividend was declared, and the following directors and officers were chosen: John A. Thieme, president; John G. Thieme, vice-president and manager; Fred J. Thieme, secretary; T. F. Thieme, treasurer; Samuel Foster, Edward Helmcke and Thomas O'Callahan.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire in this manner to thank our many friends, relatives, and Revs. C. H. Snashall and J. B. Bair, for the sympathy shown us and for the beautiful floral offerings, during the sickness and death of our beloved mother and grandmother.

TRACTION COMPANY TO ERECT BRIDGE

Same Will Be Put in Position Without Interrupting Service.

A one hundred and eighty-one foot bridge over Wild Cat near Lafayette will be built and put in place by the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company without delaying a car. The same thing was accomplished some months ago by the Pennsylvania Railroad company in the placing of the new bridge at Swinney park. The Pennsylvania company's bridge, however, was not as long nor as heavy. Work on the new bridge which will cost approximately $28,000 will begin in a few days. After its completion it will be put in place between cars and everything will be so arranged that the work will require but a few minutes.

Mid-Summer Meeting

A special car from Indianapolis carrying officials of the various traction lines in Indiana will pass through Fort Wayne next Monday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock enroute to Toledo, Ohio, where they will board the steamer South America on which will be held the annual mid-summer meeting of the Central Electric Railway association. Members of the association will be taken for a three days' cruise across Lake Erie, through Lake Huron and Lake Michigan ending at Benton Harbor. Among the officials of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company who will make the trip are: Sam W. Greenland, general manager; J. Allan Greenland, general passenger and freight agent, and Arthur Redderson, superintendent of motive power.

Traction Notes

A special car was run to Decatur Tuesday evening on account of the district meeting of the Epworth league. Sixty-five went from this city.

The Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company sold over forty tickets to Muncie, Tuesday, on account of the annual convention of the State Sunday-school association.

A large number of local golfers went to Wabash Wednesday morning to take part in the golf tournament.

The traction company will provide extra cars for the children who will participate in the civic parade, Thursday afternoon.

Superintendent Meeting

Superintendent D. O. McComb, of the Allen county schools, went to Indianapolis, Wednesday morning, to attend the state convention of county superintendents' association.

Alexander Johnson, who has many friends in Fort Wayne and was formerly superintendent of the Indiana school for feeble-minded youth, is spending a few days in Fort Wayne visiting with his children.

Local Woman Heads Degree of Honor

MRS. B. E. MELSHEIMER.

At the triennial meeting of the Indiana body of the Degree of Honor at Indianapolis Monday and Tuesday, the following officers were elected: State chief of honor, Mrs. B. E. Melsheimer, of Fort Wayne; state recorder, Mrs. Mary Kenneth, of Owensville; state lady of honor, Mrs. Gertrude Stone, of Elwood; representative of the superior lodge meeting, Mrs. Emma C. Comparet, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Mollie Sunderland, of Fort Wayne. Mrs. Frances Buell Olson, of St. Paul, national president of the Degree of Honor, who was here last week, attended the meeting at Indianapolis. Mrs. N. Conover, of Fairfield avenue, also attended it. The Fort Wayne delegation arrived home last night.

HAD RESIDED HERE HER ENTIRE LIFE

Miss Ellen McCarthy Dies at St. Joseph Hospital Tuesday Evening.

Following a serious illness of five weeks which followed a general nervous breakdown, Miss Ellen McCarthy, a life long resident of Fort Wayne, passed away at 10 o'clock Tuesday evening at St. Joseph's hospital.

The deceased was born and reared in Fort Wayne and had resided at 403 Dawson street her entire life. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McCarthy, early settlers of Fort Wayne. Miss McCarthy was well and favorably known and was admired by the people of her community for her kindness which was the predominant trait of her fine character.

The deceased was a charter member of St. Patrick's Catholic church and devotedly assisted in the furthering of religious interests. She was also a member of the Young Ladies' sodality, of the Rosary society, Sacred Heart league and St. Vincent de Paul society of the same congregation.

Surviving besides a host of friends and acquaintances she leaves three brothers, John, a retired capitalist, of Chicago; D. F. McCarthy, of Chicago, and Bart McCarthy, of Fort Wayne, and two sisters, the Misses Mary and Anna McCarthy, both of Fort Wayne.

NICKOLS

Charles Ireness Nickols, aged nineteen years and three months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ireness Nickols, four miles east of New Haven, died at St. Joseph's hospital, Wednesday morning at 4:30 o'clock. He had been a patient at the hospital for the past eighteen days and had undergone an operation for appendicitis.

The young man was born in Jefferson township and for three years was employed as a section hand on the Wabash railroad, but had been working on his father's farm since spring. He is survived by the parents, three brothers and eight sisters.

House-cleaning Is a Failure

Unless It Removes Germs As Well as Dirt

Scrubbing and Cleaning Floors, Etc.

Zonite will kill all germs with which it comes in contact. If every woman realized how important the use of Zonite is to the family's health, and how much sickness may be prevented in this way, she certainly would take the simple precaution of adding 1 or 2 teaspoonfuls of Zonite to each quart of cleaning water.

Disinfecting Homes

Spray or sprinkle with whisk broom a solution of Zonite over carpets, rugs, draperies, etc., especially in corners and around radiators, registers, and in closets, cupboards, etc. For this purpose use 1 part Zonite to 60 parts water, or 2 teaspoonfuls to a pint of water.

Your Refrigerator

If your refrigerator has been standing for any length of time without ice in it, don't fail to put Zonite into the water with which you wash it. This will kill all germ life and purify it, leaving it sweet and sanitary and without odor.

Zonite

The Non-Poisonous Antiseptic, Germicide, Disinfectant, and Deodorant.
Zonite has 100 vital uses in every home.
ZONITE KILLS ALL ODORS and leaves no odor of its own.
Zonite is the most economical product of its kind. Full pint, 25c; quart, 40c; gallon, $1; at all drug stores.

LENZ ARGUES FOR STRAIGHT TRAFFIC

Police Head Believes It Best on Calhoun Street in Rush Hours.

Convinced that the "straight traffic" plan is the best methods for dealing with the traffic problem on Calhoun street during the busy hours of the day and evening, Chief Charles Lenz, of the Fort Wayne police department, has issued a statement in support of his plan. The statement follows:

To the Public:

As our city is growing rapidly and unfortunately we have very narrow streets in the downtown district, and as a great many of our citizens have automobiles, the streets and cross walks in the downtown district frequently become very much congested, and for that reason it is necessary from time to time to make new traffic rules and laws in order to keep pace with the growth of the city and for the protection of all, both pedestrians and vehicles, while traveling on and through this congested district.

New traffic laws, however, should not be only made for the benefit of automobile drivers, but also for the benefit of all pedestrians, who are forced to cross over the streets in the downtown district when shopping or otherwise. There never has been a time in our city when the streets have been more congested than at the present time, and this condition is brought about by the great number of automobiles that are driven on our streets continuously day and night, and it has become a burdensome question as to its regulation. In order to regulate this traffic and if possible avoid accidents, laws must be made, but, as stated above, not only for automobile drivers, but also for pedestrians for the safety of both, and for that reason it is my opinion that all citizens should be interested in this matter and should be treated equally alike, and the pedestrians should have the same rights in crossing over the streets on the cross walks as well as the automobiles and other vehicles.

This city, however, has been very fortunate and has not had very many serious accidents, but, as stated above, conditions are at hand when more serious accidents can be expected, and will happen unless some other arrangements are made to meet the growing conditions as to both the increased number of automobiles, as well as the growth of the city, which will throw more pedestrians upon the street from day to day.

In observing conditions in the downtown district, at least at the corner of Wayne, Berry and Main streets, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 10 p. m., it is my opinion that nothing but straight traffic should be allowed at either of these corners, and through the busiest time of the day and night. By regulating the traffic in that way and by pedestrians and vehicle drivers traveling with the semaphore at these corners will no doubt avoid a great many accidents.

The law should be made clear so it may be plainly understood by both drivers of automobiles as well as pedestrians who are about to cross the street at either of these intersections. They are not permitted to cross over unless the smaphor is placed in the position for them to do so. It may be possible for the younger class of people to be on the lookout in crossing the streets with automobiles going in either direction and possibly cross in safety, but on the other hand it is very dangerous for old people and children, who will become easily confused in crossing the streets with automobiles upon them, and accidents in this case cannot be avoided. It is further my opinion that when laws are being made they should also be made for old and feeble people as well as for children, and not only for those who may be faster on their feet and able to make their getaway before they are struck down by some automobile or other vehicl.

I have had several interviews with automobile drivers who prefer turning to the right off and on Calhoun street at these corners mentioned above. This may be all right and may prove successful, but it is my opinion that this will prove dangerous to pedestrians crossing over from one side of the street to the other, and not as safe as if they were crossing the street from one side to the other with the automobile going in the same direction. For instance, some automobile driver driving west on Berry street onto Calhoun, who intends to turn to the right off Berry onto Calhoun, to go north, and at the same time there are quite a number of pedestrians at the northeast corner of Berry and Calhoun streets, wanting to cross over to the northwest corner of Calhoun street and Berry street, from the east side of Calhoun street to the west side, and this automobile turns to the right at this same corner, would make it almost impossible for the pedestrians to jump back upon the sidewalk before being struck or injured, as a great many people become confused, especially when they are watching the traffic north and south and some other vehicles have the right to go from East Berry street to Calhoun street and turn north on Calhoun street, and this no doubt would cause a great confusion and accidents would be the result.

It is my opinion that all laws should be made for the benefit of the general public, for pedestrians and automobile owners and for the safety of both. I am only interested in this matter as a city official and a servant of all the people, and am asking at this time for the co-operation of all the citizens, as all good citizens of this city are interested in the good and welfare of the city, and for that reason I am making this statement, and that a law may be made so that every one, children as well as grown persons, drivers of automobiles and other vehicles, may pass through the downtown district without being injured or possibly killed, and that the law should be made for the benefit of all and not for the few.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES LENZ, Chief of Police.

ROANOKE NEWS.

Roanoke, Ind., June 21.—William Young, of Huntington, spent Sunday in Roanoke with his mother, Mrs. Young, of Vine street.

The I. O. O. F. lodge is considering the building of a new driveway leading from their cemetery to Seminary street. As north Main street will perhaps be torn up for several months, this looks like a good move as it is very hard to gain an entrance to the cemetery at this time. Also it will be convenient to enter from one side and exit the other. The cemetery is a very well kept place and the new drive will add greatly to its convenience.

One's Life is Too Short to Be Thrown Away in Grieving; Try Smiling

Is Christ You Companion? Introduce Him to Others

Constantly With You, His Spirit Will Lighten the Burdens and Smooth the Pathway as You Go Along.

A man who traveled for a large Chicago house, decided that if he was to talk satisfactorily to customers, he must know the firm's catalogue thoroughly. The catalogue contained more than one thousand pages, but he set to work to learn the descriptions of all goods noted. It was his custom, when leaving for a trip, to cut out a few pages; these he would study carefully either during the long hours of travel, or during the evenings in his hotel room. The work never was done, for periodical revision of the catalogue always gave him fresh work.

When that young man became a Christian, he decided that, since he was to travel through life in the interest of the Lord Jesus Christ, he must know the bible as thoroughly as he knew the catalogue of his firm. But somehow, it was not so easy to learn scripture, as it had been to learn the catalogue. He began with John 3:16, and it was a month before he could repeat the simple words in public, without stumbling. But he persisted in his efforts until he was able to repeat entire chapters, or to quote passage after passage, selecting and arranging these according to the needs of the man to whom he was talking. When he made a public address, his use of scripture was a marvel to his hearers.

Opportunities to refer to the scriptures were numerous. On the train, in the hotel and on the streets, as well as in the church, he approached men, and many of those to whom he spoke, were led to Christ.

Once he was seated in the lobby of a hotel when a bell boy handed a telegram to a man at his side. The recipient read it, then rose from his seat and began pacing rapidly back and forth, swearing as he went.

The Christian traveler thought he must speak. Approaching the profane man, he said: "You seem to be in trouble. I wonder if I can help you."

"Trouble? Talk about trouble!" came the reply. "You don't know what trouble is. I go home once in three months. I expected to make my regular visit in two weeks, but just now orders came from the house to go out for three months more."

"That is trouble," was the sympathetic response.

Having heard this word of sympathy, which he could feel was spoken by one who appreciated the situation, the man was ready to hear the message of the traveler who knew the Word.

"Evidently you are traveling alone," he began.

"Sure I am! With whom should I be traveling?" came the surprised answer.

"I traveled alone for a long time," the Christian continued, "and I had my troubles, too. I did not know what to do, until I was introduced to the Lord Jesus Christ. He has been my companion ever since."

The man looked as if the Christian did not know what he was talking about, but he proved that he did know by saying: "Jesus promised to be with me. He said, 'Lo, I am with you alway.' Here are his words," and he took his bible from his pocket and turned to the chapter and verse.

Many other passages of scripture were quoted, while the men continued in conference.

And when the moment came for the disappointed men to start on his three months' trip, he took his new friend by the hand and said: "Thank you for introducing me to Him who will be my companion, too."

Is Jesus our companion? Are we introducing Him to our friends and acquaintances?

"Smile for Your Health's Sake" is the Advice of Famous California Smile Girl

It Will Do You More Physical and Mental Good Than All the Tonics You Can Find in a Day's Search of the Medical Advertisements is Miss Thompson's Claim.

(By Lillian B. Thompson.)

My friends tell me that my smile is contagious; that it can brighten a whole room full of gloomy people. It should have some effect, for, since my girlhood days, I have practiced smiling.

I have found that a real, heartfelt, cheerful smile is a panacea for human ills. Smiles refresh; frowns depress. One's mental attitude towards the problems of life affects in a large measure the condition of his liver. Smiling for health's sake, puckering the face into a cheery expression when things look wrong, chasing the gloom from your contenance when you feel like crying will do more for your physical and mental good than all the tonics you can find in a day's search through the medical advertisements.

A year or so ago a girl friend of mine thought she had met with a disappointment. She moped around like a picture of grief. She sighed and sometimes wept. It worried me and even irritated me, for she is just as sweet a girl as grows. She pined over her "worry" until wrinkles started in her forehead and about her pretty eyes and lips. She looked prematurely old in three months.

When I ran into her apartments in the afternoons for a chat, she used to say my smile was the only thing she knew in a false world. She took a grim sort of pleasure in contrasting her gloom with my cheerfulness. It was her foolish idea—one she had slowly manufactured—that all the world was bad and awry just because one poor specimen of mankind had broken a promise.

She worried me a little and provoked me more. I decided that she could smile as well as I. The smile treatments began. I made her go out to comedies with me. We read funny stories together. I laughed at her and with her. If I saw anything with real humor in it, I took it to her. Little by little I made her see that cheerfulness was better for her than glooming. Gradually she realized the foolishness of worrying about something that was past and gone. After awhile she learned to look on the bright side of life and is now one of the cheeriest, healthiest and most interesting of my friends. Smiles won.

Smiles will bring a reward in more ways than one to anybody willing to practice them. Your face may be set like an iron mask or despair, but consistent lessons in smiling will break the cast of gloom, change your facial expression, make you over again. If you are a chronic grouch, smiling will come hard at first, but if you keep at it you will win. There's not the slightest doubt about it.

My health is always good. I really believe my smiles help my physical being. A sunny disposition is a great aid to good digestion. Ask your doctor. I know, because I have proved it by my own experience.

The next time you feel grumpy, a bit out of sorts, try a smile—several of them. Maybe they will be sad, crackly sort of smiles, but keep 'em going. You will find the novelty working a change in you.

The HEALTH SMILE is only one of a wide variety that I put into good use in my life. But it is an important one. One's life is too short and too precious to be thrown away in grieving. Try smiling for your health's sake, just for a starter.

Next week I'll tell you about the BEAUTY SMILE. This kind will, I presume, interest women readers only, since men are not supposed to be concerned in beauty for their own part. But the health smile, the one I have described in this story, applies to everybody—Mr. and Mrs. Gloom and all the little Glooms.

LILLIAN BENFELDT THOMPSON. "My health is always good," she says. "I really believe my smiles help my physical being."

PERSONAL LIBERTY

Two well dressed men were walking down the street of one of our principal southern cities at midnight. In front of them was a man shabbily dressed with a look of hunger and desperation on his face. As the three passed a brilliantly lighted store window one of the gentlemen said to the other: "Did you catch a glimpse of that man's face?" "No, what about it?" "It was a terrible face. I believe that man will kill himself before morning." "Well, you can't prevent it. What of it?" "I don't know, but I think I can prevent it. Suppose we follow him?" They did follow him for several blocks. Finally he turned and made his way rapidly toward the river. Down by one of the obscure piers he paused, close by one of the piles that pierced the flooring, and with the gesture of despair stepped toward the edge of the pier and looked down into the water. He then straightened himself and in another moment would have flung himself into the river but one of the gentlemen who were standing in the shadow of the warehouse called out in a quiet, but firm voice: "My brother, if you are in trouble will you let me help you?" At the words "my brother" the man trembled, stepped back, covered his face with his hands and staggering against the pier burst into sobs so awful that the man who had taken it on himself to rescue him could not say a word for several moments. Finally he learned in broken ejaculations the man's story. It was an old, old story—wife and children in a home of wretched poverty, rent due, no work, crying for bread, wife sick, no friends. That was all. Suicide seemed the only way out. "I was going to drown myself" he said. "I do not know but what it would be the best thing to do after all." But the man who had called him "brother" found work and a home for the despairing soul. And by magic of word, which heals all false distinction, he made the man to live again.

ALCOHOL AS A CAUSE

The National Conference of Charities and Correction which met May 10-15 in Indianapolis gave much time to the discussion af alcohol in its relation to the problems of poverty and crime. Generous space was given to an anti-alcohol exhibit prepared by the National W. C. T. U. This consisted of posters, maps and charts presenting the social and economic phases of the subject, and incidentally the close relationship between the work of Charities and Correction and that of temperance. Panels showing the relation between alcohol and insanity, loaned to the W. C. T. U. by the New York State Charities' Aid association, were a feature of this exhibit. Temperance workers regard it as a most gratifying advance that charitable and correctional societies and sociological congresses (as that held in New Orleans in April) should be emphasizing inebriety as one of the chief causes of poverty and crime rather than as one of the effects.

GOD'S JEWELS

In a jeweler's window there is a little colorless stone, no bigger than your finger nail, and the price is one thousand dollars. That little stone that takes so much money to buy, is a jewel. Jewels are the most costly things in the world for sale. Sometimes when parents wish to speak of their children they call them their jewels, because they are so precious.

There is a diamond in the crown of the Czar of Russia, called the Orloff diamond, that is worth many millions, and it has a very interesting history. Long ago it was the eye of an idol in India. There was a Frenchman who saw it there, and made up his mind that he was going to get it. So he made a piece of glass that looked just like it, and one night he got into the temple, and took out the diamond and put the glass in its place and ran away. After a little while he began to be afraid to carry such a valuable treasure in his pocket, so he sold it to a sea captain for ten thousand dollars. The captain took it to Europe, and sold it to a merchant for one hundred thousand. After being bought a number of times more, it was purchased by Count Orloff, for Empress Catherine of Russia, for more than half a million dollars. The czar values that diamond because it cost so much.

God calls us His jewels, because we cost Him so much. He paid far more for us than the Russian empress paid for the Orloff diamond. He gave His Son for us. It is no wonder that He calls us His jewels.

Some jewels are shams. They make diamonds out of paste so skillfully that they look just like the real thing. They seem like diamonds, but they are worthless, and if you take one of them to a jeweler he will tell you at once that it is paste.

There are some people like that When we first see them they seem genuine and good, but after we have come to know them better we find out that they are shams; insincere and untruthful and wicked. We cannot always tell a sham when we see one, but God can. No one can deceive Him.

Then there are some jewels that have flaws in them. Once I saw two diamonds. They were the same size and looked just alike to me, but I was told that one was far more valuable than the other. I said, "How is that?" The man who was showing them to me handed me a magnifying glass and I looked through it and saw that there was a tiny flaw in one of them, so small that I could not have seen it without the glass. That little flaw made a great difference in the value of the diamond

When jewels come out of the ground they are often coarse and rough, and before they can be sold they must be polished. They must be ground, and cut and rubbed. This is hard for the jewels, but it has to be done if they are to be perfect.

God's jewels need to be polished, too. That is why very often God sends us trouble, and suffering and pain. It is to make us perfect. The writer of the Hebrews spoke of Jesus being made perfect through sufferings. That is the way God deals with us. He sends us suffering to make us perfect, as the diamond is made beautiful and perfect through polishing.—Stuart Nye Hutchison.

WHAT THANKS DO YOU GIVE HER?

She spent a long hot hour getting it. And you thought it was a fine meal. But did you take a second to tell her so?

Maybe she was so pleased watching you enjoy her cooking that she didn't eat much herself. (Notice the women who do the cooking in hot weather, and you'll see that they haven't much appetite.) But she was quick to see when you needed a second helping.

Maybe, when you had finished, you lighted your cigar, and picked up the evening paper, and went out to the front porch. And you felt perfectly complacent in the assurance that you had completed a good day's work.

But her work was not done. She had to go out into the stuffy kitchen and spend another hour over the steaming dish pan.

And she didn't get even a tip for her trouble.

Not that she wanted it. What she wanted was something like this:

"Gee, Flo, that was a dandy dinner. Bet nobody in this street had a better!"

What will your little word of appreciation mean to her?

The difference between tears and smiles over that measly dishpan; the difference between a song mixed with the rattling of the dishes, and a sob hidden by the scouring of the kettles.

Such a little thing for you to say, so much for her to hear.

Women are like that. Do you ever stop to think, man, that unless you take a little pains to put some joy into the life of the woman who is your wife, she isn't goin to have any too much of it?

PERSONAL LIBERTY.

(Dr. Wiley in Good Housekeeping.)

What is to become of the fundamental doctrine of personal liberty; that a man may eat and drink what he pleases? What is to become of the theory that the development of standard and sterling qualities in man can only be accomplished by stress and strain and temptation? These are serious questions that go to the root of human progress.

In regard to the first proposition, it seems plain to me that the principle of personal liberty can not be so extended as to cover actions which injure society. The principle of free speech is well established, but free speech which incites riot and bloodshed is not permitted even in this free country.

The right of the individual to eat and drink what he pleases and wear the clothes that he likes is restricted by the fundamental principle that a man's actions shall not threaten evil to society at large. If one insists on eating poisoned food and giving it to his family, he threatens the existence of the state. If one should choose to walk the streets naked, he would offend the rights of other people, and thus threaten society. Doctor Mary Walker found that woman's clothes hampered her activities as a war nurse. She had, however, to get an act of congress to permit her to wear a man's garb undisturbed. This may seem a silly thing.

In so far as I can see, a woman does not threaten society in any way by wearing a man's garb. She only threatens convention, and yet the law regulates wearing apparel in the interests of decency, propriety and good morals. The drinking of intoxicating beverages is a threat not only to the man who drinks, but to society at large, and thus, without interfering with the fundamental rights of the individual or restricting a proper personal liberty, the state may say, "Thou shalt not drink."

YOU CAN'T DRINK AND MAKE GOOD

Modern Business Sets Pace Too Fast for Drinking Man's Mind to Keep Up—He is Not in the Running.

Science Proves by Delicate Instruments of Precision that He Thinks, Sees, Hears and Acts More Slowly Than the Man Who Doesn't Drink.

NOTHING will destroy the usefulness of a strong brain as quickly as alcohol—it is just as disastrous to man's delicate mental machinery as a handful of sand to the mechanism of a watch. A dollar watch will stand a great deal more sand than a hundred dollar one. That will explain why some men can drink quantities of liquor and brag that it doesn't injure them—and it will explain why a few drinks are so injurious to another.

Bright business ideas, ambition, energy and execution fade under the influence of alcohol like a dream, to be replaced by air castles, "large talk," laziness, sluggishness and neglect.

These conditions are not only found in the drunkard who drinks all the liquor he can get, but are even more strongly marked in the steady three-or-four-drinks-a-day drunkard. He, of this latter class, lays great stress to the declaration that he is not a drunkard—yet his system and brain are fully as saturated with alcoholic poison as the other man's. One takes his poison quickly—the other slowly.

Slow poisoning—quick poisoning—and physicians have always reckoned slow poisoning the surest.

Temperance Notes.

Some people seem to think that temperance is wrong because if all the saloons were closed the women would have nothing to pray about.

The man in the gutter has a right to rise on his elbow and, pointing to the nearest saloon, say: "My government licensed that thing to make me what I am!"

If it is worth while for you to try to raise your sons and daughters to be good citizens, it is worth while for the government to remove from their path a temptation placed there by men who profit by their downfall.

* * *

Why do we oppose beer? Because, under the influence of alcohol, the lower primitive impulses are let loose to run riot in the body and mind, so that the man who is always alcoholized by the frequent so-called "moderate" use of beer is set several rungs down the ladder of evolution.

Boiled down, this is the question: "Is the trade in alcoholic beverages right or wrong?" If it is fundamentally right, it is within the province of government to license it and restrict it. If it is fundamentally wrong, if its effect upon the community is bad, then makeshifts, compromises and regulations are not in order. It is the positive duty of government to oppose everything which is injurious to citizens.

THE HEART OF BRUCE.

Bruce, who fought so gallantly for Scotland, came to his dying bed with one ambition of his life unrealized. He called his faithful follower, Black Douglas, to him, and made him swear that after his master Bruce was dead, he would take out his heart and, embalming it, bear it to the Holy Sepulchre and deposit it there. Douglas took the heart of Bruce, enclosed it in a golden casket, and with one hundred knights for an escort, started for the journey. Passing through Spain, they turned aside to help the Spaniards against the Moors. In the battle, the Christians were driven before the fierce Mohammedans. Douglas, seeing that the day was almost lost, called his followers, and taking the heart of his master from his bosom, threw it far into the midst of his enemies, shouting "Forward, heart of Bruce, and Douglas will follow as was his wont." Although Black Douglas fell, they won the fight upon that rally.

O heart of Jesus, thou hast gone before us into every place of misery where humanity festers, and sins, and suffers, and gasps and dies. To this end wast thou born, and for this cause earnest thou into this world. Though we are weak, thou art strong, and will give strength to thy believing children.

WITNESSES OF GOD.

God has never left the world without a witness of Himself. He has graven His name upon His works. Sun, moon and stars testify to the fact of a Creator. "Rain from heaven and fruitful seasons" testify to the fact of a Provider. "The invisible things are clearly seen from the creation of the world, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead." Footprints indicate a traveler, a house an architect, a picture an artist, a supper a cook. At a certain dinner at the Holland House, a foreigner declared that he did not believe in a Creator. Presently Sidney Smith made some remark about the good dinner they were enjoying, which was enthusiastically seconded by the foreigner. "By the way," said Sidney Smith, "may I ask, sir, whether you believe in a cook?"

Fly Catechism for the Summer Season --Teach It to Your Children

Here is a fly catechism for this summer. Teach it to your children:

1. Where is the fly born? In manure and filth.

2. Where does the fly live? In all kinds of filth, and he carries filth on his feet and wings.

3. Where does the fly go when he leaves the manure pile, the garbage pail or spittoons? He goes into the kitchen, the dining room and the store.

4. What does the fly do there? He walks on the bread, fruit and vegetables. He wipes his feet on the butter and he bathes in the milk.

5. Does the fly visit persons sick with consumption, typhoid fever and cholera infantum? He does and he may call on you next carrying the infection of these diseases.

6. What diseases does the fly carry? Typhoid fever, consumption, diarrheal disease, diphtheria, scarlet fever, and, in fact, any communicable disease.

7. How can harm from flies be prevented? By destroying all the filth about the house, keeping the garbage can covered, spraying manure piles with borax solution and screening all doors and windows.

Some preparations of face powder are the cause of inflammation of the eyes.

This form of inflammation occurs—from obvious reasons—almost exclusively in women. They complain that the vision is blurred, that they cannot read or sew for any length of time or that the lids burn and itch and that rubbing the lids only aggravates the itching.

Many of these toilet powders, commonly known as "rice powder" contain ingredients which irritate the delicate membranes of the eye.

Sixteen samples of so-called rice powders were recently analyzed, and of the number only two consisted entirely of "rice" and only six contained any "rice" at all.

Women who use face powder should be careful to select only those preparations which are known to be pure.

In applying powder to the face, it is much safer to use a cloth and rub the powder on the skin, rather than to apply it with a puff, as by the latter method the powder is driven upward and lodges on the moist eyeball. The tears change into a gummy substance, which lodges behind the eyelids and produces inflammation.

Since toilet articles do not come under the federal and state food and drug acts, they can easily be adulterated.

Many beauty washes and face enamels used by women have been found to contain various dangerous drugs, including lead carbonate, lead plaster, corrosive sublimate or ammoniated mercuric chloride, calomel, white precipitate, bismuth subnitrate, zinc white and many more equally harmful.

Cosmetics, as ordinarily used, also tend to clog the pores or irritate the skin and thus they frequently interfere with the normal, healthy action of the skin.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF THE FARMER

SCABBY SHEEP ARE UNPROFITABLE

Scabies in Sheep, Commonly Known as Sheep Scab, is One of the Oldest Known, Most Contagious, and Most Injurious Diseases Affecting Sheep —When Allowed to Spread it Causes Great Financial Loss to the Industry—Dipping Will Control This Disease.

By M. IMES.

The history of sheep scab dates back to the earliest ages of civilization. It is a highly contagious skin disease, easily transmitted from one sheep to another, and spreads very rapidly after being introduced into a flock. Indeed, this is one of the most injurious diseases which affect sheep. It is caused by a small animal parasite, commonly known as a "mite," which lives on the skin. Although the disease is not hereditary, it is possible for a newborn lamb to become infected from a diseased mother shortly after birth, and this fact has led some sheep owners to think it is hereditary. Besides common sheep scab there are several other varieties of scab affecting sheep, each caused by a distinct species of mite, but they are of comparatively little importance.

When allowed to spread, sheep scab causes great financial loss to the industry. These losses are caused by (1) a decrease in the quantity of wool produced, (2) loss in weight and general condition from irritation and other effects of the disease which render the animals unthrifty, and (3) the death of large numbers of infected sheep. While the disease is highly contageous, insidious in its nature, and severe in its effects, it yields readily to proper treatment and is easily cured. A sheep owner should never allow scab to remain in his flock, as it can be easily eradicated by proper dipping.

Common scab was formerly the greatest drawback to the sheep industry of the United States, but during the past decade great progress has been made in its eradication. The system of grazing sheep on the open ranges of the western part of the United States was such that the flockmasters had great difficulty in keeping the flocks free from scab. The sheep were very frequently exposed to the disease by infectious ranges and trails, "picking up strays" from infected flocks, and in many other ways. It became desirable for the Department of Agriculture to extend aid to the industry by controlling the interstate movement of sheep to prevent the carrying of the infection from one state to another. Arrangements for cooperative work with the live-stock sanitary authorities of the various states concerned were made by the Bureau of Animal Industry with the object in view of completely eradicating the disease. This work has been in progress for about 10 years, and during that time the disease has been reduced to a minimum over the entire area and nearly all the formerly affected states have been released from quarantine. The disease has been so nearly eradicated that at present the economic losses from this cause are practically nil. In view of the highly contagious nature of the disease, however, it is very important that the work of eradication be pushed to completion in order to prevent the disease from again becoming prevalent.

With our present knowledge of and experience in sheep scab eradication work, it is comparatively easy to reduce the infection to a point where it ceases to cause economic loss, but the complete eradication of the parasite over such vast areas is a problem requiring patience and diligence. Where the eradication work is supervised by a well-organized force of trained field men, the percentage of infected flocks can be reduced very rapidly until it reaches a fraction of 1 per cent; but to reduce that fraction to zero requires very careful and systematic work, with the full co-operation of the sheep owners. As soon as the disease is reduced to a point where the economic loss is little or nothing, many sheep owners lose sight of the importance of continuing systematic efforts for complete eradication. It is necessary, however, for the protection of the sheep industry that the efforts be continued until the pest is completely eradicated.

Since the quarantine has been removed and compulsory dipping discontinued the sheep owners in some communities have allowed their dipping vats to go to ruin through lack of use and care. All vats should be kept in repair, and for several years to come each sheep owner will probably find it wise to dip his sheep at least once a year as a precautionary measure.

The only rational treatment for common scab consists in using some external application which will kill the parasites. Feeding sulphur and salt and various other preparations to sheep will not destroy the parasites and consequently will not effect a cure. Hand dressing, or "spot doctoring" as it is commonly called, consists in soaking the affected parts with a medicated solution of strength sufficient to kill the mites. This acts as a palliative and tends temporarily to check the disease, but will not effect a cure. The only conditions under which hand dressing can be advised are (1) when the disease develops in a few sheep of the flock during severe winter weather or just prior to lambing, in which event the infected sheep should be isolated from the flock and may be given a hand dressing to keep the disease in check until arrangements can be made for dipping the entire flock; (2) all sheep affected with hard scab should be separated from the flock just prior to dipping and the crusts or scabs broken up with a cob or stick and the spots soaked well with dip a little stronger than is used in the bath. It can not be too strongly emphasized that hand dressing, or spot doctoring, will not cure scab; in fact, in many cases it is responsible for spreading the disease, for the reason that the sheepman too often depends on this method to effect a cure. Meantime the disease is spreading throughout his flocks and the premises occupied are becoming infectious. Temporizing methods in dealing with sheep scab are expensive in the long run and should never be used or depended upon.

Dipping consists in immersing the sheep in a medicated solution that will kill the parasites, and is the only practical method known for eradicating the disease from the flock. The usual method is for the sheep to enter one end of a vat filled with dip, through which they swim, and leave the vat at the opposite end. The dip or solution should be used warm in order that it may penetrate the fleece and the hard scabs or crusts. Two dippings 10 to 14 days apart are necessary to effect a cure. The first dipping kills the live mites but does not destroy the eggs. Within 10 days after the first dipping the eggs on the skin at that time will have hatched out, but the new mites will not have reached maturity or laid eggs. The second dipping kills the new mites hatched subsequently to the first dipping.

As a basis of practice it may be stated that one dipping will not cure scab. Sheep in full fleece will retain more of the dip in the wool than freshly shorn sheep or lambs with short wool. If the active principle of the dip used is only slightly volatile and the sheep have heavy fleeces, one dipping will sometimes effect a cure. The reason for this is that sufficient dip remains in the wool to kill the new crop of mites. One dipping, however, can not be depended upon to cure the disease, and it will fail to do so in the large majority of cases. It will certainly fail unless conditions are just right; consequently all scabby sheep should be given two dippings with an interval of 10 to 14 days between dippings. The entire flock should be dipped regardless of the number showing infection. To pick out the ones showing scab and dip no others will result in failure, as the disease will continue to develop in the undipped portion of the flock.

If the dipping is to be successful it is necessary to give close attention to the details and to see that the work is carefully and thoroughly performed. Sheep should not be dipped immediately after shearing; a period of at least 10 days should elapse between shearing and dipping, in order that the shear cuts may heal. It is dangerous to dip sheep in some of the dipping preparations, especially lime-and-sulphur, if there are any fresh wounds on the animals; consequently dogs that bite the sheep should not be allowed in the dipping corrals. The chutes, pens, and dipping vat should be closely examined for nails, broken boards, or any object that may puncture or wound the skin of the sheep. Animals having fresh wounds when dipped in lime-and-sulphur usually develop a condition commonly known as "blood poisoning," and the mortality from this cause is high. It does not occur unless there are fresh wounds on the skin. After the wounds have granulated or healing is well started there is little or no danger from this cause. Rough handling of the sheep at the time of dipping results in more harm and damage to the flock than is caused by the dip. When sheep are placed in the dipping vat by hand the men handling them should be instructed to do so carefully. They should not be allowed to catch the sheep by the ears; this is sometimes done and has resulted in breaking or bruising the skin, causing the heads to swell after dipping and resulting in considerable death loss.

SOME STRAWBERRY PESTS.

Strawberry leaf rollers: The larva rolls the leaf and feeds upon it. Spray the plants with lead arsenate and burn the fields as soon as crop is harvested.

Strawberry flea beetles: The adults eat holes through the leaves. Spray the plants with lead arsenate before the fruit is half mature.

Strawberry crown borers: The grub tunnels and feeds in the crown of the plant. Practice crop rotation. Burn over infected fields in fall.

White grubs: The larvae of June beetles damage grass, corn, strawberries and other plants by eating off the roots. Practice fall plowing to expose the insects, and harrow thoroughly before planting.—T. J. Talbert, Kansas Experiment Station.

PROGRESS IN AGRICULTURAL CLUBS

By Means of Agricultural Clubs, Thousands of Boys and Girls Are Being Interested and Instructed in the Various Branches of Farm Work, to Their Pleasure and Profit, and to the Benefit of the Community and the Country.

By B. LARA.

There has been an increase of more than forty-one thousand one hundred in the membership of various boys' and girls' agricultural clubs conducted by the state agricultural colleges and the Department of Agriculture in the northern and western states alone.

Two years ago there were one hundred and ten thousand and seventy-seven members of the various agricultural club projects in the thirty-three states covered by this work. One year ago the membership had grown to one hundred and fifty-one thousand one ninety-four, exclusive of the enrollment in the mother-daughter canning clubs.

This work is being carried on cooperatively in twenty-six of the thirty-three states in the northern, central, and western territory by the Department of Agriculture and the extension departments of the state colleges of agriculture. In practically every state short courses for boys and girls and special demonstration schools have been held at the colleges and in the field. During the past year, one thousand five hundred and fifty-seven club members attended the mid-winter courses at the colleges, nine hundred and sixty-eight of these having their expenses paid by local contributions as a recognition of their achievements in club work. Of the thirty-eight club members who, as champions in their states, districts, or counties two years ago, have become recognized as National All-Star Club members, thirty-one are now attending high schools, agricultural, or other colleges, three of the remaining seven have already graduated from high school, and one will go to an agricultural college this next fall.

Experience has shown that the work in the boys' and girls' clubs can be carried on with even greater success without the aid of large cash prizes and awards. The net profits from the work itself have been found to be the best possible incentive. The members have their attention directed to problems of farm and home management, crop rotation, soil building, etc., and in practically every state in which the work is being carried on a large number of club members are now working out three and four-year rotations of crops. The profits which they derive from club work they are spending on getting an education, or for purchase of pure-bred stock and labor-saving machinery. Many are even buying land and thus acquiring an invaluable sense of dignity and independence.

A Prize-Winner Raised by an Oklahoma Boy.

In the canning work, nine hundred and thirty-eight public demonstrations were held during the year, with a total attendance of one hundred and eighteen thousand, three hundred and sixty-seven. These demonstrations were held primarily for the club members, but parents were always invited and, as a matter of fact, more than half of those present were grown men and women. One of the great advantages of this club work, indeed, is the fact that it serves to stimulate the parents as well as the children.

YELLOW LAWNS ARE EASILY MADE GREEN

If your lawn is yellow rather than green, don't let the dandelions make you blue. There is an easy method of killing them. This is by spraying with a solution of sulphate of iron, according to W. L. Oswald, of the seed-testing laboratory at University Farm, St. Paul, Minn.

Heavy growths of dandelion may be killed by spraying from a nozzle that gives a mist-like spray with a solution of 1½ pounds of sulphate of iron to a gallon of water. An ordinary garden sprinkler does not give good results. The solution should be sprayed over the lawn about three days after the grass has been cut and on a bright day when the possibilities of rain are slight. The lawn must not be cut or watered for three days or more after the application.

The lawns may be sprayed once a month during the entire summer, starting at the time the dandelions appear. With proper care the spray will not injure the grass. Care should be taken in applying the solution to keep it off concrete walks, as it permanently discolors them. Stains in clothing made by the sulphate of iron are not removable.

If there are only a few dandelions on the lawn, Mr. Oswald says, they may be removed by cutting them off just below the surface of the ground with a knife. Gasoline or kerosene applied to the crown of the individual plant will kill it.

Permanent relief from dandelions and other weeds can be secured only by getting a thick vigorous growth of grass. This is secured by using plenty of fertilizer and grass seed.

NOT ENTIRELY NEW.

An item going the rounds to the effect that a yellow rambler rose has been discovered by an explorer in China, and that its seed will shortly be introduced into the United States, where the species is now unknown, has aroused, it would seem, the indignation of half the gardeners in the latter country. The item says, among other things, "Those who take delight in the crimson rambler will be glad to welcome the new flower to this country." If one will look over the seed and plant catalogues received this spring it will be discovered that they contain very pretty pictures of a yellow rambler rose that has long been an early summer bloomer over a wide area of the United States.

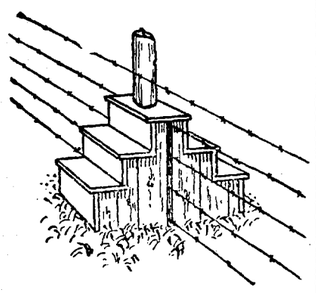
CLEAN SEED.

Unless the grain for both sowing and feeding is cleaned of weed seed, each succeeding year will show more and more weeds. Many an entire farm has become almost depleted from this cause alone.

Little Farm Helps

It is a good plan to locate corn cribs and hay stacks on high rolling ground, so that water will not settle toward them.

A swamp that is an eyesore and absolutely useless as it stands, may be drained and converted into a permanent pond by scraping out the bottom and lining it with clay.



A Stairway Like This Makes It Easy to Get Over a Barbed Wire Fence.

A patch of stony, unproductive ground can, in a few years, be converted into a joy for the youngsters, by planting it to hickory trees.

Nothing adds so much to the comfort of everybody on the farm as dry, solid paths or walks running from the house to all of the outbuildings and connecting the latter.

If you do not have the energy to build a dipping tank for the hogs, pour some coal oil over the pond where they wallow, and it will aid materially in disposing of the lice.

A self opening and closing gate is appreciated in cold and stormy weather.

It will only take a good day's work to make a split-log drag and it will pay for itself over and over the first year.

A gasoline engine and a manure spreader are cheaper than the wages of a farm hand, and they can be always had.

If you are thinking of trying alfalfa, start with a small field, say two or three acres. If your experiment fails, the loss will not be so great, but alfalfa will grow in almost any soil or any climate if it is handled right.

EXPERIMENTS WITH SHEEP.

Probably the latest thing in experiment stations is an exclusive sheep experiment plant now being established by the federal government in Idaho.

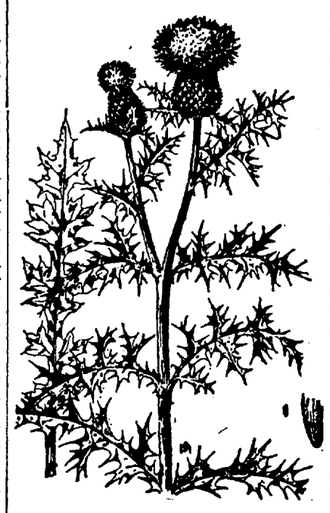
EFFECTIVE METHODS OF FREEING INFESTED LAND OF CANADA THISTLE

The Soil Upon Which This Persistent and Troublesome Weed Flourishes, is Apt to Be of Good Natural Fertility and it Usually Pays to Reclaim Thistle-infested Fields.

In the states north of the Ohio River, probably no plant bears such a bad reputation as does the so-called Canada thistle. This marvellously prickly plant abounds in grain fields, pastures, and meadows throughout the Central West, and is locally common in the northeastern states. It is found in parts of West Virginia, Kentucky, and Missouri, and of late years has been increasingly troublesome in the grain-growing sections of the Northwest. Canada thistle, or simply "thistle," has been condemned in the laws of twenty-five states, and at least one hundred local communities, no other three plants together having received so much unfavorable attention. Certainly no plant is more generally and heartily disliked, unless it be the sand bur of the southern coastal plain.

The cause of the remarkable vitality of Canada thistle and the point that distinguishes it from other prickly plants that are commonly mistaken for it is the long cord-like perennial root. This root penetrates the soil at a depth of eight to fifteen inches, or more, and gives rise at frequent intervals to leafy shoots. Thus it will often be found that an entire patch of thistles is attached to one root, and is in reality but one plant. The root is exceedingly hardy, and can live over winter or through a prolonged drought in a dormant condition. Pieces of the root that are broken off by a plow or cultivator and carried to other places will await a warm, moist period, and then begin to send up leafy shoots, thus establishing a new patch forthwith. If the leafy stems are cut down, others will be sent up to take their place, and this process may be repeated from two to eight times before the root becomes exhausted.

The point that must be kept in mind in fighting Canada thistles is that it is the roots, rather than the tops, that must be killed. Simply cutting off the tops a few times has much the same effect as pruning an apple tree. But if the tops are cut off deep and frequently the root must eventually suffocate through lack of leaves. Bearing this in mind, any of the following methods will be found effective:



Common or Bull Thistle.

1. Summer Fallow—Most suitable for one-half acre or more of thoroughly infested land, from which little revenue could be expected anyway. Plow deep in the fall, exposing the roots to the frost. Harrow in the spring to kill seedlings of annual weeds. Let the thistle grow until the first blossoms appear (about June 1) or until there is danger of other weeds going to seed. Plow shallow and from then until frost use disk harrow often enough to prevent thistle leaves from making over four inches of growth. If the thistles get over six inches high at any time, all the previous work will be undone. This applies to all methods. Follow during second year with a cultivated crop, giving it a little extra cultivation and hoeing out individual thistles.

2. Partial Fallow—(1) For grain fields or old meadows. Cut the crop early for hay, if necessary, to prevent thistles from seeding. Allow thistles to grow for four to six days, then plow, and proceed as in 1 for remainder of season.

(2) For cultivated ground. Allow thistles to grow until first blossoms appear. Plow shallow. When thistles are about three inches high, disk thoroughly and plant late smother crops, as below.

3. Smother Crops—Combination of above. A good method on rich ground. Cut grass or grain early for hay as in 2 (1) above. Plow shallow four to six days later. Leave for four to six days more and disk thoroughly. Then sow smother crop of buckwheat (4/5 peck), rape (broadcast 6/8 pound), millet (⅝ peck), or fodder corn in check rows. After the crop is off, keep thistles down by disking until frost. Hemp and alfalfa are excellent smother crops in sections where they are grown. Alfalfa may be either spring or fall sown, according to custom, but the surface of the ground must be clean and well prepared before planting.

Canada Thistle.

4. Cultivated Crops—Most generally useful method. Corn in check rows best crop. Have ground clean before planting. Equip cultivator with nine-inch sweeps instead of ordinary shoes. Keep sweeps sharp and cultivate frequently. Hoe the corn after laying by, and cultivate the ground after harvest with a disk harrow until frost. Repeat second year.

5. Hoeing and Cutting—Best for small patches. Stake out the patch and visit regularly with a sharp hoe or scythe at least twice a week.

6. Chemicals—There is no chemical that in reasonable quantities will kill Canada thistles with one application, unless applied directly to the cut root. For spraying use sodium arsenite (a violent poison), two pounds in ten gallons of water; common salt, one pound in 1½ quarts of water; or crude carbolic acid, diluted one-half. If animals are salted on a small patch of thistles, it will finally disappear. Frequent spraying of the thistle with the above chemicals may be used instead of cutting in rocky or other inconvenient places.

7. Miscellaneous—Sheep will sometimes graze thistles to death if forced to do so. Small patches of thistles may be smothered by covering with overlapping strips of tar paper or building paper, weighting the laps down with earth and leaving the paper on for eight to ten weeks during the summer. A coating of straw or manure one foot or more in depth will answer the same purpose.

FOOD VALUE OF FRUITS.

Fresh fruits have but little food value, but their use in dietaries is of great importance, nevertheless, on account of the mineral constituents which they contain. These constituents are made of potash, combined with various vegetable acids, namely, tartaric, citric, malic, oxalic, etc., which render the blood more alkaline and the urine less acid. The anti-scorbutic value (prevention of scurvy) of fruits is due to these constituents. A case of scurvy is quickly bettered by the use of fresh fruits.

LET THE CHICKENS HELP.

Many a fruit grower fails to properly cultivate his orchard for fear he will peel the trunks of his trees and damage the rootlets by doing this work. Just cut the soil under the trees and scatter fine seed and the fowls will do the work just right, also enriching the soil at the same time.

Don't try to sell your produce in a market that is already over-supplied.

The good dairy cow eats largely, digests amply, and milks abundantly.

THUMPS IN PIGS.

Thumps in young pigs result from too much feed, or too little sunshine or exercise, or both. The remedy is to reduce the sow's feed and compel the pigs to take plenty of exercise in the open air and sunshine. This treatment is only effective for pigs that have not been weaned, since thumps in older pigs is usually caused by trouble in the lungs or bronchial tubes.

Home canning is growing by leaps and bounds.

BUSINESS FARMING.

"One-eighth of farming is science, three-eighths are art and one-half is business," is a classic quotation by Dr. Seaman Knapp, for years one of the leading men of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington.

LONG-LIVED TREES.

Of all our fruit trees, the apple tree makes the greatest fight for longevity. As long as an old tree has any living bark, the effort for new growth of wood and of an effort toward usefulness is evident.

FERTILIZING ASPARAGUS.

The manures most suitable for asparagus are those strong in nitrogen. Horse, sheep and hen manure are excellent. Nitrate of soda gives good results. Potash is another important element. A good source of it is wood ashes, but commercial forms are also good. A good plan is to apply the barnyard manures as a mulch in the winter after the ground is frozen, so as to prevent the frost from going deep. In the spring the coarse remains may be worked into the soil, but it is better to rake off the refuse and apply some finely rotted manure.

Concrete Roller

A concrete roller may be made as a hand roller to be operated by one or two men or as a horse roller, when it is, of course, larger and heavier. A hand roller for two men suitable for rolling lawns should be made about 18 inches in diameter and 24 inches long. This size of roller weighs about 530 pounds or 265 pounds per foot of length.

A form for making a concrete roller may be easily and cheaply made. For a roller 18 inches in diameter and 24 inches long, cut a piece of sheet iron 24 inches by 56½ inches. The edges must be cut even and must be square. This may be bent in a circle and nailed, if necessary, to two sets of wooden clamps made for this purpose. Wire the iron form with No. 16 wire to hold the form from opening at the joint when the concrete is placed. Grease or oil the inside of the form thoroughly so that it will not stick to the concrete.

To make an opening for an axle or shaft, place a ¾ or ⅞-inch iron pipe in the center of the form.

The concrete should be one part cement, two parts sand and four parts stone or gravel. It will take a little less than one bag of cement for a roller of the above dimensions.

A small roller for rolling seeded ground may be made by pouring concrete into a piece of pipe which forms the outer surface.

TEN HEALTH COMMANDMENTS.

1. Keep windows open day and night.
2. Do not spit.
3. Breathe through the nose by keeping the mouth shut.
4. Drink pure water.
5. Eat slowly, take well-cooked meals, and cultivate regular habits.
6. Wear loose clothing of seasonable material.
7. Take regular open air exercises in sunshine if possible.
8. Wash whole body at least once a week.
9. Work, but do not worry.
10. Get house drains certified by sanitary authority.—Elizabeth Gregg in Health.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, June 21.—Weakness developed in the wheat market today owing to lower cable quotations and to improved weather in the southwest. The foreign decline was attributed in part to an important failure in London. Rallies here were not well maintained. Opening prices, which varied from ⅛c to ⅜c down, with July at $1.03 to $1.03⅛ and September at $1.05½ to $1.05¾, were followed by a decided further setback and then by upturns.

The close was nervous, ¼c to ⅜c net lower, with July at $1.03@1.03⅛, and September at $1.05½.

Liberal country acceptances of bids from here tended to ease corn. Trading here, though, was of large volume and almost evenly divided. After opening ⅜@½c off to ⅛@¼c up, the market underwent a moderate general sag but later scored a rally.

The close was unsettled at ⅛@¼c to ⅝c net decline.

Oats paralleled the action of corn. Commission houses leaned to the bear side.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, June 21.—Shipipng shares and Rock Island issues featured today's early operations, showing marked strength as a result of overnight developments favorable to those properties. Marine preferred rose over a point and Rock Island as much or more, with heavy dealings in the debentures at a gain of two points. Denver and Rio Grande preferred also manifested much activity and strength, rising 2⅜. Mexicans were again in favor, Petroleu mgaining 2⅜, with a point for American Smelting. Continental Can gained two points. U. S. Steel and Crucible Steel were higher by a point, with 1½ for Beet Sugar.

Interest in other low priced rails, notably Lake Erie and Western, Toledo, St. Louis and Western and Texas and Pacific, was revived, these issues showing advances of two to four points. Standard rails were neglected, however, aside from occasional acivity in Reading and Lehigh Valley. Motors recovered fully from the early week's reversals, Willys-Overland rising 13½ points, with 6½ for Chandler and 6¼ for Studebaker. Coppers also improved, despite lower prices abroad, but zinc shares were heavy, profit taking materially reduced gains in all quarters before midday. Bonds were irregular.

NOTICE OF BOND SALE.

Notice is hereby given that on the 30th day of June, 1916, at 2 o'clock P. M., the Trustee of Lafayette School Township of Allen County, Indiana, will offer for sale at the office of the Trustee, in his residence in Lafayette Township, an issue of $7,200 of bonds of Lafayette School Township, Allen County, Indiana.

Said bonds will be seventeen in number, dated July 1, 1916, being for $423.53 each, and maturing serially as follows: $423.53 on the 15th day of July, 1918; $423.53 on the 15th day of January, 1919; $423.53 on the 15th day of July, $1919, and $423.53 on the 15th day of January and July respectively, of each year thereafter until all are paid, the last maturing July 15, 1926; all of said bonds bearing interest at the rate of 5%, payable semi-annually. The first installment shall be payable on the 15th day of January, 1917, and semi-anuually thereafter until maturity, payable at the German-American National Bank of Fort Wayne, Indiana, upon presentation and surrender of the proper coupon therefor.

Said bonds are issued in strict compliance with the laws of the State of Indiana, and pursuant to an order of the Advisory Board of said Township, made and entered on record on the 12th day of May, 1916, authorizing said bonds to be issued for a new school building.

Sealed bids will be received by the Trustee of said Lafayette School Township of Allen County at the office of the Trustee in his residence in said Township. Bidders will be required to state gross amount for the bonds or such portion thereof bid for, and accompany bid with certified check for not less than 2½ per cent of the amount of the bonds bid for, payable to the order of said Trustee of Lafayette School Township, Allen County, Indiana, to secure compliance with bid, and endorse on envelope containing bid, nature of bid and name and address of bidder. Said certified check shall be forfeited to and retained by the Trustee in event the successful bidder fails to enter into a contract within three days from such award for the delivery of said money within twenty days from such award.

Said bid shall include the cost of lithographing and printing and the accrued interest on said bonds, from July 1, 1916, being payable to the Trustee of said school township, until the date the money is received by the Trustee in payment therefor.

Said bonds will be sold, according to law, to the highest and best bidder, for not less than par value.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids GEORGE MEYERS,
Trustee of Lafayette School Township, Allen County, Indiana.
Dated this 12th day of May, 1916.

BABY BONDS BUILD WEALTH AND CHARACTER

Baby Bonds are indorsed by many of the local business men, not only because they cultivate savings habits, which they realize is highly desirable in any community, but also for the fact that these savings habits never fail to mold character. Little extravagances, which frequently lead to bad morals, are displaced by a habit of denial which makes character of a higher quality.

Baby Bonds are in $10 denominations, secured by first mortgages on local real estate and bearing six per cent. interest. For further information, call the Wildwood Sales company, Shoaff building.

PROMINENT MEN'S CLOTHING STORE GOES OUT OF BUSINESS.

Barker-Rose Co. Begin Big Closing Out Sale Tomorrow.

Following the leasing of its store the Barker-Rose company, prominent Calhoun street clothiers, announce for tomorrow the start of a big general sale for the disposal of its stock and fixtures preliminary to winding up the business.

For several years the Barker-Rose company has occupied the building at 714 Calhoun street where it had become favorably known as one of the better stores of the city. Recent announcement was made by the firm of the leasing of its store by the S. S. Kresge company, the big corporation that operates five and ten cent stores in all leading cities of the country. This corporation already occupies the building adjoining the Barker-Rose company, and proposes to add the building occupied by the latter to its present quarters.

Failing to find other suitable quarters, the Barker-Rose company, close out entirely and discontinue. The store has been closed the past three days preparing for the great sale that starts tomorrow. The whole store will be turned into one vast bargain carnival with many extra salespeople to help in the task of caring for the crowds sure to attend. As the building must be vacated August 1st, prices have been cut to a point to insure quick results.

EUROPE URGES CARRANZA TO AVOID A BREAK

ALLIED AGENCIES SEEKING TO CHECK DRIFT TOWARD WAR

NO HINT COMES OF HIS ATTITUDE ON U.S. NOTE

Washington, June 21.—Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon General Carranza by representatives of European power to prevent him from forcing a break with the United States. Indirect reports reaching the state department today told of these efforts and said there was a possibility they would be successful.

Agencies of the entente allies are understood to be active for peace, particularly as they believe German influence has sought to inflame the Mexican government against the United States with a view to preventing this country from gathering in trade formerly controlled by Germany in Mexico, South and Central America.

It is pointed out that Carranza might avoid war by calling for an international commission to discuss the border situation as provided for in the treaty of 1848. So far, however, no suggestion for such a step has come from Mexico.

Carranza Protects Americans

A definite statement has been received that Gen. Carranza is doing all in his power at this time to protect Americans in Mexico from attack by the populace. He is said to have given Special Agent Rodgers, in Mexico City, all the aid in his power in arranging for trains to carry American refugees from the interior to Vera Cruz. In some quarters here this was construed as evidence that he is not bent upon provocating hostilities.

The state department had no advices bearing out these hopeful indications except that from Special Agent Rodgers announcing the progress of his efforts to get American citizens out. With the full consent of the Carranza authorities, he said, and the promise of adequate protection from possible bandit attacks he had arranged for a special train to leave Mexico City carrying Americans to Vera Cruz.

Mr. Rodgers added that he and his diplomatic associates in the Mexican capital had been given every assurance of safe conduct and protection on their trip to the coast if it became necessary for them to leave.

The corps of American newspaper correspondents has decided to remain with Mr. Rodgers until such time as he may find it necessary to leave.

Await Carranza's Attitude

The United States today anxiously awaited word from Mexico City regarding Carranza's attitude toward the American note sent him yesterday. High officials here admitted privately they look for war, but they are taking every possible care to avoid any formal expression or acts which might appear to be fore-runners of a declaration of war.

The only answer required from Gen. Carranza is action suppressing outlaw treatment of Americans and officials feared this would not be done. Officials versions of the note probably were published in Mexico City today and the official text may already be in Gen. Carranza's hands.

Expect Threatening Movements.

Military authorities were looking for the de facto government's attitude in Mexico threatening troop movements today near the border and in preparation for these the war department was getting ready to act on Gen. Funston's request for immediate dispatch of a number of national guard units to the border. It was said Secretary Baker and President Wilson probably would determine what organizations should be sent. Several days may elapse before any great number of militia units can be mustered into the federal service.

Reports of great enthusiasm and rapid recruiting continued to come in from anw states today.

In Event of Battle.

Great interest was expressed in the probable course to be followed in case Mexicans attack the American column. It was regarded as probable that a general rapid advance will be ordered in the border to a line perhaps 100 or more miles south of the border. This line then would be fortified and held until volunteer reinforcements became available.

An overnight dispatch from Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City received at the state department today said arrangements had been concluded satisfactorily for the special train to carry out Americans and foreigners to Vera Cruz.

Americans Get Out Today.

He reiterated hope that it would start today, taking many of the 600 or more American citizens still in the capital. A number of dispatches were received from consular officers and agents. They agreed that the tension everywhere was keyed to a high pitch, but that no disturbances to Americans had occurred.

Consul Guant at Progreso, Mex., reported there was no truth in the rumor

FOUND IN HIS BUGGY WITH SKULL CRUSHED

Lafayette, Ind., June 21.—Donald McGregor, aged 50, a farmer who has been living alone for several years near Oxford, a small town in Benton county, was found on the road in his buggy in a semi-conscious condition this morning about 9 o'clock with his skull fractured and he was brought to a local hospital where it is said that there is little chance for his recovery.

According to officials there is evidence of foul play and an investigation is being conducted. McGregor was a recluse and nothing is known about his relatives. He was well to do.

BULLETIN.

Washington, June 21.—Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City telegraphed the state department today that the American note had reached there and was being considered by General Carranza and his cabinet. He made no mention of how it was received.

Mexican Attack Fails to Come

GERMANS ARE BEATEN BACK

Curtain of French Artillery Fire Stops Teutonic Attack at Verdun.

AUSTRIANS ARE GIVING BATTLE

Today's War News Given in Summary

While the weight of German military power is being increasingly felt on the eastern front, where it has stiffened the Austrian resistance to the drive of the Russians, the pressure on the French at Verdun has momentarily lessened. There has been rather heavy artillery action around the extreme west fortress, but no further moves by the infantry are recorded in this afternoon's Paris bulletin.

The Germans have not been altogether idle on this front, however, for after having touched off two mines northwest of Rheims, a district in which the deadlock of the armies has been just about as complete as anywhere along the line, they attacked French trenches on a height south of Berry-au-Bac. Paris declared the defensive curtain of fire caused the assault to fail completely.

Athens dispatches forecast probable changes in the Greek ministry as a result of economic pressure which the allies have exerted because of their dissatisfaction with the Greek government's attitude. Resignation of the cabinet of Premier Skoloudis is expected in some quarters. Former Premier Zaimis may be asked to form a ministry acceptable to the entente.

Paris, June 21.—(11:50 a. m.)—A violent attack on the French positions northwest of Rheims was made by the Germans last night at Hill No. 108, and in the direction of Berry-au-Bac, according to an official statement today. The attack was repulsed by the French artillery fire.

The Germans exploded two mines before launching their infantry against the French trenches. Their repulse was due, the statement says, to the effectiveness of the French screen of fire.

In the Verdun sector no infantry action was reported but a mutual bombardment was maintained during the night.

AUSTRIANS FIGHT DESPERATELY.

MRS. DREXEL GETS $50,000 PER YEAR

American Banker's Wife Is Given Judgment By London Court.

London, June 21.—(12 noon)—Mrs. Rita Armstrong Drexel, wife of Anthony J. Drexel, the American banker, was given judgment against her husband for a yearly allowance of $50,000 by Justice Neville in the chancery court today. When the case was last before the court in December, 1915, Mr. Drexel contested the jurisdiction of the British courts on the grounds that he was a resident of France. This point was decided and when court opened today the bankers' attorney said that as it had been decided that the English courts had jurisdiction he could handle the case.

Mrs. Drexel separated from her husband in 1911 while they were living in London and it was announced that she proposed to institute divorce proceedings. These proceedings were dropped when the separation agreement was entered into by which Mrs. Drexel was to receive an annual sum of $50,000 and five policies on the life of her husband aggregating $300,000, which were to be assigned to a trustee and held for her benefit in event of the banker's death. In July, 1915, Mr. Drexel filed a suit for divorce in Paris and stopped the allowance to his wife. The present suit was the result of this action. The Drexels were married in 1886 and have lived abroad for the last 20 years.

CANDIDATES MEET TO PLAN CAMPAIGN

Prof. L. W. Fairfield, Republican Nominee for Congress, Speaks.

For the purpose of discussing the political situation and to outline plans for the campaign, a meeting of the various republican candidates in Allen county was held Wednesday afternoon in the republican headquarters on East Berry street. The meeting was well attended and much enthusiasm was manifested, all of the candidates expressing themselves as confident of victory in November, a claim, however, that is stoutly denied by the democrats.

One of the features of the meeting was an address by Prof. L. W. Fairfield, of Angola, the republican nominee for congress from the Twelfth district. Incidentally, it might be mentioned that Prof. Fairfield is letting no grass grow under his feet. For the past two weeks he has made a specialty of attending picnics, family reunions, farmers' gatherings and meetings of every description. He is desirous of seeing every voter in the district between now and election.

Representative Cyrus Cline, Prof. Fairfield's opponent, will remain at his post in Washington until congress adjourns

LOT OF LIVE WIRES TO AID M'CORMICK

Will Assist in Direction of Wilson Campaign for Re-Election.

Washington, June 21.—In conference today with members of the democratic national committee President Wilson indicated that detailed plans for the fall campaign will be held up until the executive or steering committee is appointed. The president hopes to select a group of active men to aid National Chairman Vance C. McCormick, but has not definitely decided upon the personnel.

The time and place for the ceremony of notifying the president of his renomination probably will also await appointment of this committee and be discussed by the president with its members before a decision is reached. Committeemen who saw the president were C. S. Cummings, of Connecticut, vice chairman; Samuel A. King, of Utah, and John H. Wilson, of Hawaii.

Mr. King discussed the western situation, particularly in Utah and Wyoming. He urged a vigorous campaign, declaring that with proper support the democrats could carry Utah next fall and elect a successor to Senator Sutherland.

PENNSY FURLOUGHS EMPLOYES TO ARMY

Pension Allowed to Cover Time of Furlough in Military Service.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 21.—S. H. Church, secretary of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg, has made public a resolution passed by the board regarding its policy on payment of salary to employes who may enlist in the national guard or United States army. It was announced similar action had been taken on all Pennsylvania railroad lines east of Pittsburg.

The resolution grants "furloughs to all employes desirous of enlisting for such time as they may be engaged in state or national military or naval service in the event of war or other emergency and that the pension allowance of such employes so furloughed include the time of such furlough."

GEORGE D. CRANE CRITICALLY ILL

George D. Crane, for many years a well known Fort Wayne citizen, is reported critically ill at his home on West Jefferson street, and his condition is such as to give but scant hope for his recovery.

Mr. Crane is suffering from an acute attack of kidney trouble, following a protracted period of poor health caused by chronic heart affection of some years' standing. His condition became alarming on Saturday, and it is said the patient is growing gradually weaker.

CO. E READY FOR SERVICE

Recruits Flocking Rapidly to the Colors in Fort Wayne.

BUSY SCENES AT THE LOCAL ARMORY

Preparations Are Made to Move for Camp at a Moment's Notice.

Company E, Indiana National Guard, will be ready to move when the call comes, which is expected Saturday. Capt. John E. Miller does not expect it before that time.

Up to noon Wednesday the Fort Wayne company numbered one hundred, not counting twenty-five or more minors who have made application and who will be accepted as soon as they secure the consent of their parents.

Without doubt the war spirit has hit Fort Wayne a shrapnel blow and the recruits are flocking to the colors even more rapidly than was expected. Bad teeth, underweight, overweight and other physical defects were keeping many of the applicants out. Although new members are wanted badly, Captain Miller is taking great care not to accept undesirables, many of whom have been rejected since the opening of the recruiting station.

When the company leaves, the armory headquarters in the Flick building on West Berry street, will be vacated and upon its return new quarters will have to be secured. The government does not pay rent for armory quarters while the company is away and for this reason preparations were made Wednesday to move everything out at a moment's notice. The lockers, furniture and paraphernalia that is not taken along will be stored.

Funds Running Low.

The funds of the company are running low and while several Fort Wayne citizens have responded most liberally, there

HUGHES TURNS TO COLLEGE AFFAIRS

Nominee Marches With His Class of '81 at Brown Commencement.

Providence, R. I., June 21.—Charles E. Hughes, republican nominee for president, motored to Providence today from the home of his friend, Benjamin Barker, at Tiverton, whose guest he had been since his arrival here Monday night, for a day of activity in college affairs.

Mr. Hughes marched with his class, that of '81, in the Brown university commencement exercises, was seated with the board of trustees at the historic First Baptist meeting house, not far from a place reserved for Franklin Lane, secretary of the interior, who was invited some time ago to deliver an address and later was the guest of President Faunce, of Brown, at a reception. The day's program also included a reception at the headquarters of the Young Men's Republican club and a dinner tonight at the home of Gov. R. L. Livingston Beekman. It was announced that there would be no discussion of political affairs. Mr. Hughes expects to leave here at midnight for New York, where he will remain till Saturday afternoon.

TAXI IN WRECK ON FAIRFIELD AVENUE

At 3 o'clock Wednesday morning a taxicab driven by Herbert Woiverton and occupied by a single passenger came in contact with the center support of the Wabash elevation on Fairfield avenue, with the result that the taxi suffered the worst. The driver was slightly injured as was the passenger.

The taxi is owned by the Fort Wayne Transfer company and men at the barn on Harrison street know nothing of the facts surrounding the accident. It is thought, however, that the heavy rain which was falling at this time of the morning may have blinded the driver or that the car skidded on the slippery pavement. The auto was badly damaged, the entire front end being smashed.

PERSHING SENDS TROOPS EASTWARD

Gives Mexicans Chance to Make Good the Threat to Attack Him if He Moved, But Issue is Declined.

San Antonio, Texas, June 21.—General Pershing has given the Mexican troops the opportunity to make good their threat to attack him if he moved east or west, but the Mexicans declined the issue.

The American commander sent a small force eastward to Guzman, about thirty-five miles from his line of communication yesterday to investigate a report that concentration of Mexican troops had been made there. He reported the incident to General Funston today, adding that the detachment had returned without finding any Mexican troops in that vicinity.

Remembering Gen. Trevino's threat to attack the Americans if they moved in any but a northerly direction, officers here regarded his failure to do so as indicative of reluctance on his part to carry out his threat.

Mexican Troops Arrive.

Reports to department headquarters told today of the arrival of more troops at Ojinaga, opposite Presidio, and at Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass. Beyond Ojinaga increased activity was noticed, but officers believe Col. Gaston, commanding the American side, has men enough to meet the situation. The heaviest addition to the Mexican border army was that at Piedras Negras, where Gen. Murgia arrived with 2,000 men.

Gen. Funston announced that to the army's equipment here had been added today, a large number of searchlights. He was notified by the war department that detailed instructions have been sent him for organization in this department of four regiments of infantry and two cavalry regiments under the army reorganization bill, which will become effective July 1.

SILLIMAN AT EAGLE PASS.

Last American Consul Has Now Left Mexican Territory.

Eagle Pass, Texas, June 21.—Consul J. R. Silliman arrived in this city early today from Saltillo, coming by way of Monclova, owing to the cessation of railroad traffic between Monterey and Nuevo Laredo. He expects to remain here for several days. Mr. Silliman is the last American consul to leave Mexico.

ROTARIANS ARE TOLD HOW TO BAKE BREAD

George M. Haffner was the principal speaker, Wednesday noon, at the first meeting of the Fort Wayne Rotary club in several weeks. He explained the art of break baking so vividly that each member of the club who heard him should have no trouble in baking bread, should they ever be called upon to do so. The meeting was called principally for the purpose of discussing and making arrangements for the contemplated trip to Cincinnati, but inasmuch as several members who are in charge of the trip were not present, the matter was not presented. Frank E. Stouder presided as toastmaster and several songs were sung by the male quartet with the LaSalle Musical Comedy company.

JUSTIFY ADVANCES IN GASOLINE PRICES

Washington, June 21—Officials of the Standard Oil company of Ohio, testified today in the closing hearing of the federal trade commission's investigation of the increase in the price of gasoline that economic causes justified the advances. They were unable to give any reason for the failure of the Standard Oil company of Indiana to compete in the Ohio territory.

Independent oil men told the commission recently that demoralization of the oil business was due to high prices maintained in Ohio as a result of the failure of the Indiana concern to enter that field. A. F. Coombs, president of the Ohio concern denied that the two companies had any contract or agreement concerning competition.

SIGNAL CORPS NOW IN CAMP

First Indiana Guard Unit Reaches Ft. Benjamin Harrison.

Col. Conde Quits Service Because of Age Limit and Ill-Health.

Indianapolis, June 21.—Company A, signal corps Indiana national guard of this city, moved to Fort Benjamin Harrison today, being the first of the Indiana troops to go to the Indiana mobilization camp. The company, which was recruited to full strength before the mobilization order was issued by the president, was ordered to Fort Harrison last night to guard the military stores being sent to the post for the Indiana troops which are expected to begin to arrive the latter part of the week.

In the meantime recruiting over the state continues brisk, according to reports received at the office of Adjutant General Franklin L. Bridges, commanding the Indiana militia, and it is expected that all the companies will have their required quotas by the end of the week.

The Indiana field artillery companies are encamped at the state fair grounds, awaiting orders to move to Fort Harrison.

Gov. Ralston has practically agreed to accept the resignation of Col. Henry Conde, commanding the Second regiment, who asked to be relieved of his command because of the age limit and ill-

SUNDAY SPENDS AN HOUR IN FT. WAYNE

Famous Evangelist Closes Successful Meeting in Kansas City.

"Billy" Sunday, the famous evangelist, was a visitor in Fort Wayne Wednesday for an hour, while on his way to his home at Winona Lake from Sturgis, Mich.

There is no hope of "Billy" Sunday conducting a series of meetings in Fort Wayne very soon. A Sentinel reporter asked him if there would be any chance of him coming to Fort Wayne within the near future to which he replied that he had enough engagements to keep him busy for several years. He would not promise to give any time to Fort Wayne as he is devoting his efforts almost entirely to the larger cities of the country.

Mr. Sunday has delivered two or three temperance lectures in Michigan this week and he is very much encouraged over the prospects of Michigan voting "dry" next fall by a big majority. He also stated that he has given up his meeting in New York city next spring, but that he would probably hold meetings in Boston and other eastern cities. His first fall campaign will be held in Detroit in September.

Evangelist Sunday closed a most successful campaign in Kansas City Sunday night, where a total of 20,646 "hit the sawdust trail." In his campaign of seven weeks he preached ninety-three sermons in the tabernacle to 1,356,000 persons. Seventy-five thousand persons heard him preach Sunday and 2,121 was the day's record of converts. Before leaving Kansas City the famous evangelist was presented with a cashier's check for $32,000, which the people gave him as a thank offering.

Mexico Making Her Plea Before European Public

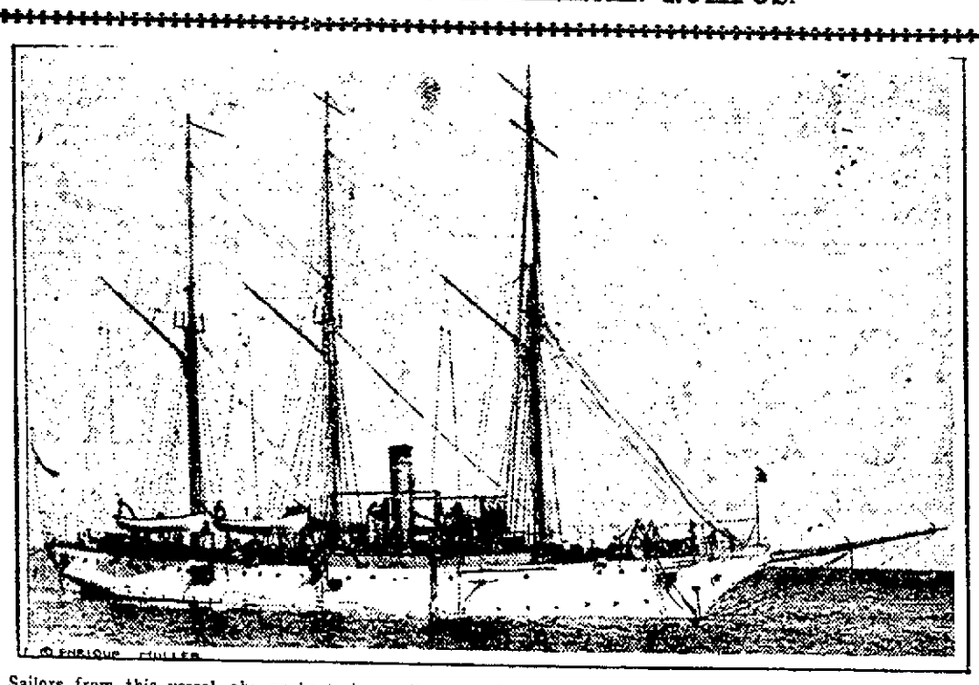
Paris, June 21.—Mexico is placing its case before the European public in the form of statements issued by Mexican legations on the continent. Such a statement appeared in Madrid on Monday and a similar statement is printed in the French press today from the Mexican legation in Paris. It says the reports that war is inevitable and that Gen. Carranza's attitude is due to German intrigue came from American sources.

"Imputations against the government of Gen. Carranza," it declares "are unwarranted. Mexico has not wished and does not wish war with the United States."

The statement reviews the negotiations for permission for American troops to cross the frontier to pursue bandits and declares that the interchanges were interrupted by the sending of an expeditionary corps constituting a violation of Mexican sovereignty.

"We are authorized to state that it is not Mexico which attacks," the statement continues. "In ordering Gen. Trevino to prevent American forces from advancing south, east or west the attitude of the Mexican government is purely defensive. This is established from documents in this legation which will be published at an opportune time."

HERE'S U. S. SHIP IN MEXICAN RUMPUS.



Sailors from this vessel, the gunboat Annapolis, were fired on when they landed at Mazatlan, Sinaloa, and two naval officers were seized by the Mexicans and later released. Bos'n's Mate I. M. Laughter, of Edna, Tex., was wounded. Mexican officials say the first shot was fired by a drunken Jap, and that as Carranza soldiers then ran down the wharf the American sailors opened fire, wounding six Mexicans.

AMERICANS IN FEAR HIDE IN MOUNTAINS

El Paso, Tex., June 21.—Five Americans are in hiding in the mountains in the vicinity of Parral in southern Chihuahua fearing to attempt to make their way to the border because of the feeling of the native populace, according to reports reaching here today. The men, employes of the Alvarido Mining and Milling company, of Parral, recently started toward El Paso, but were obliged to seek refuge in the mountains. In the party are T. G. Hawkins, jr., A. W. Morris, R. C. Higley, H. A. Buck and H. W. Collins. Officials of the company here express the belief that Mexican friends could be depended upon to afford them protection.

With the exception of these five the exodus of Americans from Chihuahua was practically complete today with the arrival of eight members of the colony in Chihuahua City. Some of them told stories of a shortage of food and increasing anti-American sentiment.

Much interest was aroused among El Pasoans, many of whom have large holdings in Mexico, in dispatches received from Mexico City at the local Mexican consulate. These said in substance that a decree had been issued by the de facto government holding that any foreigner acquiring real estate in Mexico either by purchase or contract must renounce first his allegiance to his native country and register as a Mexican citizen.

URGES MOTORIZATION OF FIRE DEPARTMENT

Resolutions Are Passed at Meeting of Real Estate Exchange

A resolution urging the complete motorization of the city fire department was passed Tuesday evening at the regular weekly meeting of the Fort Wayne Real Estate exchange. The resolution urges that the city make complete arrangements for motorization in the next budget. It will be presented to the city council at its next session.

The resolution points out that the decreased rate of fire insurance and other advantages that would result from the motorization of the department will more than justify the expense.

A committee of eight members of the exchange was appointed by President Luie H. Moore to assist Charles L. Biederwolf, of the Commercial club, in obtaining automobiles for the civic beauty and health parade. One to four machines were pledged by each member of the exchange.

The feature of the meeting of the exchange next week will be an address by Edward Kearney, president of the Wabash railroad. The meeting scheduled for the week of the Fourth of July will be held on July 6 as the regular meeting night falls upon the holiday.

NOT AFRAID TO FIGHT BUT SEE BIGGER DUTY

Secretary Lane Discusses American Spirit in Address.

Providence, R. I., June 21.—The American spirit is against war not because Americans are afraid to fight, but because they are too busy with other enterprises more important than war, Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, declared in a commencement address at Brown university today. The degree of doctor of laws was conferred on the secretary. Charles E. Hughes, republican nominee for president, was another honor guest of the university.

"The spirit of America is against war not because we have grown cowardly and fear death," said Mr. Lane, "nor because we have grown flabby and love softness, nor even because we have become conscious converts to the Prince of Peace. But we in American have something larger to do. We are discovering our country. We have no time for war. We are doing something much more important. We all work. That is the greatest of all adventures. When war comes to a democracy it comes because we are not allowed peacefully to work.

"What would we fight for? For what Roger Williams fought for—to be let alone; to have the opportunity to show what man can do for man."

MARSHALL TO FACE BAR OF THE HOUSE

Washington, June 21.—United States District Attorney Snowden Marshall, of New York, will be haled before the bar of the house to answer a charge of contempt because of criticism of the judiciary committee's investigation of impeachment proceedings against him. This action was decided upon by the house yesterday when it sustained, by a vote of 208 to 85, charges of contempt against Mr. Marshall. Speaker Clark was prepared today to issue a warrant for his arrest, although it was thought he might appear voluntarily. Just what sentence will be imposed upon the district attorney has not been determined, but it is probable that he will be publicly censured. Imprisonment may also be imposed.

The public is slow to believe and comprehend the tremendous advances being made by the manufacturers in Rugs and Carpets. The dye in a certain Rug now costs as much as the whole Rug used to cost. Bought now our $12.00 Rugs would be worth $20.00; our $15.00 ones $25.00; our $20.00 ones $30.00; our $25.00 ones $38.00. Can't you see the importance of buying before we have to advance our prices? CONTINUES PAY OF SOLDIER EMPLOYES

Gas Company Head Makes the Announcement of Company Stand.

Lafayette, Ind., June 21.—President Clarence H. Geist, of the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company, has sent word here from Philadelphia that all employes of his company who are called to duty on the Mexican frontier will be granted a leave of absence and that while they are in service their salaries will continue.

The married men employed at Lafayette have signed power of attorney to their wives and they will collect their husbands' wages. The order becomes effective at once.

The Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company is the corporation which owns and operates the Fort Wayne gas plant.

Postal Head Declares They Can Best Serve Their Country at Work.

New York, June 21.—In a letter to a recruiting officer for the Plattsburg military training camps, Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph Cable company, declares that from a national point of view it is a mistake for a telegraph company to have its operators prepare for and enlist in the regular army instead of serving their country in the capacity for which they are peculiarly fitted.

The company had been asked to grant to some of its operators a four week leave of absence to attend the Plattsburg camps. In his reply, made public today, Mr. Mackay wrote: "It may not have occurred to you that telegraph operators are needed in time of war far more as telegraph operators than as soldiers or officers. The attendance of these operators at the camp at Plattsburg would not aid the nation anywhere near so much as to have them available for telegraph purposes in case of war."

To emphasize his assertion, Mr. Mackay pointed to the attitude of the British government declining to enlist cable operators.

PIANO MEN IN CONVENTION.

National Organizations Hold Three Gatherings Simultaneously.

New York, June 21.—Piano manufacturers, dealers and salesmen from all over the country are here today to attend the annual conventions of the National Piano Manufacturers' association, the National Association of Piano Merchants and the National Piano Travelers' association. The three conventions will be in session simultaneously and in addition there will be a meeting of supply dealers and music publishers. An important question to be decided is the proposal for the organization of a chamber of commerce to represent all industries in the musical trade.

WERE SEIZED BY THE TURKS

American Schools and Hospitals at Two Points Commandeered.

CALL ACTION A WAR NECESSITY

Home-Comers Tell of Antipathy Manifested in Turkish Capital.

New York, June 21.—Schools and hospitals owned and conducted by the American board of foreign missions at Marsovan and Sivas, Turkey, valued at more than half a million dollars, have been commandeered by the Turks for military purposes and the missionaries in charge compelled to abandon their work there, according to Americans who arrived here today from the orient.

The property was taken over, they said, in May, when the diplomatic situation between the United States and Germany was tense over the negotiations growing out of the U-boat controversy. The missionaries who arrived in Constantinople prior to the departure of the Americans who arrived here today, said that the Turks first informed them that the United States and Germany were at war. This they afterward denied, but excused their commandeering of the properties by saying they were required for military purposes.

Given But Short Time.

The missionaries in charge, it was added, were given only a short time to leave—sufficient only to gather their personal belongings. They are still at Constantinople, where they are being sheltered by other organizations controlled by the board. It was stated also that strict censorship was imposed regarding the sending out of news of the Turks taking over American properties. In all other respects, however, the arrivals here said properties and work of American missionaries in Turkey were unmolested. The various schools are flourishing and the enrollment for the coming year of pupils is at its maximum.

Come From Constantinople.

Sixteen Americans who said they had left Constantinople owing to a scarcity of food supplies and because the native population had evinced strong antipathy for all English speaking persons, arrived here today as passengers on the Danish steamship, Oscar H. from Scandinavian ports. Among them were Prof. Henry B. Dewing, Charles L. Lewis and George H. Huntington, connected with Robert Scott and Prof. Maurice Tanguary, a zoologist, who was with the McMillan Crockerland expedition.

The Oscar II stopped at Kirkwall, where the British authorities removed 130 sacks of mail, forty of which were restored to the ship when it was found that they contained correspondence addressed to Danish officials at Washington and the West Indies and to persons on Danish warships at the West Indies.

CHINA BUYING AIRSHIPS.

Will Use Aeroplanes for Transportation of Mail.

San Francisco, June 21.—The Chinese government has ordered twenty-five aeroplanes at an average cost of $10,000, according to an aeroplane manufacturer here who said today he had received the signed contract. The machines will be used to carry mail.

Stomach Gets the Blame, But the Liver Is the Cause

A Wineglassful of Tollo Water Will Make the Liver Act Freely and Relieve Your Stomach in Thirty Minutes.

Most cases of stomach trouble are caused by a clogged liver. It does no good to dose the stomach with drugs when the real cause is not removed.

When the bile tubes of the liver are clogged the bile is forced back into the stomach and even into the blood, causing stomach trouble, gas, heartburn, headaches, coated tongue, sallow complexion.

An occasional Tollo Water liver bath will remove all these symptoms in thirty minutes. It will clean out the bile tubes, flush the waste out of your system and give your stomach a fresh, clean start.

Tollo Water is found at Dawson Springs, a famous Kentucky health resort, and has the property of dissolving the obstructions in the bile tubes and stimulating the action of the liver and bowels.

Clean your liver tomorrow with a Tollo Water liver bath. It will remove all waste matter and you will be surprised and pleased at its quick results. Your stomach trouble will disappear and you will be able to eat what you like and enjoy it.

Get a 15-cent bottle from your druggist. Take a little before breakfast in a glass of drinking water. In thirty minutes it will make you feel better than you have in weeks.—Advertisement.

"MISS NOBODY FROM STARLAND."

Lasalle Company in Beautiful Little Comedy Tomorrow.

"Miss Nobody From Starland," the tuneful little beauty of a musical comedy gem, with eighteen catchy singing airs in the score and with the impressive ship scene, the absurd rehearsal showing a stage built within a stage and the elaborate cafe interior, is quite the most pretentious offering on the entire list of attractions afforded by the Lasalle company. This organization will open a four-day engagement in "Miss Nobody From Starland" Thursday evening, playing a matinee on Saturday. The rehearsal scene in which the audience is taken behind the scenes at a theater and shows how the works are put on is the most excrutiatingly funny bit in the show business.

The Lasalle company this evening will close in "Lovers and Lunatics" after a particularly successful run. This absurd little farce with music built around a youth eloping with the mother of the girl his father had started on a honeymoon with, and all four meeting in a country town boarding house, is a riot from start to finish. Guy Voyer, as the youth, and Harrie Lee, as the seventeen-year-old daughter who, according to her mother, "had seen but four birthdays," have some pretty scenes, while J. J. Woods, as the father, and Aleen Morrison, as the kittenish mother, are taught their real ages when Mlle. (Harrie Lee) starts the game of Jericho and tires them all out. J. Flanagan's comedy role of Steve, the country bumpkin, who is constantly interrupting the lovers, is rich and cleverly done, too.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

Route West From Convoy, Ohio, to Avoid Mud Road is to Be Marked Out.

Van Wert, Ohio, June 21.—Within the next two weeks a new detour from Convoy to Fort Wayne will be marked out with Lincoln highway markers by the Van Wert Good Roads club. The route will be used by autoists instead of the present Lincoln highway, which is almost impassible. The exact route that will be followed is that selected by the business men several weeks ago. It is also planned to repaint all the markers along the present highway.

CITIZENS TO HELP.

Kendallville, Ind., June 21.—Believing that Kendallville should now retain its company, and fully realizing what it would mean if the members who have pledged themselves thus far should be detailed to fill out other companies, efforts are being made on the part of several interested citizens to increase the enrollment of Company D to the required number. In hopes of creating interest and stirring up sentiment a public meeting will be held tonight opposite the city building. Among those who have been assisting in the preliminaries are J. J. Cole, A. J. Berhalter and J. E. Jellison.

WILL BE HEARD MONDAY.

Huntington, Ind., June 21.—The slander suit of Moses H. Clemens against A. G. Johnson has been set for trial Monday of next week. The suit was set for trial at the request of Johnson, the defendant. Johnson has filed an answer admitting that he made the statements which Clemens says are slanderous. By this the defense will be that the statements made were the truth. But even this suit will not help Judge S. E. Cook in deciding the habeas corpus case as the issue of insanity is not raised.

INJURED IN A RUNAWAY.

Huntington, Ind., June 21.—A broken collar bone and three fractured ribs are the injuries received by Mrs. F. P. Anthony, of Salamonie avenue, when she was thrown from a buggy in a runaway at Markle. The horse scared at the Erie crossing in Markle. The horse stopped when he had crashed into the barn of A. May and overturned the buggy, throwing out Mr. and Mrs. Anthony. Mr. Anthony was slightly injured. The couple were on their way to the L. G. Anthony home two miles northeast of Markle.

MEMBER OF THE GUARD.

Bluffton, Ind., June 21.—Marion O. Reiff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manson O. Reiff, is probably the only Bluffton boy who was made happy when the order for the mobilization of the national guard was issued Sunday night. Marion is second lieutenant of Company B at Indianapolis and he reported for duty at the armory yesterday. Yesterday the company with the other Indiana guardsmen went to Fort Benjamin Harrison, where they will train awaiting further orders from President Wilson.

DIES WHILE ON VISIT.

Montpelier, Ind., June 21.—Jesse Mason, age 73 years, one of the oldest citizens of this city and section, who has lived at Marengo, Ohio, for several years, is dead at the home of Dorsey Mason and wife, southeast of this city. Mr. Mason and other relatives arrived in this county Friday for a visit, and was taken suddenly ill, and only lived a short time. The body was prepared for shipment to Marengo, Ohio. Funeral there on Wednesday.

DAUGHTER TO ACT AS MAYOR.

Van Wert, Ohio, June 21.—Franklin Chryst, president of the city council, who will be in charge of the executive affairs of the city administration during the absence of Mayor Morrison, who is captain of Co. D, has arranged to place his daughter, Miss Margaret Chryst, in the office for the purpose of receiving notices from taxpayers and citizens concerning public matters.

CONCERTS AT LAGRANGE.

Lagrange, Ind., June 21.—The first of a series of weekly band concerts will be given by the Citizens' band of Lagrange in the court house park, Thursday night of this week. With the homecoming of some of the college boys and the addition of other players from Howe and Mongo, the band has been augmented to over twenty pieces. A program of more than ordinary merit is promised.

MILITIAMAN WEDS.

Warsaw, Ind., June 21.—Just before he left to join his company at Albion, Private Harry B. Frank, of Wawaka, rushed to Warsaw, summoned his sweetheart, Miss Ora J. Hoover, of Wooster, and the ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's brother, Roy King, of South Lake street. Private Harry B. Frank then departed immediately for Albion to join his company and leave with them for Fort Benjamin Harrison.

DRANK CUP OF COAL OIL.

Columbia City, Ind., June 21.—A two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rosenagle, of Noble county, drank a half tin cup of coal oil while playing about the house. A few minutes later the child grew very sick and Dr. Otto Grisier, of this city, was summoned. He caused the child to vomit and the oil and other contents of his stomach were thrown up. The child was greatly relieved and soon fully recovered.

Labor Chiefs Defy Railroads; Will Not Arbitrate

WARREN STONE (TOP.)
TIMOTHY SHEA (BOTTOM.)

Warren Stone, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and Timothy Shea, assistant president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, are among the men who framed the refusal of the railway employes to arbitrate before the interstate commerce commission the demands which the workers have made on the railroad companies. They want an eight-hour day and time and a half for overtime work.

ENTERTAINED AT TRI-LAKE.

Columbia City, Ind., June 21.—The members of the Isaac Knapp dental coterie, an organization of Fort Wayne dentists, spent Wednesday at Tri-lake, fishing and enjoying an outing. They were guests of the Columbia City dentists, who dined the visitors, twenty or thirty in number, both at noon and in the evening.

DEATH AT MENTONE.

Mentone, Ind., June 21.—Mrs. William Clemmer, of this place, who has been an invalid for a number of years, died at her home on Tuesday about 2:30 a. m. The funeral from the home in Mentone Thursday at 1 p. m. Mrs. Clemmer is survived by her husband, William Clemmer, of Mentone, and one sister, Mrs. Henry Leffel, of Warsaw.

NEW BANK AT CRAIGVILLE.

Bluffton, Ind., June 21.—According to word from Craigville that town may have a new bank within a short time. Two Portland men have been investigating the proposition of organizing a state bank with a capital stock of $25,000 and they have made several trips to Craigville but nothing definite has ever been done.

LIGHTNING DESTROYS BARN.

Bluffton, Ind., June 21.—A barn on the Adam Myers farm, near McNatts, was struck by a bolt of lightning last night and was completely destroyed. Most of the contents were destroyed. A cow and calf were cremated.

WELLS COUNTY PIONEER DEAD.

Bluffton, Ind., June 21.—William D. Markley, 75 years old, is dead at the home of his daughter, Miss Cora Markley, at Petroleum, from heart trouble. The decedent was the son of John Markley and wife, who were numbered among the early pioneers of the county, and who were among the founders of the extensive Wells county family which bears their name.

LEAGUE MEETING.

Decatur, Ind., June 21—The annual convention of the Epworth league of the Fort Wayne district is being held in this city. Miss Iona Easley, of Fort Wayne, district president, is presiding. Rev. F. F. Thornburg, of Decatur, and Rev. J. A. Nipper, of Fort Wayne, were on the program Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Charles Smith, of Peru, was the speaker Tuesday evening.

FALLS DEAD IN GARDEN.

Pleasant Lake, Ind., June 21.—David Miller, a well known resident of this place, fell dead while plowing in his garden yesterday. He was found by his wife. He was 73 years old, and a veteran of the civil war.

ANOTHER PIONEER CALLED.

Decatur, Ind., June 21.—Mrs. Elizabeth Nussbaum, 71, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Gentis, after a six weeks' illness with dropsy. The deceased was a native of Berne, Switzerland, came to America when 11 years old, settled at Vera Cruz, and later lived at Linn Grove.

MORE WATERMELONS COMING

But Canteloupe Acreage for This Year Shows a Decrease.

Washington, June 21.—Increase in watermelon acreage and a slight decrease in that of cantaloupes this year is reported by the department of agriculture. In fifteen principal producing states watermelon acreage is 100,965, compared with 96,508 acres last year, and cantaloupe acreage is 41,273, compared with 41,980 acres last year.

NO TICKET IN KANSAS.

State Progressive Nominees Will Not File Declarations.

Topeka, Kan., June 21.—There will be no progressive party ticket in Kansas this year. This was made known today when it was announced that the ten candidates chosen at the state convention would not file their declarations. It was announced some time ago that there would be no progressive state or congressional tickets in this state.

BULLFIGHT INSPIRES HAT DESIGN.

Dame Fashion takes her ideas wherever she finds them. To relieve the monotony of "military" hats she has traveled far from the battlefields to the bull rings of Spain.

The latest millinery novelty is the "toreador" hat, the effect being obtained by running wide fluted gros-grain ribbon around the edge of the brim.

The broad net ruff and enormous bow of ribbon at the neck also are recent innovations.

HIGH VOLTAGE WIRE BREAKS.

Fire Department Is Called; Capt. Stahlhut Has Narrow Escape.

A high tension wire of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company running through the alley just west of Davis street, broke shortly before midnight Tuesday and people residing near called the fir edepartment. Capt. John Stahlhut, of No. 3 engine house, had a narrow escape from death when he attempted to cut the wire. He suffered a severe shock, and it was afterward learned that the wire carried over 4,400 volts. The current was turned off and the break mended.

Bring Smiles

New Post Toasties were perfected to overcome the defects of old-style corn flakes. And the hearty welcome they have received is ample proof that their superiority is recognized.

New Post Toasties have a self-developed, inner-flavor—the rich flavor of choice Indian corn. Try a handful dry—they're mighty good that way, and the test will prove that, unlike common flakes, they do not depend on cream and sugar for their palatability.

New Post Toasties do not "chaff" in the package, and they don't mush down in cream like common "corn flakes." The New Post Toasties are identified by tiny bubbles on each flake—produced by the quick, intense heat of the new process of manufacture, which also develops their wonderful new flavor.

Have your grocer send a package for tomorrow's breakfast.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Acts 10:1-15.

1. There was a certain man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band.
2. A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always.
3. He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.
4. And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.
5. And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:
6. He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.
7. And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually:
8. And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.
9. On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour.
10. And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,
11. And saw Heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:
12. Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.
13. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.
14. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.
15. And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

The Reply to Carranza.

Secretary Lansing's note to the Mexican government flatly denying General Carranza's demand for the withdrawal of American troops from Mexican territory will, we think, take rank as one of the most forceful documents in the history of American diplomacy. It goes to the very heart of things, and while bristling with emphasis and making the decisive stand of the United States so clear that he who runs may read, is singularly free from bombast, intolerance or buncombe. The Mexican government must be dull indeed, if it fails to fully comprehend the precise meaning of the United States, and utterly reckless if it fails to comport itself in a manner that will amount to complete acceptance of the situation as America has laid it down.

In the face of provocation such as perhaps no other country has ever been called upon to endure, the United States in its friendship for its southern neighbor has been patient to the remotest extreme. It has suffered insult, indignity, robbery, murder and defiance times almost without number in the past eight months. Despairing at last of remedial measures from the opposite side of the border, the United States has reluctantly taken up a task imposed upon it by circumstances not of its own making. Even in the stress of the moment the American government has taken occasion to impassionately set these facts out and to appeal to the reason of the southern republic. Secretary Lansing's note is argumentative as well as positive, yet it is characterized by the modest restraint of a powerful man who knows his cause is just, who has no doubt of the outcome of an appeal to the sword, but who is profoundly reluctant to take that step.

The full extent of General Carranza's insolent insinuations and unwarranted charges of bad faith on the part of this country, we think, were not fully appreciated by the public until Mr. Lansing's reply set them out in some degree of detail. The inevitable result is one of popular resentment on this side of the border, and only stultification could have permitted it to pass without the severe rebuke administered in Secretary Lansing's reply. The insolence of Carranza, who owes his recognized authority as head of the defacto government in Mexico at this moment to the friendliness of the United States, is the element in the situation that rankles most. It is almost unheard of in international procedure, and would be sufficient in itself to warrant drastic measures.

Perhaps General Carranza will indulge a bit of sober judgment. There is faint hope for it, it is true. But there can be no mistaking the fact that he has been told definitely what will happen in certain eventualities, and that responsibility for future outcome rests entirely with him.

There are many angles to the question which has been raised regarding the proposed location of Hope hospital on a site fronting Reservoir park, and all of them deserve due consideration. The possibility that the proximity of the hospital might curtail to some extent the free use of the park for purposes of recreation and entertainment has been advanced, and there may be merit in it. On the other hand who would deny the sick and the convalescent the advantage of pleasant surroundings, agreeable outlook and the healthful influence of fresh air and the inviting scene that is presented when one sees old and young in the enjoyment of the recreations and the pleasures of the city parks. The situation is one which calls for full consideration of the interests of the neighborhood, the park and the hospital. We feel very sure that will be given before any irrevocable step is taken.

It will be with much regret that Allen county parts with the services of County Agent Henry, who is shortly to go to Purdue university to take up a wider field of the county agricultural work. Mr. Henry is not only extremely capable, but he is enthusiastic in his vision of agricultural and social possibilities for the rural communities and has a most happy faculty of developing his vision into reality. He has splendidly launched his work in Allen county, and set a very high mark at which those who may follow him must aim.

The city of Duluth, in a total of 15,000 votes cast, has just given the "dry" cause a majority of about 400 in the local option election, which seems to indicate that it is not alone in the smaller towns that the "dry" cause is making progress. Duluth will be "dry" after July 1, 1917, and it will be the largest American city to banash the saloon by individual initiative.

Many friends of Vice President Marshall are urging that the formal notification of renomination to the vice presidency occur in Indiana rather than at Washington, as was originally contemplated. There's no place like home when one is compelled to face these tremendously staggering shocks of surprise.

ASKS MEN'S LEAGUE TO SHOW ITS COLORS

Evangelist Nipper Urges United Support of Tent Revival.

SOME NIPPERISMS IN TABLOID FORM.

If the average saloonkeeper didn't display any more enthusiasm to get business than the average layman does to get members, he'd have to close and you could call this a dry town.

I haven't any patience with the person who flies up and gets mad when you offer him the best thing on earth.

A lot of people think just because they don't believe a thing it isn't true.

A lot of folks want to just take a few things out of the bible and throw the rest away.

Some people have the bible in their home for a bluff.

If you will believe the devil's testimony you will go out from this place a saved man.

The person who is saying no to the invitation to accept Christ is letting the devil make the decision for him.

Revival meetings in progress at the corner of Ewing and Main streets, conducted by the Jones-Nipper evangelistic party, continue of a spiritual nature and last night a large audience heard Rev. Nipper deliver a forceful sermon. The musical program was featured by a duet by Loren Jones, of the Nipper-Jones party, and Guy R. Sutton, well known member of the Lyon evangelistic party, which conducted services in Fort Wayne last year. Mr. Sutton is a visitor in the city. His singing was a feature of revival services during the Lyon campaign.

The meeting on Friday night will be attended by members of the Men's Christian league of the city, who will assemble at the First Baptist church at 7:15 o'clock and march to Calhoun street, to Main street and west to the tent meeting. "The members of the Men's league have a chance to show their colors and to do something in a constructive way," declared Rev. Nipper in his announcement. "We must do something besides drive out the saloons; we must have an even broader vision.

"It takes money to run this campaign and we would like to have the necessary funds to defray all expenses contributed by next Sunday night," continued the pastor. "We now have something over $200 given, but more money is needed." Rev. Nipper announced a donation of $100 by a Fort Wayne resident, whose interest in the revival did not wane, despite the fact that he will be out of the city a greater part of the time it is in progress.

Visiting clergymen were given seats on the stage and among those present last night was Rev. T. M. Guild, of Huntington, brother of Rev. D. H. Guild, pastor of the First M. E. church, of Fort Wayne.

Rev. C. E. Boyer, pastor of the Crescent avenue Evangelical church, gave the opening prayer. Rev. J. B. Blair gave the offertory prayer. Rev. Nipper made announcements in the absence of Rev. O. E. Tomes, pastor of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ, who was out of the city. Rev. Tomes is chairman of the executive committee of the evangelistic campaign.

The choral work, under direction of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Jones, is still an inspiring feature of the revival. Mr. Jones directed the large chorus last night in several selections, which brought out some of the best singing of the protracted meetings.

Rev. Nipper's Sermon.

"Let Us Alone," taken from Mark 1-24; was the subject of Rev. Nipper's sermon, which was in part as follows:

We sometimes take a text of scripture and tell who the author is. You will readily see that these are not the words of Peter, James or John, but that they are the words of satan. They were spoken when Jesus approached a man who was possessed with the devil.

This cry has rung down through all the ages. It was the cry of Israel, even when they had been delivered from bondage and while in the wilderness. They cried, let us alone and let us go back and serve old Pharaoh. It was the cry of the south when the north took arms and went down there to free the colored people. They cried, let us alone. It is the cry of the liquor traffic when there is a protest against them for unlawful acts. If I had my way I'd have every drop of booze in hell before tomorrow morning. Say, if the average saloon keeper didn't display any more enthusiasm than the average church man he'd close up and you could call this a dry town. It is also the cry of the individual. I always feel sorry for the man who is always saying let me alone in my sin. I haven't any patience with the man or woman who will fly up and get sore when you ask him or her to accept the best thing on earth.

Show me a man that is swamped by sin and I'll show you a man that is saying, "Let me alone." Show me a city that is wide open and when a law is passed to close it up I will show you a city that is crying, "Let us alone." But there is coming a time when there will be a lot of people left alone, and then they will wish they had a little company of Christian people. Listen when Jesus comes, and his bride is caught up with him, and all the Christian people are caught up with him, and nothing left on earth but people that have refused to accept Christ. I say to you I don't want to have any part in that, for it is then that those who have been crying "Let us alone" will be left alone in their sin and can have the time of their lives in it.

Not Found in a Saloon.

I want you to notice that this man was not found in a saloon; he was not found indulging in any game of vice; he was not criticising the Bible, but he was in the synagogue or in the church. If the devil could be cast out of a lot of people that fill the church pews, it would not take long to close up this dispensation. But someone says, "I don't believe in the devil." Then I wonder who this voice was referring to when it said "us." I am sure that "us" doesn't mean me, and I am sure that it does not mean one person, and if it means two persons, then there must have been someone else there except this man. I am sure the devil was the spokesman for this man and every other man. I tell you when a man gets to the place where he will speak for himself he will always decide for Christ, but as long as he lets the devil decide for him he will never be a Christian, because the devil doesn't want anybody to be a Christian. The devil has given a testimony for Christ. He said: "I know thee who thou art; thou art Jesus, the Son of God." If you are serving the devil you should believe him, and if you will believe the devil's testimony you will go out of this place a saved person tonight.

Revival for Parents Needed.

I honor the father and mother who are living their lives before their children, and let me say right here that what we need in Fort Wayne is a revival among the parents of children. Listen to me just a minute. Are you a father of a boy? If so, what kind of a man will he be if he follows in your footsteps? Are you a mother of a girl? If so, what kind of a young lady will she be if she follows in your footsteps? Oh, you say, he's a great big-hearted fellow. Well, that may be, but he may be black-hearted as well; it may be a big heart, but not a true heart. Remember, fathers and mothers are going to have to give an account to God for the way they bring up their children. If you are here tonight away from God don't go away from this place saying, "Let me alone," but come right now and settle this matter and go away with peace of mind.

WILL FEED SOLDIER GUESTS.

Pittsburg to Follow Precedent Set During Civil War.

Pittsburg, June 21.—Pittsburg will follow the precedent established in the civil war and feed all soldiers passing through this city. Coffee, sandwiches and probably more substantial food will be provided for a number now estimated at 30,000. No soldier passing through the city will go hungry. The Pittsburg chapter of the women's division for preparedness will have the work in charge and the city council has agreed to pay all expenses.

VICTIMS OF BOOZE LINE UP IN COURT

Long List Had Gotten the Worst of It in Encounter With Liquor.

Bleary-eyed booze hoisters lined the prisoners' bench in the city court Wednesday morning to answer charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Lee Ellis, hardware man of Lafayette, was fined $1 and costs, charged with being drunk.

John Harris and Earl Roach were fined $5 and costs each and Henry Parks drew $1 and costs, all charged with being drunk in a hobo camp along the Wabash railroad. Parks, it seems, did not get so much of the amber juice, and his state of hilarity and fine were correspondingly reduced.

Tom Shackey, if his testimony was to be accepted was a "gentleman drunk." Thomas laid claim in court to a "wardrobe" worth $325, but the most distressing part of it was that he did not have it on when he appeared in court. "If I could get to Cleveland," exclaimed Shackey, but the court at that juncture gave him $5 and costs.

Gust Wiebke told the court he had a job at Gary, but the police had a bigger one when he was found annoying passengers at the "Penney" station. "I don't know whether the officer knew I had a ticket to Gary or not when he arrested me," said Wiebke. The court gave him $5 and costs.

John Firestine, a bartender, must be the man who put the "fire" in "stine." He was charged in police court with abusing his wife and using profane language at his home, in the rear of 317 Dawson street. His wife, though not n court, told the officer that Firestone made $16 a week, but she never saw any of it. Officer Pattee testified against Firestine. The court reconsidered his action of placing Firestine under $25 bond to appear June 22, when his wife could testify, and fined him $5 and costs.

The case of William Brown, charged with disorderly conduct, was continued under $25 bond. He was found drunk in a box car at the Harrison street railway crossing.

Cyrus Wright, charged with being drunk, was fined $10 and costs. And the court told Cyrus that another offense of a similar nature would send him to the state farm. The accused was a good little confesser before the judge. He admitted several times having been drunk.

James Carmody studied hard last night whether he should empty the contents of a bottle of whisky, while he waited in a protected place, as it was raining, or just "listen" to it rain. From the looks of Jeems' lamps in police court, he drank the liquor. But he told the court that he fell asleep with the whisky still n the bottle. Carmody was released from the state farm May 17 and was fined $5 and costs for being drunk June 5. The court gave him $1 and costs.

Theodore Weichman, charged with loitering, told the court he could get a job at Huntington and for "Theo's" kind of work the judge decided Huntington was the place for him.

Dan Lung, charged with allowing prostitutes in his saloon, was found not guilty.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Perosns and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Miss Sarah McDonald, of the public schools, will spend the summer at Toronto, Canada.

The forty-fifth annual commencement of St. Augustine's academy was held at Library hall last evening.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the dinner given by the teachers of the Bloomingdale school last Tuesday.

Perry Achtenbruch, of the Leo road, fell off a wind mill ladder yesterday, a distance of ten feet and dislocated his right shoulder.

Captain J. R. Tyler, teacher of penmanship in the public schools, is building an addition and improving the ground at his Rome City cottage.

The sewers in Williams' addition failed to carry off the water fast enough during the rain storm the other evening and several cellars were flooded.

N. C. Browand and Joe Burger, the well known barbers, have introduced a new fad in the way of dress while at work. They wear long linen dusters in the shop.

The Marvin Kuhns murder trial will commence at Tiffin, Ohio, on Monday of next week. A large number of witnesses from Noble county and some from this city will attend as witnesses.

A big row boat arrived in the city this morning by freight and was taken to the country home of R. T. McDonald, where it will be launched and used for pleasure riding by Mr. McDonald and his friends.

For two days past the trustees of Taylor university have been holding meetings with closed doors. Dr. C. B. Stemen, the acting president, submitted his resignation, which was accepted.

Adjutant General N. R. Ruckle will arrive from Indianapolis this evening to make final arrangements for the state military encampment. The Tabor tract will in all probability be the chosen site for the encampment.

The Church of the Brethren conference decided not to merge with the Progressive Brethren church, formed after a division of the Church of the Brethren.

Theodore Roosevelt, who some time ago was invited to be the big feature of the Winona Centennial Fraternal day, July 5, is by no means an impossibility fo rthe great lodge day. A strenuous effort is being put forth by Winona officials and friends to get the ex-president here. The following have asked Roosevelt to accept the Winona invitation: Dr. J. William Chapman, Rev. "Billy" Sunday and George W. Perkins, the bull moose leader, will use his influence toward having the colonel here. The state Moose lodge officials have also joined in the effort and sent an invitation to Roosevelt to join them at the celebration. James E. Watson, of Rushville, senatorial candidate, will undoubtedly be here as a Knight of Pythias grand lodge representative.

The Winona Centennial publicity committee, held a meeting at the Winona hotel Saturday evening where the members enjoyed a six o'clock dinner. At the business session, which followed the dinner, details were marked out for a vigorous publicity campaign.

Twenty-five thousand dollars was raised at the conference of the Church of the Brethren which was held here last week. The money will be used for foreign missions. The donations were all in cash ,and is believed to be one of the largest cash donations ever received.

FEELS BUOYANT IN THE MORNING NOW

John W. Spangler Tells of the Benefits Tanlac Brought.

"I've gained fifteen pounds since I started taking Tanlac a few weeks ago," John W. Spangler, well known machine operator at the Pennsylvania R. R. shops, of 2207 Hanna street, said recently.

"I had stomach trouble in nearly all of its forms," Mr. Spangler continued. "After eating, it would seem for several hours that my stomach was heavily loaded. Accumulations of gas formed in my stomach and I bloated easily. I didn't sleep well. I'd just toss and roll about the bed and I'd get up in the mornings feeling tired. I didn't enjoy or relish my food.

"My first bottle of Tanlac brought benefits. I've taken four bottles of the medicine now and I can eat all I care for without a trace of the heavy feeling in my stomach I formerly suffered The bloating is entirely gone. I sleep well now and I get up in the mornings feeling refreshed and buoyant. I have a fine appetite now. I recommend Tanlac for all who suffer from stomach trouble."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kindney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, loss of appetite and the like.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Fort Wayne at Meyer's drug stores, Wayne and Calhoun, Calhoun and Columbia, 1420 Calhoun and Broadway and Taylor.—Advertisement.

Hope Hospital —Its New Site

Editor Daily Sentinel: A few property holders, who live facing Reservoir park, are fearful that the location of the new Hope hospital at the corner of Clinton and Suttenfield streets will have a tendency to lessen the desirability of that locality as a residence district and they are, therefore, making an effort to prevent such location. I do not think they need have any such fear. A handsome six story pressed brick building set back from the street fifteen to twenty feet, will certainly be far more desirable than the three vacant lots overgrown with weeds and tall grass—as vacant lots always are—which have marked that corner for the past thirty years. All the receiving and discharging of patients will be to the rear, back upon Clinton street. The grounds will be beautified and made most attractive. There is no finer neighborhood than that which is built about the Lutheran hospital on Fairfield avenue. At the time of its location Fairfield avenue residents were put out about it and feared it might prove objectionable, but such has not been the experience.

I have had this objection made to me to the new location of Hope hospital: "It will not be pleasant to have convalescents sitting or moving about in the park."

I answer, hospital patients return to their homes, as a rule, just as soon as they can get around. They do not remain after they have sufficiently recovered to walk about the building, let alone the park. If, however, an occasional one can enjoy the park, for a brief time, I would not envy the man or woman who would begrudge them that privilege.

Others have said: "A quiet zone would be established about the hospital and that would prevent our having our share of band concerts."

Not at all, it would be a reason for giving you additional such concerts. If the patients in our hospitals could exchange the thunderous noise of heavy interurban and city cars, which pass right under their ears until long past midnight and commence again at 5:30 in the morning, for "the concord of sweet sounds," which would float over the waters of Reservoir lake a block and a half distant from a band located on the island, playing only in the evening from 8 to 9:30 o'clock, they would be exceedingly fortunate. Open air music at that distance and at that early hour would interest and soothe the sick and be of postive pleasure and benefit. If our patients at present in Hope hospital could escape the nearly all night and early morning clatter of the Lincoln highway, with its constant stream of open-throated motorcycles and automobiles and the iron tired market wagons, rumbling over the brick pavement on Barr street, they would think the dim prattle of happy little children playing upon the ice in Reservoir park the sweetest kind of music and, as it would be winter, they would be asking the nurse to open the window a bit that they might hear it the better.

"Then, too, there is the school two blocks away; wouldn't the conversation of the children as they pass in and out morning, noon and afternoon be heard 500 feet away and greatly distress the patients?"

Scarcely; in the street noise of the day time they could not be heard at all.

"But suppose we should want to put on another centennial pageant in 2016, and fight another battle of Fallen Timbers for one minute for five nights, wouldn't the noise of the firing greatly disturb the sick?"

Why that one minute of pop-gun firing at the pageant for the entire five performances all combined wouldn't equal the noise of one interurban car, at midnight, pounding its way beneath the windows of the new St. Joe hospital.

The new site for Hope hospital was especially chosen because of its extreme quietness, as well as its great attractiveness.

CADOMENE FOR PREMATURELY OLD MEN AND WOMEN

"I'M GETTING OLD"

How many there are who make this remark!

And The Reason—A run down nervous system, failing strength and energy. These men and women, too, many who have not yet reached the two score years are the victims of nervousness, "Shot to Pieces" the result of overwork, worry, excesses, exhaustion and dissipation of their natural strength and normal vigor.

CADOMENE TABLETS (3 grain) RESTORE ENERGY.

Cadomene Tablets are a True Tonic intended to arouse to renewed activity the exhausted forces of the human organism, to give fresh vigor to the brain and nervous system and cells of every structure.

With the loss of normal vitality and strength the mental faculties also become less active, on account of the direct nerve connection between the brain and the structures, muscles become flabby, tissue degenerates, the entire body becomes weakened and devitalized. Life becomes more and more burdensome. Whether the condition is due to youthful ignorance of correct living, or excesses in later life, or any other cause, the only treatment that can possibly be of help in such cases is one that tends to bring about natural conditions—which will awaken activity in the nerve cells, generating new vitality and life, increasing muscular strength and replacing worn out and wasting tissue with new.

If your energy and power to accomplish are lessening there's nothing on earth that will do as much good as Cadomene Tablets (3 grain) in restoring proper vim, vitality and life to every bodily structure.

Cadomene Tablets are guaranteed to satisfy and if they do not, every cent of your money will be refunded—it belongs to you and we want you to have it.

Every one should enjoy good health, mentally and physically and experience the consequent increased acuteness of the senses through which happiness is experienced. Cadomene Tablts (3 grain) offer amazing promptness of action in recent cases and gradual and pleasing improvement in chronic cases.

All druggists supply Cadomene Tablets (3 grain) in sealed tubes. Take no substitute.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

LEGHORN WITH VELVET CROWN

THE black velvet crown is the paramount feature of the newest hats. Much ingenuity is shown in the shaping of the crowns. They aren't all smooth affairs following the regular crown outline. Some of them are regular tam o' shanters, others are three and four cornered shape and extend far over the brim. A few are oblong and are stiffened with buckram.

The combination of black velvet and leghorn is very rich. Proof of this is seen in the model photographed. A distinctly summer air is given the hat by the use of lilies of the valley and white roses. Sounds as though one were speaking of a bridal bouquet. The vogue of the velvet crown is as practical as it is beautiful, for it suggests a way to cover the crown which has been burned by the sun.

TO WEAR ON THE PORCH

THE economical woman is the one who looks out for little frocks that she can wear on the porch with a feeling of comfort. She does not want anything too elaborate and yet she desires something that "looks halfway decent." Now is the opportunity, for in the shops the most adorable linen, voile and other cotton frocks are offered for $5 and up.

There are pretty frocks made up of white and sprigged voiles which are finished at the neckline with quaint fichus and at the waistline with narrow bands of picot ribbon.

In most cases the skirts are either ruffled or trimmed with broad tucks. Here and there one will find an overskirt. Such a style was carried out in a blue and white polka-dot voile. The blouse portion was simply made and finished with a deep sailor collar of organdie. The overskirt was pointed and edged with a rolled hem. Three half-inch belts of the material gave the prettiest result one could desire at the waistline.

Many of the striped frocks have their blouses made in smock style, the skirts being perfectly plain and gathered to the belt. Belts of leather, ribbon or velvet confine the fullness of the smocks.

A darling lavender organdie frock, costing little over $7, was made with a little apron, front and back. The front buttoned up on one shoulder. Several strands of white wool were couched with lavender silk along the edge of the apron and continued in a straight line on the blouse, front and back. Two collars, frilly affairs, of lavender and yellow added a delightful touch to the frock.

One really needs at least one or more frock like these described. It is extravagant to wear one's best on the porch, and it is slovenly not to take some pride in one's porch frocks.

THE NEWEST WRITING PAPER

IF ONE is going to be fashionable in one thing, one should be fashionable in all things. For this reason, then, the up-to-date woman must cast aside her old collection of writing-paper and replenish it with the new varieties.

The most unique among the collection of latest stationery is the single sheet made with a panel. The sheet measures eight inches in length and seven inches in width. It can be had in white, gray or lavender. The latter two have a very narrow white border, but all three are edged with gold.

Striped paper is just as much in vogue as are striped materials for frocks. The stripes are of self tones, lighter or darker tones and of contrasting colors. In each case they are little larger than a pin stripe.

The woman living in the country or seaside home should, for her own convenience and the convenience of her friends, have her addresses engraved on her letter sheets. If desired, each address can be artistically illustrated. For instance, her wire address can be illustrated with a telegraph pole and wires. Her telephone number can be ornamented by a drawing of the instrument. Beside the postoffice address the figure of a postman might appear, and so on. Another feature that should win favor is the illustrating of the name of one's cottage.

MORE GORES

IN PARIS the well-dressed woman does not appear on the street in a wash dress. Rather does she choose one of dark silk. A very lovely simple frock for street wear is one seen at a recent display. It was made of dark blue taffeta, and the skirt had just exactly eleven gores. Each seam was outlined with a strip of silver braid. The bottom of each gore was interesting in that it was semi-circular in shape and closely resembled the gore of an umbrella. A white vestee and blue georgette crepe assured one that the frock would be quite comfortable on the warmest summer day.

A SMART SUIT

SILK jersey suits have been with us for some time, but a new feature has been introduced in them. The coat of a smart old rose suit is lined with white wool jersey. To wear with it is a one-piece dress of white wool jersey. It is made of white wool jersey following very straight lines from the high collar to the hem. The only trimming is the buttons, pockets and sash of rose silk jersey. The full, circular coat is three-quarter length and has neither pockets nor belt.

Other coats of silk jerseys are lined with satin, crepe de chine and a few have velvet linings.

SILK FOR THE SUMMER COAT

EVERY woman has need for at least one silk coat in her wardrobe. The possession of one is really an economy, for it means that madam has a wrap suitable for afternoon or evening wear.

There are any number of silks that can be used for the making of a coat like the one sketched. It is stunning in satin, but loses none of its attractiveness in taffeta. Faille, too, is popular material for top-coats.

The broad revers are an advantage to the slender woman who wishes to conceal her angular lines. To ornament them one might use heavy wool embroidery, or, if a richer effect is desired, colorful beads can be used instead.

The deep patch pockets should be lined with material of a contrasting color. These, as well as the cuffs and sash ends, are ornamented like the revers.

USING A TOY TRUNK

HAVE you ever thought of using a toy trunk for carrying the food and various utensils to the picnic ground? Try it some time and you'll find how convenient the little affair is. The tray can be used for napkins and silver. The napkins, by the way, should be paper, so that they can be thrown away as soon as used. It's a good idea to carry a roll of paper towels along, for the hands will become soiled. And don't think of carrying china or tin plates. You can get wooden plates of all sizes, even little square ones, for the dessert. They are light weight to carry and can be thrown away after being used.

SPORTS HATS

SO MUCH importance is attached to sports hats that it is not at all unusual for a girl of limited means to indulge in two hats of this kind and only one of a dressy type. A very practical hat which combines the sport and dressy idea is in the form of a medium brim Panama. It is transformed into a dressy sailor by the use of a three-inch extension of pink batiste. Other colors are just as effective.

A very unique idea used on one felt hat is the embroidering of one's monogram in a contrasting color on the side crown.

YOUR BOILED EGGS

IN FAMILIES where there are no maids its always a problem to know how to keep the boiled eggs warm while the cereal is being eaten. But the problem has been solved. For the sum of $1 one can get a china box which looks like a small-sized trunk. The box is fitted with a lid so that the eggs are sure to be kept warm. At one end of the box a peep is stuck, and to enable his head to come thru a hole has been cut in the lid. There's no mistaking the purpose of the box when you glance at the chick's head. 'Tis a novelty that is worth its price because it is practical.

Society

Preceding the entrance of the bridal party at the Suelzer-Berghoff wedding at St. Mary's church on Thursday morning will be a half hour musical program which Gaston Bailhe, violinist, will play with the accompaniment of the organ. The wedding is at 9 o'clock and pontifical high mass will be celebrated by Mgr. J. H. Oechtering and assistants.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Bernhart, of Attica, have returned to their home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gocke.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Wells come home on Wednesday evening from Detroit, where Dr. Wells attended the Dr. White clinic.

Little Helen Wright, of High street, though only two years old, had a party as nice as if it had been for a five-year-old child and entertained a few friends at Swinney park. The playground sports were enjoyed. There were present Helen Miller, Luella Elder, Pauline Davis, Dale Wefel, Wayne Davis and Clement Elder.

A shower party was given on a recent evening at the home of Mrs. Rah Deahl in honor of Miss Evelyn Wertman, whose marriage took place on Wednesday. Mrs. E. Baumgartner assisted in entertaining. The house was beautifully decorated in syringa and daisies. White roses were given as favors and the table for supper expressed the coloring of white and yellow with ribbon and flowers. A delicious luncheon was served and the bride-elect received many gifts. The guests were Misses Elsie and Bertha Weikert, Hilda Herman, Esther Fritz, Edna Seivers, Hazel Gooley, Elsie Krantz, Edith Shiffer, another bride of Wednesday, and Mrs. Joe Emerich and Mrs. Karl Granneman.

BURLAGE-DIETRICH

The wedding of Miss Solina E. Dietrich, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Dietrich, and Mr. Carl J. Burlage, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Burlage took place on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Mary's church. Mgr. J. H. Oechtering officiated at the nuptial mass and marriage ceremony. The church was decorated with palms and the altar with white carnations. Miss Catherine Burlage, a sister to the groom, was honor maid and other bridesmaids were Misses Gladys Neireiter, of this city and Grace Cantile, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Mr. Jerome Lauer was best man and Mr. William Klep was groomsman. The bridal party made an extremely pretty appearance. The bride was gowned in white crepe de meteor made with a train, and trimmed in pearl ornaments and bands. Over the gown fell the long folds of the bridal veil which was held to the bride's hair with a tiny wreath of swansonia blossoms. The bride held a bouquet of bride roses and swansonia tied with tulle. Miss Cantile was gowned in pink taffeta and net combined and she wore a crown of flowers in her hair and held pink and white roses tied with pink, while Miss Neireiter, all in green of similar materials, wore pink roses in her hair and held pink flowers tied with green tulle ribbon. The maid of honor was gowned in light blue silk marquisette and she carried a blue basket filled with marguerites and wore a crown of the daisies in her hair. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, 1108 Summit street, to about thirty people. The house and the bride's table were decorated in sweetpeas and roses with garlands of smilax. In the afternoon the bride and groom left on a trip but were keeping even the direction of their travels from their friends. After a week's absence Mr. and Mrs. Burlage will be at home at 1108 Summit street. For traveling the bride is wearing a dark blue poplin suit and white Panama hat. Mr. Burlage is assisting traffic manager at the Bowser company and is deservedly respected and popular. The bride has been showered with attention from her many friends for the past few weeks and she is admired and esteemed by all who know her. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cantile and Miss Cantile of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Fred Wagner and daughter, of Covington, Ky., were out of town guests.

Pupils Gave Good Recital.

Many relatives and friends gathered in Packard hall on Tuesday evening to hear a recital of piano pupils of Miss Edith Foster and were well repaid for their time. The entire program was characterized by a bigness and evenness of tone, by very good rhythm and correct reading and a positiveness of fingering that left no doubt as to training. The work was all from memory. Miss Helen Braun, a talented violin pupil of Mr. Nussbaum, lent variety to the program by some good playing of Thome and Beethoven numbers. Miss Braun, who is quite a young girl, plays with a very free bow and her ear seems perfect as to pitch and there is evidence of natural musical expression. Of Miss Foster's pupils one, Miss Ruth Anderson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, deserves special mention not because what she did was better than the work of the young pupils who individually did so well, but because of her talent and advancement. Miss Anderson played the Mendelssohn "capriccio brillant" concerto, first piano, with Miss Foster at the second piano, in admirable style, both as to accuracy, tempo and general spirit of interpretation. Others pupils who played beginning with the youngest were: Prelina Fletcher, Andrew Wells, Leonard Ehrman, Chester Ludwig, Frederick Ehrmann, Bernice Johnston, Jessie Parry, Mabel Bechtol.

Wagner—Frank.

A very pretty wedding of Sunday was that of Miss Anna Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mendel Frank, of 1420 Hanna street, and Mr. Harry Wagner, which was solemnized in the B'nai Brith synagogue by Rabbi Mendel Hurowitz in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Esther Frank, and by Misses Jennie Friedman, Frances Friedman and Sarah Salon. Mr. Herman Komisarow attended the groom, and Messrs. Elliot and Seymour Meyer and Alfred Zweig were ushers. The church was decorated with many garden flowers, palms and ferns. After the marriage service the bridal party and relatives and friends went to Dehm's hall where a reception was held and which had been prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride and groom have many friends in the city whom they will receive in their own home as soon as possible after they return from their wedding trip. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Wagner will be with the bride's parents.

Schroeder—Kilgore.

Miss Dorothea Kilgore and Mr. Carl L. Schroeder were married at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning in Trinity Episcopal church, Rev. E. W. Averill officiating and a few relatives and friends witnessing the ceremony. Miss Sally Cabler presided at the organ. The bride wore a blue taffeta suit with blue Bangkok Panama hat both very stylish and becoming and held a bouquet of Aaron Ward roses. The bride walked in with her father, Mr. William R. Kilgore, who gave her in marriage. Congratulations were extended to the young couple at the church and they left at once on a northern trip. After the first of August Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder will be at home at 2902 South Webster street, where they will go to housekeeping. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs William Kilgore, of West Butler street, and Mr. Schroeder is a son of Mrs. Louise Schroeder. Mr. Schroeder is a member of the Daily News staff of reporters and is very highly regarded. The bride is attractive and capable, a favorite with her many friends and an active worker in the societies of the Episcopal church.

Aiken—Wertman.

Rev. Dr. A. K. Zartman officiated at the marriage of Miss Evelyn Wertman and Mr. Clarence R. Aiken at the home of the bride at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. There were no guests. Miss Mildred Wertman was the bride's attendant. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wertman, of Columbia avenue, and with her husband will continue to make her home with her parents. Mr. Aiken, who is a mechanic in the Pennsylvania shops, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Aiken, of Lake avenue. Both young people are members of Grace Reformed church and are active in the work of the young people's societies.

Benninghoff—Shiffer.

Miss Edith E. Shiffer and Mr. William N. Benninghoff were united in marriage at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of the bride by Rev. Dr. A. K. Zartman. The bride has been a stenographer in the law offices of Heaton & Heaton for several years and is highly thought of by all who know her. Mr. Benninghoff is a mechanic employed as foreman at the Shryock Auto store. Mr and Mrs. Benninghoff will be at home with her parents at 2018 South Clinton street.

HAVE PRETTY WEDDING IN CATHEDRAL WEDNESDAY.

MR. PHILIP REILLY.

MRS. ISABEL M'DONALD REILLY.

Miss Isabel McDonald, a cousin of Miss Katherine MacDougal and Mr. C. M. MacDougal, with whom she made her home, and Mr. Philip Reilly, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reilly, of Harmer street, were married at 9 o'clock in the Cathedral on Wednesday morning. Rev. John R. Quinlan officiated at the ceremony and the nuptial mass and many friends were present. Miss Juliette Lange was bridesmaid and Mr. Byron Hayes attended Mr. Reilly. The bride made a beautiful appearance in a white georgette crepe gown, of which the only ornamentation was some exquisite hand embroidery. A veil of tulle held to the hair with a cluster of swansonia blossoms, fell only to the hem of the skirt, while the bouquet of bride roses with ribbon and swansonia blossoms forming the shower, made a finishing touch of beauty and simplicity quite befitting the youth and charm of the bride. Miss Lange wore a crown of pink taffeta and net and a large pink hat of georgette crepe and silk with pink rose trimming. The bridesmaid's bouquet was composed of snapdragon and sweet-peas, pink in color, and pink shoes and gloves were other details of a pretty costume. A feature of the service was the singing of appropriate solos by Mrs. E. H. Kirkland. The wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, the MacDougal residence in West Wayne street, to immediate family relatives. Covers were laid for twenty-two and Mrs. Schumaker catered. The house decorations were very prettily arranged by the Misses Flick in reception room and dining room of smilax about the chandeliers and Shower roses and swansonia in vases about the rooms. The sun parlor had many peonies and garden roses for decoration. The decorations at the Cathedral were hydranges plants in blossom and palms. In the afternoon the bride and groom left for Chicago and other western points. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit of garbardine, with white hat, shoes and white georgette blouse, all very becoming and in excellent taste. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Reilly will be at home for the summer at 918 Garden street, the residence of Mrs. E. H. Coombs. The groom, Mr. Reilly, is a fine young man and is employed in the Pennsylvania railroad offices. The bride came here from Glengary, near Montreal, Canada, several years ago.

Miss Gladys Becker left on Wednesday to spend the rest of the week with Miss Helen McClure in Lafayette.

The home of Miss Valette Klingmann in Lafayette street, was the scene of a pretty party on Monday evening which was given in honor of Miss Margaret Richter, of Chicago. Various games were played. Prizes were won by Ruth Brand and Edna Winsch. There was a fine supper enjoyed by everyone who took part. The guests were Margaret Richter, Ruth Brand, Virginia Draths, Edna Winsch and Marcella Ofenloch.

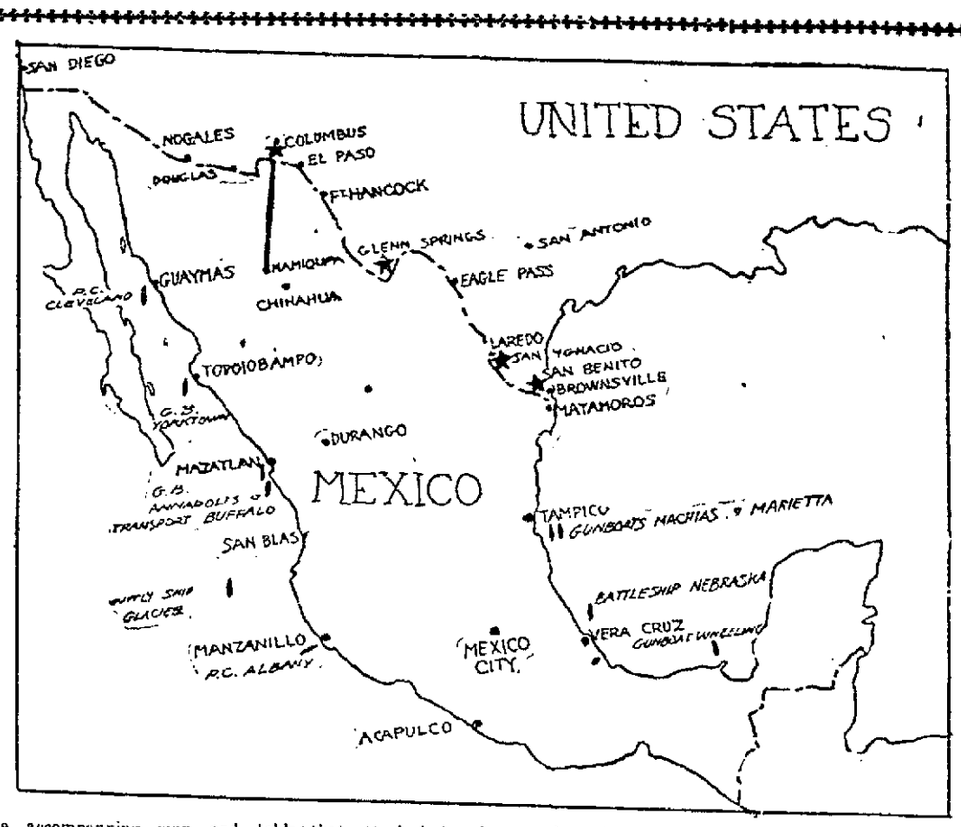
WHERE FOUR AMERICAN COLUMNS ENTERED MEXICO—HOW TROOPS ARE LINED UP FOR POSSIBLE WAR.



The accompanying map and table show the disposition of American troops along the Mexican border and in Chihuahua, the naval vessels in Mexican waters, and the points from which the four American punitive expeditions entered Mexico—Columbus, Glenn Springs, San Ygnacio and San Benito.

All these expeditions except that of Gen. Pershing, in Chihuahua, have been withdrawn, having accomplished their objects—dispersal of the bandit bands that attacked American settlements.

The battleship Nebraska is at Vera Cruz, the gunboats Machias and Marietta at Tampico, and the gunboat Wheeling at El Carmen on the Mexican east coat; on the west coast are the protected cruiser Cleveland at Guaymas, gunboat Yorktown at Topolobampa, gunboat Annapolis and transport Buffalo at Mazatlan, protected cruiser Albany at Manzanillo, and supply ship Glacier cruising between ports.

Fashions.

There are fashions in medicine as well as in millinery. The old time cathartic pills with their harsh drastic effects have gone out, and it is high time that they had. In their place we have the mild laxatives and gentle cathartics of which Chamberlain's Tablets is one of the most popular. When the proper dose is taken the effect of these tablets is so agreeable and so natural that you do not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Chamberlain's Tablets also strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Bluffton, Ind., June 21.—Mrs. John Thornburg, residing on East Cherry street, fell down a cellar stairway at her home Tuesday and suffered painful injuries. The extent of her injuries is not yet known. She complains from a severe pain in her head and her body is badly bruised. Dr. Dickason was called to care for her Tuesday afternoon, when she suffered a sinking spell.

NEXT MEETING MAY COME TO FT. WAYNE

Phi Delta Kappa Convention Gets Under Way at Lafayette.

Lafayette, Ind., June 21.—The fourteenth annual convention of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity opened here today with close to four hundred members registered. The members are here from Ohio, Indiana, Washington and Oregon.

Large delegations from Marion, Muncie and Wabash arrived here Tuesday evening and hundreds poured in over the different lines this morning.

At 10 o'clock the address of welcome was given by Mayor Bauer to the assembled members of the fraternity at the convention headquarters in the Hotel Fowler and the convention then adjourned until the business meeting, which was started at 1 o'clock.

With the opening of the first business meeting several big fights were promised by the various delegates. A fight has also been started between several cities to see which one shall have the convention next year, Fort Wayne, South Bend, Elwood and Washington, Ind., being mentioned.

A number of the candidates for national office are here at the present time and they are already starting their campaigns. Among the strongest candidates at the present time, are Russel G. Creviston, of Marion, for national president; W. C. Eidson, of Greenville, Ohio, for national secretary-treasurer, and Earl W. Hamer, of Wabash, for auditor.

This evening the convention ball will be given in the Fowler hotel and it is expected that two hundred couples will enjoy this. The convention will close on Friday evening.

An Agreeable Surprise.

There are many who have no relish for their meals and who must be very careful as to what they eat, that would be agreeably surprised if they were to take a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its duties naturally. Hundreds have testified to the great benefit they have derived from the use of these tablets. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

CLINE TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR CANAL

Representative Cyrus Cline has written to T. J. Logan, treasurer of the Erie and Michigan Deep Waterways association, relative to the report of the army engineers on the proposed Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal. Among other things Mr. Cline said:

"Every element entering into the problem has been decided in favor of building the canal except the one question, namely, the amount of commerce that would be carried on through the canal, which the board of engineers finds is not at present sufficient to warrant its construction. You are advised, of course, that the cost of constructing the canal is estimated by the board of engineers to be $148,000,000 by the northern route and $147,000,000 by the southern route. I do not give the odd figures; I am giving it to you in round numbers. I will be glad to give you any further information that you may desire."

Diarrhoea.

For this discase you will find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy unsurpassed. One or two doses of it are nearly always sufficient to check the attack. It is not disagreeable to take. This remedy contains no astringent and for that reason leaves the bowels in a natural condition. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

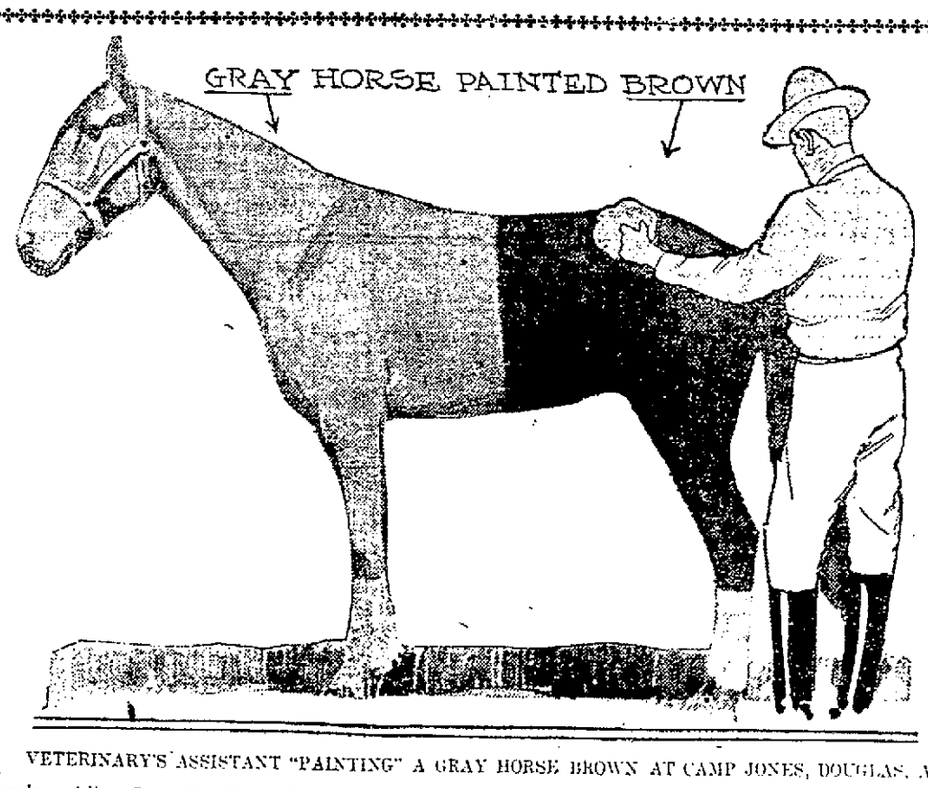
CAVALRY ON "INVISIBLE HORSES" SEEN GALLOPING ON THIN AIR IN MEXICAN DESERT.



VETERINARY'S ASSISTANT "PAINTING" A GRAY HORSE BROWN AT CAMP JONES, DOUGLAS, ARIZ.

Douglas, Adiz., June 20.—"Invisible horses" will be an adjunct of the American army if Uncle Sam fights with Mexico—or any other country.

They're making them invisible now, at Camp Jones, just east of Douglas.

Conspicuous gray horses are treated with a dye that darkens them to such a color they'd almost invisible at 300 yards or more on the desert of Arizona or Mexico.

In the low desert hills you can sometimes see a man sitting on nothing and galloping through the air. You know he's on a horse, of course—but you can't see the horse.

Veterinary Coleman Nockolds of the First cavalry, started dying horses. They were the first dyed for United States army use.

In 1905 an effort was made to introduce the system in this country, following its successful use by the British army against the Boers in South Africa. But the war department notified the veterinaries that "there are no paints on hand for this purpose" and the plan was dropped.

Nockolds and Veterinary A. L. Mason, of the Sixth field artillery, have dyed a number of mounts at Camp Jones with good results. Gray horses are colored so they can't be identified in a group of six pulling a gun.

The dye lasts until the horses begin shedding hair; then it must be renewed. But it's a simple operation, and the animal can be dyed and dried in an hour. Generally he gets a second coat, to give him a more even color.

When he's turned loose in a corral with the rest of the troop or battery mounts, the dyed horse can't be told from the others by an outsider. Some of the best looking animals in the camp are dyed.

But they have to get acquainted with the other horses all over again—for their own team mates can't recognize them.

Nockolds dyed a white mare used as a leader for some artillery mules. When the mare came back the mules wouldn't follow her.

Once in the Philippines an experiment was made in dying horses. It failed there, but afterward they discovered that in the Philippine climate it would have been necessary to bleach the horses before dying them.

Vacant Rooms? Don't Worry

If you have not found a tenant for your room, there's no use despairing and "publishing" the fact all over in scare headlines.

"There are just as good tenants in the city as ever been gotten."

The best way to reach them is to place your "For Rent" ad. in the paper that the tenants read. In Fort Wayne nearly everyone takes The Sentinel and reads Sentinel want ads.

CLEARY UNCOVERS A STAR PITCHER

Freese is Hurling Fine Ball for Cleary's Crows.

When the Crows stack up against the fast Payne bunch here Sunday the fans will not only have an opportunity to see a good ball game but will have a chance to see young Freese, Cleary's new find, in action. This youngster has the best of them baffled around here and seems to be started for something bigger. Herbert Heine will form the receiving end of the firing line and Cleary thinks with this battery he will be able to take a win home with him. Payne believes in preparedness, too, for they have signed Andy Ware, of the Kitty league, to play with them Sunday. Sunday will be ladies' day, and all are invited to attend. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

GIANT STAR PITCHES FOR HIS HEALTH

Anderson Studied Dentistry Until Health Failed, Now Pitches Ball

Fred Anderson, star of the Giants' curving corps, is one hurler who may truthfully be said to be pitching for his health, though of course he also draws down some cash stipend for his services.

Several years ago while pitching for the Boston Red Sox Anderson was studying dentistry on the side. Finally he decided to give up baseball and follow his other profession. He bought out the practice of an old tooth carpenter down in Georgia and hit 1.000 in the prosperity league.

Finally his health broke under the strain. A physician advised him to take a long rest and be outdoors as much as possible. The Federals, just starting up, offered an opportunity and Anderson grabbed it, signing with Buffalo. He soon regained his health and last year was regarded by many as the best heaver in the now defunct organization.

McGraw heard of Anderson's prowess and when the Feds blew the Giant boss bought him.

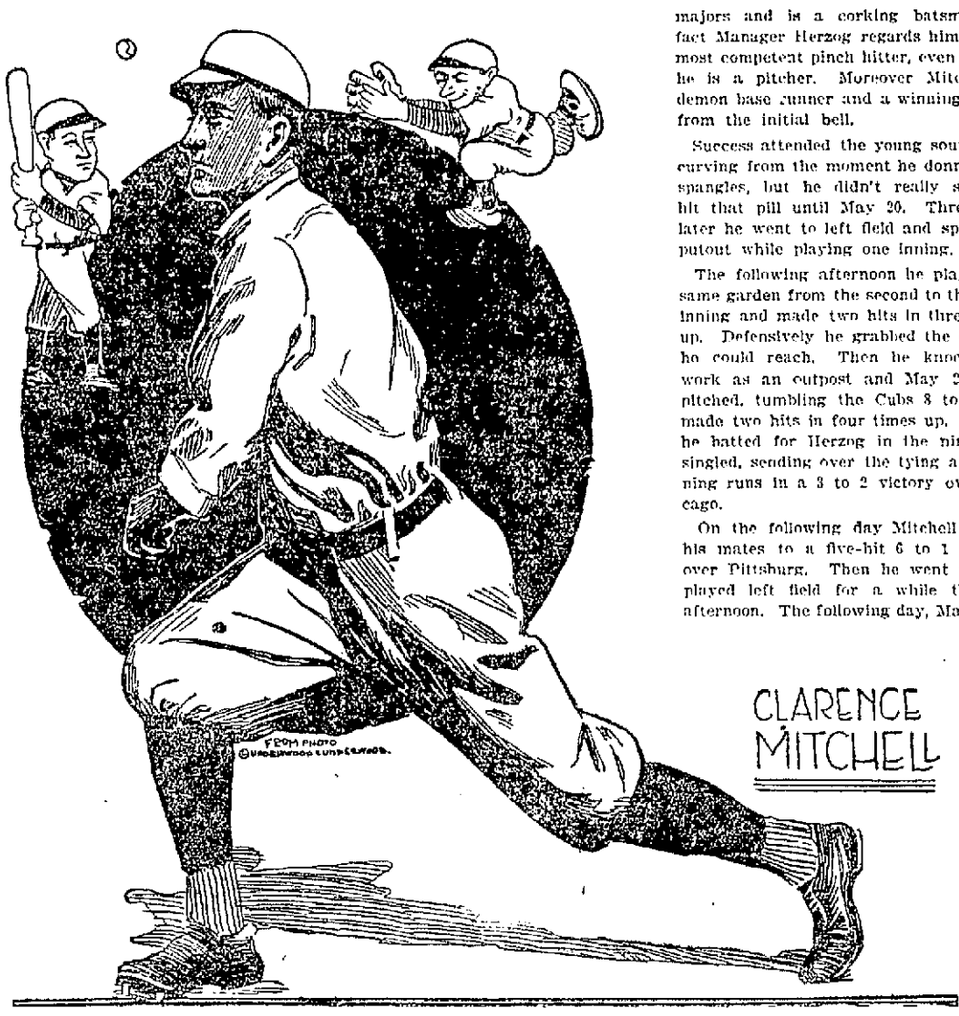
STAR OF RED'S PITCHING STAFF BATS DIZZY CLIP IN THE PINCHES



(By Harold Johnson.)

By trade he's a pitcher, a left-hander and hence a suspicious character, according to the unwritten laws of the baseball. But Clarence Mitchell, of the Cincinnati Reds slab staff, is "right" mentally, morally, physically and every other way.

That is why the Nebraskan is Redland's diamond idol and John McGraw's Giants have a wholesome respect for "Mitch" ever since he tamed them 6 to 4 in thirteen rounds. But when you say Mitchell is a darn good pitcher you haven't begun to tell it all. He's an all-around ballplayer.

He can hold down an outfield berth as good as most of the men playing it in the majors and is a corking batsman. In fact Manager Herzog regards him as his most competent pinch hitter, even though he is a pitcher. Moreover Mitch is a demon base runner and a winning player from the initial bell.

Success attended the young southpaw's curving from the moment he donned Red spangles, but he didn't really start to hit that pill until May 20. Three days later he went to left field and speared a putout while playing one inning.

The following afternoon he played the same garden from the second to the ninth inning and made two hits in three times up. Defensively he grabbed the only fly he could reach. Then he knocked off work as an outpost and May 25 again pitched, tumbling the Cubs 8 to 4. He made two hits in four times up. May 28 he batted for Herzog in the ninth and singled, sending over the tying and winning runs in a 3 to 2 victory over Chicago.

On the following day Mitchell pitched his mates to a five-hit 6 to 1 triumph over Pittsburg. Then he went out and played left field for a while the next afternoon. The following day, May 30, he ran for Clark in the sixteenth inning and scored a run.

Mitchell's best feat was performed June 2 at New York, when his drive started the rally that won for the Reds in thirteen innings, 6 to 4. Not a pass did he issue, and three whiffed.

Since that battle the former Denverite has been going like a streak.

DODGERS FACE 16 DOUBLE-HEADERS

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 21—Brooklyn fans will soon see a lot of their diamond idols at bargain prices. The copious rainfall this spring has been good for the crops but not for Col. Ebbets' club, and as the result sixteen double-headers have been piled up. Ten of these matinees will be staged at home. If the Dodgers' curving corps can stand up under the strain, Brooklyn must be reckoned with in the final rounds.

SPORT DOPE

Louisville dropped four games to Minneapolis in two days and are in fourth place.

Connie Mack released Infielder Malone and Outfielder Stellbauer.

The Phillies are following the footsteps of the Braves as in the spring of 1915. Moran's men closed the first month of the present season in the second division.

Spike Kelly and Mike O'Dowd will tango ten rounds at St. Paul July 10.

Ever Hammer will meet Johnny Dundee on July 4. He is starting training for the grind at Chicago.

If Jess Willard eats, drinks and wears half the things he has indorsed it's no wonder he's in a circus.

The Cardinals have signed a rook pitcher entitled "Mule" Watson. "Mule" is a promising young pitcher, barring a slight tendency to balk.

"Keen interest in chess match," reads headline. They say the same thing about roque, but nobody believes it, either.

It takes a lot of sacrifice to advance you in life's league.

Honus Wagner tried to steal home the other day. The old boy must be taking himself seriously. Next we'll hear of Larry Lajoie stretching singles into doubles.

Baseball is a killing sport in Cleveland. A fan dropped dead there the other day and the coroner decided he died a natural death.

INSURE WRESTLING BOUT.

Omaha, Neb., June 21.—Lloyd's of London have written a policy insuring the wrestling bout between Joe Stecher and Ed ("Strangler") Lewis, scheduled for July 4, against interference by rain. The match is to be held at the Douglas county fair grounds in the open air. The policy calls for the payment of $35,000 to Gene Melady, the promoter, should inclement weather prevent the bout.

SWAIN'S HORSE MADE HIM HAPPY TUESDAY

The Fort Wayne Amateur Driving club ran off their program Tuesday with George Swain the proud possessor of the winner, Georgene Swain. He has a smile for everybody today for his mind is filled with visions of his horse crossing the wire of a big derby. There were three races on the card and a fairly large crowd was present to see the races. The first place in the 2:25 pace went to Pete Craig, with Sam Kerr up. Lady Ashwood, driven by Ross Elston, won the 2:25 trot in straight heats. The Swain colt likewise won in straight heats. The results are as follows:

2:20 PACE.

Pete Craig (Kerr)	1	1
Rossie King (McLaughlin)	2	3
Ebony King (Bogash)	3	2

Time—1:11½; 1:09¾. Half mile heats.

STUDENTS MUST BE TRACK MEN.

Cleveland, O., June 21.—Every student at Case School of Applied Science is to be a track athlete, according to plans announced by Pat Pasini, physical director. Mr. Pasini is working out a schedule calculated to show what must be expected of each athlete in jumping, running and feats of strength. Indoor work is to be reduced to a minimum and the boys will be started on outdoor work when they report next fall. "It's part of our preparedness plan of training the bodies as well as the minds," said Mr. Pasini.

ILLINOIS HAS SCHOOL FOR COACHES.

Urbana, Ill., June 21.—Want a job as athletic coach? If so beat it to Urbana and enroll in the school for athletic coaches just opened on a six weeks' run at the University of Illinois. Last year 195 persons were tutored by the Illini coaching staff and the registration this season has exceeded that number.

The school for coaches is a regular part of the annual summer session of the university and its presence on the curriculum demonstrates that the old days when the professional coach was looked on with disfavor by faculties have practically vanished.

George Huff, director of athletics, and famous baseball coach, is the originator of the school and is in charge of it with Coaches Zuppke, Jones and Gill as assistants. Huff reports that there is a constant and increasing demand for competent men to direct athletics and to coach teams and the state university is often asked to recommend men capable of filling such positions.

GROH'S TRICK POISE BAFFLES BATTERS

Cincinnati, O., June 21.—Just as a good pitching "move" baffles a base runner, so does a good batting poise fool a slabman. Heine Groh, of the Cincinnati Reds, is one big leaguer who has a trick batting style all his own.

Other majors face either toward first or third base, according to whether they are left o rright-handed hitters, watching the pitcher with the optic nearest the hurler. Groh, however, stands squarely facing the pitcher, his back toward the grandstand. Heinie stands that way until the pitcher has completed his windup.

Then, as the arm swings, Heinie, who is a right-handed batter, wheels into the same position other batters assume at the start. Occasionally the Red third sacker varies his tactics by jumping around before the delivery.

MORE MACHINES ARE NEEDED FOR PARADE

Success of Thursday's Parade Dependent on More Autos.

Five hundred automobiles are needed to carry the 2,500 children who will participate in the city's health and beautification parade, and Mrs. Josephine L. Nesbitt, promotor of the pageant, said Wednesday, that there was an extreme scarcity of cars threatening the success of Thursday's parade. Children, desirous of entering the parade are now being turned down in view of the lack of automobiles in which to transport them. "The number of children in the parade will be determined absolutely by the number of automobiles secured," today declared Mrs. Nesbitt. Provision for not to exceed 2,500 children had been made late this afternoon.

The Real Estate exchange is co-operating with Charles Biederwolf, of the Commercial club, and an effort is being made today to obtain every available automobile in the city. Mr. Biederwolf has directed the solicitation of 2,000 persons for their cars, and the task has been a big one. The Emanuel, St. John's and St. Paul's parochial schools will take part in the parade, according to notification received by Mrs. Nesbitt.

The parade will start at 1:30 o'clock, forming on West Wayne street, near the public library. After a ride of an hour over the city, the children will be taken to the Majestic theater, that they may see the pictures showing points of civic interest over the country as portrayed in motion pictures. These pictures will be inclusive of Fort Wayne scenes and the entertainment promises to be interesting as well as instructive.

At each important turn in the parade police will be stationed, assuring adequate protection to children. The parade promises to mark a new era in civic betterment for the city of Fort Wayne and especially will it implant in the minds of the children their duty of future years, the promoters declare.

Tractor Tryout Big Success

Mayor William J. Hosey is immensely pleased with the test of the new tractor used on a fire truck at Engine House No. 1. The tractor was taken to the hill at New Haven Tuesday and it negotiated the climb in easy fashion. It carried members of the board of safety, board of works, and several members of the city council.

One test of the tractor was to raise the ladders to the roof tops of several buildings to see if the tractor base would bear the weight of five or six firemen at one time. This test was satisfactory. The three pieces of the tractor cost approximately $14,000. It will make a big hole in the expense of mintaining a hose wagon drawn by horses, it is claimed.

Pythians Offer Services.

Col. Frank Shellhouse, commanding the First regiment Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias of Indiana, and Gen. W. B. Gray, commander of the Uniform Rank in Indiana, have offered their services to Gov. S. M. Ralston in case volunteers are called for, Col. Shellhouse said today. He said a number of members of his regiment had talked to him in regard to service in Mexico and added that he would recruit a Pythian regiment if the president called for volunteers.

The colonel said he had not yet taken the matter up with Maj. Gen. William Howe Loomis, national commander of the Uniform Rank, at Grand Rapids, Mich.

May Have Indiana Brigade.

Gov. Ralston, General Bridges and other national guard officers today considered the organization of an infantry brigade in the state's organized militia, which is the quota prescribed by the war department. To accomplish this it will be necessary to recruit three new companies; to bring to acceptable efficiency four companies recently placed on probation and to keep all other companies of infantry up to the minimum requirements of the war departments.

It is believed the three additional companies needed to fill in the gaps in the second infantry and the proposed new regiment will be obtained. As soon as such companies are mustered in and thereby are accepted by the war department, the state will be entitled to a brigade commander and it probably would devolve on Governor Ralston, as commander-in-chief of the guard, to recommend such an officer.

Gen. Bridges said he was telling persons who seek to organize companies throughout the state that all will be welcome.

ON WAY TO SPRINGFIELD

First Illinois Cavalry Ready to Go Straight Through, If Needed.

Chicago, June 21—After spending the night on the train to which they marched at midnight in a heavy rain, the First cavalry Illinois national guard under command of Col. Milton J. Foreman, are on the way today to Springfield, where they will go into camp to await further orders from the war department. This regiment was the first of Illinois contingent of guardsmen called for service on the Mexican border to start for the mobilization camp, but it will be followed today and tomorrow by other troops until the entire Illinois guard with the exception of the fifth and sixth regiments are encamped at the state capital.

In the meantime it was announced, recruiting will go forward in an effort to place the other regiments somewhere near war strength.

While Col. Foreman's orders called for mobilization at Springfield only it is said the regiment is equipped to go straight through to the border if it is found necessary.

As a result of the sudden call to arms, an even dozen weddings occurred yesterday among the guardsmen. The weddings had all been set for a later date, but on account of the departure of the guardsmen today it was decided to have them solemnized at once.

Many employers announced today their intention of continuing guardsmen on the payroll at full salary; some stated they would pay present salaries less the amount received from the government while others said they would make ample provision for all employes who go to the front.

PERSHING SENDS TROOPS EASTWARD

Gen. Murgia, a Carranza commander, arrived at Piedras Negras, the Mexican town opposite here, today, with a detachment of 2,000 Yaquis, reinforcing the garrison there. A large part of the civilian population of Piedras Negras has already moved south.

MEXICANS MAKE AMMUNITION.

Laredo, Texas, June 21.—Approximately 17,000,000 rounds of ammunition has been taken in charge by Carranza authorities throughout Mexico, and the government factory is working twenty-four hours daily to augment this supply, according to an American refugee from Mexico City, arriving here today. The output of the government factory is approximately 30,000 rounds of cartridges daily, he said.

TROOPS FOR OJINAGA.

Presidio, Texas, June 21.—Six hundred Carranza soldiers were reported today due to arrive at Ojinaga opposite here, tomorrow with another detachment following. This report, coupled with statements brought to the American side that Col. Riojas, the Ojinaga commander, had been instructed to prepare for war with the United States created great excitement here by army officials quelled the alarm.

GERMANS ARE BEATEN BACK

rear guard closely engaging them, the Russians have crossed the river Sereth, the Austro-Hungarian war office announced in its report of June 20.

In the district of Lokatchi, southeast of Vladimir-Volynski the capture of 1,300 Russians, one cannon and three machine guns is reported.

Russian forces which crossed the Styr river west of Kolki were driven back by a counter attack, the official statement of the war office today announces. Northwest of Lutsk the Russians strongly resisted the German advances.

NOTED GERMAN AIRMAN KILLED.

London, June 21.—Lieut. Immelmann, the famous German aviator, is reported to have been killed.

Lieut. Immelmann had destroyed more aeroplanes of the entente allies in aerial battles than any other German aviator except Captain Boelke, who was reported to have been killed last week in an aerial combat with Roger Ribiere, a French aviator.

According to the German army headquarters report, Immelmann, up to May of this year, had accounted for fifteen hostile aeroplanes, while Captain Boelke was officially credited with bringing down eighteen. Immelmann, in March last, was awarded the decoration of Pour le Merite for his achievements. Immelmann's method in vanquishing his foes had been described as simple, but effective. He usually mounted to a great height and when he observed a hostile aeroplane beneath him would swoop in one long straight dive. His plan was to pass in a rapid diagonal, just behind his antagonist, firing continuously as soon as he came within range. If his machine gun failed to bring down his adversary he would make no effort to pursue the aeroplane, but would continue his dive until it brought him into the German lines.

is not a sufficient amount on hands to defray the expenses much longer. The government is furnishing only a part of the rations, but the company must provide its own money to buy eggs, milk and other articles of food. The soldiers are being fed in the dining room of the old Hotel Edwin, on West Main street.

An effort is being made to induce the employers of members of the militia to grant them leaves of absence and allow them full pay for the time they are away. Announcement was made Tuesday by S. E. Mulholland, vice president of the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company, that he had received word from President C. H. Geist, stating that all employes of the gas company who are members of militia, would receive their pay in full during the time they are in the service of the government.

Word was also received Wednesday by J. R. Mitchel, local manager of the Washburn-Crosby company, that his company would pay all employes who belong to the National Guard, during their absence.

It was planned by Captain Miller that the entire company would march to the range north of the city Wednesday morning, where camp would be pitched. Because of the rain Tuesday night, this plan had to be abandoned. The march to the range will probably be made Thursday morning, where the men will be given lessons in shooting and drilling. Each man will be expected to cook his own meal.

Pleased With the Cook

The men as a whole are very much pleased with the company cook, Sam Taylor, who, up to this time, has never had an opportunity of demonstrating his ability as a kitchen mechanic. The Hotel Edwin has become a popular place for the boys.

Two members of the company who accompanied a young man to his home Tuesday afternoon after he had enlisted for service, state that they are willing to obey all orders from the officers, but that they are determined that never again will they accompany another new recruit to his home to break the news of his enlistment. They state that they accompanied the young man to the door of his residence, where they were met by the mother, who let out a scream that could have been heard for blocks away. The outburst continued for some time.

The contemplated war with Mexico has hit the Fort Wayne newspapers hard. Two of the collectors on the Journal-Gazette are members of Company E and have been compelled to quit; a stereotyper on the News is a member, as is also Ernest F. Fruechte, of the editorial department of the Sentinel. Besides Mr. Fruechte, Karl Detzer, Sentinel staff photographer, has enlisted as color sergeant and secretary to the colonel in the national reserves of Indiana. He passed the examination at Muncie Tuesday, and was ordered to report at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Wednesday night.

In Service Again.

Those who have already seen service in the Spanish-American war or in the insurrection in the Philippines and who have enlisted in Company E, are the following: Sylvester Yaiana, troop H, Sixth United States cavalry, served three years; Edgar W. Taylor, troop E, Eighth United States cavalry; Walter McDonald, who served four years in the navy and made a trip around the world as a fireman on the steamship Louisiana; William Schwartz, who served four years in the navy; James Clark, 159th coast artillery; Quartermaster Sergeant Bartel, Company G, 157th Indiana; George W. Sanderson, battery D, Fourth United States field artillery.

The New Recruits.

Among the new recruits in Company E since the last report were: Norbert Ladig, New Haven; Leslie M. Wolf, 1626 East Wayne street; Vernon Botts, 214 First street; Fred H. Shaw, Columbia City.

CLOSING EVENTS OF SCHOOL.

Just as the beautiful commencement exercises held last Friday evening closed the scholastic work of the academic students of 1916, so also did the brilliant affair given by the graduates of St. Catherine's academy in the Lyceum, partly draw to a close the social activities of the graduates. The auditorium was prettily decorated by the hostesses with palms and ferns and daisies, the class flowers, were prettily banked upon the stage and in boxes. A most refreshing punch was served by four of the undergraduates, who were Velma Noll, Genevieve Sullivan, Catherine Carroll and Charlotte McConnell. Music by the Franklin orchestra added zest and pleasure to the guests. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Conway, Mr. and Mrs. A. Moran and Mr. and Mrs. L. Swartz.

Attorney Jesse Macbeth returned this morning from a trip to Toledo and Norwalk, O., on legal business.

SEEKS WILSON VIEW ON SUFFRAGE PLANK

Washington, Jun 21—An interpretation of the uffrage plank of the democratic platform was sought from President Wilson today by Mrs. D. E. Hooker of Richmond, Va., acting as spokesman for the Congression union for women suffrage and the Virginia state federation of labor. She left the white house with the report that the president stated he plank means the question hould be decided by the states, not by federal action and still held to his refusal to urge the passage of the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment to the constitution.

The president said that he hoped the democrats in writing the plank would not be accused of "hincerity and bunko," said Mrs. Hooker. "He also said he hoped the plank meant what it said."

that Gen. Alvardo had declared war against the United States.

Another message from Mr. Rodgers said a train leaving Mexico City yesterday carried a special car with thirty American citizens, mostly women. The refugees should be in Vera Cruz by today unless the car has been detained.

Marching Orders Held Up

Marching orders for national guard organizations summoned to the colors under President Wilson's call are still held up at the war department pending completion of the mobilization of the troops at state camps. Just as soon as a sufficient number of the guardsmen have been mobilized, the war department will act on Gen. Funston's report of yesterday stating the number of units he desired and to what points he wished them forwarded.

Only preliminary reports on the progress of the mobilization in various states had reached the war department today. These were viewed as satisfactory. Secretary Baker said the suggestion that the senior class at West Point Military academy be graduated immediately for active service was under consideration but that no decision had been reached.

The cadets have completed three years of their work and could be commissioned as second lieutenants immediately if the emergency warrants such steps. The department had no additional advices from Gen. Funston regarding the movement of Carranza troops near the border or in the vicinity of Gen. Pershing's column in Mexico.

ORDERS CHARGES DROPPED

Washington, June 21.—Chief Bielaski, of the department of justice's bureau of investigation today telegraphed his El Paso agent to drop charges against Frederick Griese, a German banker of Mexico City, detained there yesterday for alleged attempts to violate American neutrality. Investigation convinced officials here there had been no violations.

DEPENDENT WOMAN WANTS REALTY SOLD

Says Husband Deserted With Part Title to the Property.

Support in the sum of $800 and the sale of real estate by a commissioner is asked in the suit filed in the superior court Wednesday by Mary E. Smith against Herman Smith, the action growing out of the acquisition of land by the plaintiff and her husband from the estate of her father, William Arealbold, and in which Smith is alleged to have an interest. The defendant, it is charged, has deserted the plaintiff and she now has no means of support.

Mrs. Smith got $2,000 from her father's estate and she bought realty worth $4,200, it is alleged, on which a mortgage of $3,100 was placed in favor of J. E. Knough. The title of the land is in the name of Herman Smith and his wife, but Smith deserted on March 3, 1916. Mrs. Smith says she must undergo an operation and in addition to money needed for the expense she has none with which to pay taxes, the papers say.

County Farm Supplies.

Contracts for furnishing county farm supplies have been let for the three months by the county commissioners. The successful bidders were: Grocers, George Herrmann, Coverdale & Archer, I. Freiburger & Co., Union Co-Operative store and White Fruit House. Dry Goods, Wolf & Dessauer and William Hahn & Co. Coal, United States Coal company.

Davis Found Guilty

A jury in circuit court Tuesday convicted Edward Davis of a criminal assault on Vairn Fleet, sentencing him to serve 2 to 21 years in the state reformatory. Jeff Davis, so-called "king of the hoboes," is reported to have made an appeal for clemency for his brother to President Wilson. Davis also went before the jury Tuesday by permission of Special Judge David E. Smith and addressed the jury in behalf of the defendant. But the fact that Jeff Davis, as he said, had spent his life reforming hoboes, did not prove to the jury that the defendant should be freed of the charge against the girl.

Davis came to Fort Wayne some time ago representing the Manhattan Garment company, but he was later arrested charged with operating a lottery. In a court of the justice the case was thrown out and Davis then filed suit for $10,000 damages against the Retail Merchant's association. The case was dismissed after Davis was arrested for criminal assault. Davis has a wife and child living in Cincinnati.

Divorce Is Asked.

Alleging that her husband beat her with a cane and abandoned her six months before their child was born, Theresa Wilkinson Wednesday filed suit in the circuit court against James F. Wilkinson asking a divorce, custody of the child, Edward Joseph, and alimony of $1,000. Wilkinson, according to the complaint, owns 40 acres of land in Glendale Acres worth $1,500. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson were married Nov. 10, 1904, and separated June 10, 1916. His first abandonment came in 1905 and lasted for seven years. The plaintiff also seeks a restraining order preventing Wilkinson from disposing of his property pending hearing of the case. The law firm of Breen & Morris represent the plaintiff.

Superior Court Rulings.

In superior court Wednesday Anna Sperando was granted a divorce from Leonard Sperando and the restoration of her maiden name.

Fay Luloy, who was suing William H. and C. W. Scherer with C. A. Bachelor, alleging the defendants sold her a worn out automobile. A jury in superior court gave the plaintiff judgment May 24 last in a verdict returned.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sought.

The sum of $500 is involved in a suit to foreclose mortgage filed Wednesday in circuit court by the state on relation of Will Johnson against Myrtle May Long and William H. Long. Barrett, Morris & Hoffman are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Notes of the Courts.

Everyone is requested to be present as the talk will be instructive as well as interesting.

PRESIDENT REVIEWS MOBILIZED MILITIA

Sees National Guard on Its Way to Camp Across Potomac.

Washington, June 21—President Wilson got his first view today of militia mobilization for Mexican border service. Standing on the curb of Penna avenue in front of the white house with Secretary Baker and Colonel Harts, his military aide, he reviewed the District of Columbia national guard, as it marched by on the way to its camp across the Potomac river at Fort Myer.

"They are mighty nice looking boys," the president remarked to Secrtarye Baker. Mr. Wilson wore a straw hat and stood without an umbrella in a drizzling rain. He manifested special interest in the signal corps and a battalion of negro militia. Secretary Baker recognized one of his messengers who is a captain. The president doffed his hat in saluting Gen. W. E. Harvey of the district guardsmen and also when color bearers passed by with flag flying.

YERGENS IS NAMED BUSINESS AGENT

At a meeting of Friendship lodge No. 70, of machinists, Monday evening, Ed Yergens, of the Bowser plant, was elected business agent to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Clayton H. Johnson, who has gone to Brush, Colorado, to accept a more lucrative position. William Frohmuth had been acting as temporary business agent until Mr. Johnson's successor could be named.

SEELBERG'S STOCK-SHIFTING SALE

126 E. BERRY ST. FT. WAYNE

A Real Reason for An Authentic Sale Sacrifice

Beginning Thursday Morning at 9 o'Clock Sharp

We have rented the two upper floors of our building to a prominent manufacturing concern of this city. Possession will be given July First. All our mammoth stock of Ready-to-Wear on these two floors must be moved. We haven't room to place it and must therefore sacrifice it and take our loss which is your gain.

We know the only way to do this is by cutting the prices down to cost and less, so that every garment is priced at below its real value and away from any attempt to equal in bargain giving. Nothing has been excepted; everything has been slashed to the last possibility to make these sensational offers.

OCCUPANTS JUMP TO SAFETY.

When a Pennsylvania Freight Engine Demolishes Auto.

Two men whose names could not be learned had a narrow escape from death at the Pierce crossing of the Pennsylvania road near Wheeler at 8:30 o'clock last night. The machine apparently stalled on the tracks as high class freight train No. 9242 was approaching and realizing their perilous position, the occupants jumped out of the auto just before it was rendered into scrap. The train was in charge of Conductor E. L. Carter and Engineer G. Keintz and was moving along at a good speed when it struck the automobile. The accident is said to have been no fault of the train crew.

ENGINE DREW ATTENTION.

A mammoth Santa Fe oil burning engine, No. 3157, just out of the Baldwin Locomotive works, which was cut out to be weighed and receive some slight repairs at the Pennsylvania round house, is one of the most modern locomotives of the day and attracted a great deal of attention from the round house men and others who happened in that vicinity this morning. This engine is an oil-burner superheater and is equipped with electric headlights and other modern improvements. The Santa Fe is receiving a number of these engines from the builders at present. They are delivered to that line at some point in Texas.

PLANS BIG JOURNEY

T. A. G. Stonebrook, assistant foreman at the Pennsylvania down town paint shop, will enter upon a two or three weeks' vacation tomorrow. He has arranged for an extensive western trip and tomorrow, with Mrs. Stonebrook and daughter, Miss Iva George, will leave for St. Paul, where they will stop a few days and then go on to the Pacific coast. En rote home they will stop at Cutbank, Mont., where Mrs. Stonebrook's sister, Mrs. Jack Britton, resides. Mr. Britton is general foreman of the Great Northern shops at Cutbank.

SOME FISH, THAT.

Cashier C. M. Jones, of the Pennsylvania, this morning received from Sitka, Alaska, a twenty-five pound king salmon. It was sent by C. G. Limecooly, formerly of this city and at one time employed by the Pennsylvania company. He is now purser on the steamship Northland, of the Border Line Transportation company, with headquarters at Seattle, Wash.

TONY KLOTZ PROMOTED.

Succeeds Shaub as Cashier at Wabash Freight Office.

L. Y. Shaub, cashier at the Wabash freight office, who is a member of the national guard, took an indefinite leave of absence today because the company will soon leave for Mexico. Anthony Klotz, abstract clerk at the office, has been promoted to take the place of Mr. Shaub at the cashier's desk and F. G. Cohen has been employed as abstract clerk.

OFFICIAL RELIEF ELECTION REPORT.

I. Fred Walters, member of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association for the third electoral divison, which includes the Western and the Chicago Terminal divisions, this morning received the official bulletin of the result of the election. Mr. Walters came second in the number of votes received. The highest was received by Howard C. Hartman, of the Cincinnati division, he getting 3,650 votes. Mr. Walters received 3,300 votes out of 5,001. The total vote of Mr. Hartman's division was 6,541.

OUT INSPECTING LINE.

Supt. W. F. Watterson, of the Fort Wayne division of the Nickel Plate, made an inspection trip over the division on a special train today, leaving the city for Bellevue at 7:30 o'clock. With Supt. Watterson were Trainmaster E. S. Kirby, Chief Dispatcher James T. Callahan and some others connected with the superintendent's office.

STARTS VACATION PERIOD

The vacation season for employes at the Pennsylvania round house commences next Monday, and W. J. Feary, foreman of the boiler department, will have the distinction of being the first to take advantage of it. Mr. and Mrs. Feary will leave for Michigan early in the week to spend two weeks with relatives and friends.

FINGER BADLY CUT.

While operating a saw at the General Electric works yesterday, O. Roe allowed the index finger of his right hand to get against the blade and a ragged wound across the back of the digit was the result. The accident will keep Mr. Roe from work for a few days.

FOLSOM TO SPEAK AT BOWSERS.

Rev. A. J. Folsom will give another of his talks on "What We Owe the Boy," before the Bowser employes tomorrow, Thursday, at 1 o'clock, and Mr. Loren Jones, with his wife, will lead the singing. Mr. Bowser says: "As usual, the public is invited and will find the entrance to the meeting on the west side of the shop."

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

A. F. Klein and F. X. Miller, Pennsylvania blacksmiths, are sick and off duty.

Robert Murphy, of the Pennsylvania tool room, is off duty on account of the wedding of his sister.

The Social Aid to the Loyal Lodge, No. 85, L. A. to B. of R. T., will meet at the home of Mrs. Hays, 135 Brackenridge street, on Thursday afternoon. The Mesdames Potts, Kay, Banks and Walker will assist the hostess.

Mrs. William Darman, wife of the Pennsylvania boilermaker, and her baby daughter are doing well at St. Joseph hospital, and will soon leave for the family home. The baby is now four days old.

William C. Doehrman, Pennsylvania machinist, who had a portion of his finger taken off recently, has applied for a pass to Detroit, where he will spend some time in company with his wife.

Mrs. Schmidt, wife of Chief Clerk Charles Schmidt, of the office of Assistant General Foreman M. W. Kemp, of the Pennsylvania car shops, is quite sick and Mr. Schmidt is off duty on account of her condition.

L. J. Freiberger, store room keeper at the Pennsylvania pipe and tin shop, and R. Schwartz, fluewelder at the shops, have resigned. The latter will take employment at the General Electric works. He was employed at the Pennsylvania shops four years.

While chipping a piece of steel with an air operated chisel yesterday, Boilermaker R. Forst, of the Pennsylvania, had one of his cheeks painfully cut by a piece of the metal flying out and lodging in the flesh. He was attended by Dr. Van Sweringen.

Chief Clerk Harry Holliday, of Trainmaster R. E. Casey's office, at the G. R. & I., who is out on a vacation, will return tomorrow and the following day Gene Hoffman, of the same office, will enter upon his vacation. He is entitled to two weeks, but will take only half of it at present, reserving the other part for the fall.

Frank E. More, assistant road foreman of engines of the Pennsylvania, who was operated upon for abdominal troubles in the Reed hospital at Cincinnati two or three weeks ago, will be coming home soon. As stated by the Sentinel a few dags ago, Mr. More has left the hospital and is now in the recuperating home, rapidly improving and able to walk about.

Fo ran hour Sunday afternoon the relatives and friends of Brakeman O. H. Baas, of Bellevue, mourned because of the report that he had been killed at Leipsic Junction, on the Nickel Plate. The news was carried to Bellevue over the Western Union lines, but when the Nickel Plate telegraph department got on "the trail," it was soon discovered that Mr. Haas was alive and in his usual health. Two hours later he walked into his home at Bellevue.

A. M. Tower, jr., son of Machinist A. M. Tower, of the Pennsylvania shops, has changed his plans for the summer vacation term. Arrangements had been made for him to work in the Pennsylvania power plant, but arrangements were made later for him to spend the summer in the mines in Arizona, studying transmission systems. He will leave in a few days for Chloride, Arizona, to take up his studies. The young man is a student of the Illinois university.

'Squire A. C. Nierman, who has been critically ill for several weeks, was able to be downtown Wednesday.

Wayne Knitting Mills Fittingly Observes Its Anniversary—Born in 1891.

The annual inventory dinner given by President T. F. Thieme, of the Wayne Knitting Mills to the board of directors, officers and some guests last night marked the rounding out of twenty-five years of the existence of the company. The dinner followed the annual meeting of the stockholders at which the usual 10 per cent dividend was declared and the old board of directors was elected as follows: Theodore F. Thieme, W. F. Mossman, John A. Thieme, Fred J. Thieme, Edward Helmcke, S. M. Foster, H. J. Miller, William H. Dreier, Louis Fox and William A. Spies. The officers elected were: Theodore F. Thieme, president; W. E. Mossman, vice-president; John A. Thieme, assistant manager; Fred J. Thieme, secretary; Edward Helmcke, treasurer; S. M. Foster, chairman of the board of directors.

The banquet was held in the Wayneknit club, which was handsomely and appropriately decorated for the occasion and there were sixty guests, including the officers of the Wayne Knitting Mills, of the Thieme Brothers company and the merchants who handle the products of the mills. Addresses were made by T. F. Thieme, S. M. Foster, John A. Thieme, F. J. Thieme, M. Dukes and General Manager F. S. Hunting, of the General Electric company. Interspersing the speaking were some excellent musical numbers by Mrs. Edith Nickell-Bailhe, Gaston Bailhe, Ferd Urbahns and Saxonia Singing society, composed of employes at the mills, with Mrs. D. F. Urbahns presiding at the piano. An amusing feature was a three-act play depicting the various events of interest in the history of the Wayne Knitting Mills from its inception in 1891 to the present time. The early struggles of the company, with the first arrival of knitters from Germany, were graphically described, as were also the additions to the plant and business from time to time, until it has reached a prominent position in the ranks of the industrial concerns of the United States.

After a fine dinner of seven courses had been served, with Frank Gross, manager of the clubhouse, catering, the assembled company arose and sang the jubilee song to the tune of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching," William H. Shambaugh acting as toastmaster.

The annual meeting of the Thieme Brothers company was also held yesterday, at which the usual dividend was declared, and the following directors and officers were chosen: John A. Thieme, president; John G. Thieme, vice-president and manager; Fred J. Thieme, secretary; T. F. Thieme, treasurer; Samuel Foster, Edward Helmcke and Thomas O'Callahan.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire in this manner to thank our many friends, relatives, and Revs. C. H. Snashall and J. B. Bair, for the sympathy shown us and for the beautiful floral offerings, during the sickness and death of our beloved mother and grandmother.

WOMAN WANTED TO ENLIST.

The war spirit has even taken hold of the women as was evidenced Wednesday morning when a young woman called at the army recruiting station on Calhoun street, nea rthe transfer corner, and asked for the privilege of enlisting as a Red Cross nurse. She was told that she would have to get into communication with the Red Cross officials. Her name was not learned.

TRACTION COMPANY TO ERECT BRIDGE

Same Will Be Put in Position Without Interrupting Service.

A one hundred and eighty-one foot bridge over Wild Cat near Lafayette will be built and put in place by the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company without delaying a car. The same thing was accomplished some months ago by the Pennsylvania Railroad company in the placing of the new bridge at Swinney park. The Pennsylvania company's bridge, however, was not as long nor as heavy. Work on the new bridge which will cost approximately $28,000 will begin in a few days. After its completion it will be put in place between cars and everything will be so arranged that the work will require but a few minutes.

Mid-Summer Meeting

A special car from Indianapolis carrying officials of the various traction lines in Indiana will pass through Fort Wayne next Monday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock enroute to Toledo, Ohio, where they will board the steamer South America on which will be held the annual mid-summer meeting of the Central Electric Railway association. Members of the association will be taken for a three days' cruise across Lake Erie, through Lake Huron and Lake Michigan ending at Benton Harbor. Among the officials of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company who will make the trip are: Sam W. Greenland, general manager; J. Allan Greenland, general passenger and freight agent, and Arthur Reddersen, superintendent of motive power.

Traction Notes

A special car was run to Decatur Tuesday evening on account of the district meeting of the Epworth league. Sixty-five went from this city.

The Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company sold over forty tickets to Muncie, Tuesday, on account of the annual convention of the State Sunday-school association.

A large number of local golfers went to Wabash Wednesday morning to take part in the golf tournament.

The traction company will provide extra cars for the children who will participate in the civic parade, Thursday afternoon.

Superintendent Meeting

Superintendent D. O. McComb, of the Allen county schools, went to Indianapolis, Wednesday morning, to attend the state convention of county superintendents' association.

Alexander Johnson, who has many friends in Fort Wayne and was formerly superintendent of the Indiana school for feeble-minded youth, is spending a few days in Fort Wayne visiting with his children.

Local Woman Heads Degree of Honor

MRS. B. E. MELSHEIMER.

At the triennial meeting of the Indiana body of the Degree of Honor at Indianapolis Monday and Tuesday, the following officers were elected: State chief of honor, Mrs. B. E. Melsheimer, of Fort Wayne; state recorder, Mrs. Mary Kenneth, of Owensville; state lady of honor, Mrs. Gertrude Stone, of Elwood; representative of the superior lodge meeting, Mrs. Emma C. Comparet, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Mollie Sunderland, of Fort Wayne. Mrs. Frances Buell Olson, of St. Paul, national president of the Degree of Honor, who was here last week, attended the meeting at Indianapolis. Mrs. N. Conover, of Fairfield avenue, also attended it. The Fort Wayne delegation arrived home last night.

HAD RESIDED HERE HER ENTIRE LIFE

Miss Ellen McCarthy Dies at St. Joseph Hospital Tuesday Evening.

Following a serious illness of five weeks which followed a general nervous breakdown, Miss Ellen McCarthy, a life long resident of Fort Wayne, passed away at 10 o'clock Tuesday evening at St. Joseph's hospital.

The deceased was born and reared in Fort Wayne and had resided at 403 Dawson street her entire life. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McCarthy, early settlers of Fort Wayne. Miss McCarthy was well and favorably known and was admired by the people of her community for her kindness which was the predominant trait of her fine character.

The deceased was a charter member of St. Patrick's Catholic church and devotedly assisted in the furthering of religious interests. She was also a member of the Young Ladies' sodality, of the Rosary society, Sacred Heart league and St. Vincent de Paul society of the same congregation.

Surviving besides a host of friends and acquaintances she leaves three brothers, John, a retired capitalist, of Chicago; D. F. McCarthy, of Chicago, and Bart McCarthy, of Fort Wayne, and two sisters, the Misses Mary and Anna McCarthy, both of Fort Wayne.

NICKOLS

Charles Ireness Nickols, aged nineteen years and three months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ireness Nickols, four miles east of New Haven, died at St. Joseph's hospital, Wednesday morning at 4:30 o'clock. He had been a patient at the hospital for the past eighteen days and had undergone an operation for appendicitis.

The young man was born in Jefferson township and for three years was employed as a section hand on the Wabash railroad, but had been working on his father's farm since spring. He is survived by the parents, three brothers and eight sisters.

FUNERAL NOTICES

Ertel—Funeral services for Frank Ertel will be held at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning at the residence, 1618 Erie street, and at nine o'clock at St. Mary's Catholic church. The services at the house will be private. Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

Philo—Funeral services for Mrs. Ella May Philo will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the residence, 1435 Broadway. Interment at Lindenwood.

Thiele—Funeral services for H. C. Thiele will be held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, sun time, at the residence, and at 2 o'clock at St. Peter's Lutheran church at Goeglein. Interment at the church cemetery.

IN THE CHURCHES

GIRLS TO GIVE COMEDY.

Young Ladies of Catholic Benevolent Society Will Help Cathedral.

The ladies of the Catholic Benevolent association will give a college comedy entitled "A Hallowe'en Romance," on June 27, in Library hall. The play will be for the benefit of the Cathedral and the work of rehearsing is under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Stephens. The play is one long scream from the first scene until the fall of the final curtain. The cast is well chosen and under the direction of Mrs. Stephens the play should be the highest success. The cast is as follows:

Grave and reverend seniors—Agnes Brown and Lorena Brown.

Gay juniors—Ellenore Odant and Bessie Weber.

Loquacious sophomores—Miss Harkenrider and Grace Keley.

Meek freshmen—Margaret Cahill, Celia Zurbaugh.

Mischievous freshies—Margaret Fry and Mildred Ehrman.

A visitor—Alice Marie Stephens.

A peacemaker—Miss Nora Weber.

The one and only man—Miss Hilda Letz.

House-cleaning Is a Failure

Unless It Removes Germs As Well as Dirt

Scrubbing and Cleaning Floors, Etc.

Zonite will kill all germs with which it comes in contact. If every woman realized how important the use of Zonite is to the family's health, and how much sickness may be prevented in this way, she certainly would take the simple precaution of adding 1 or 2 teaspoonfuls of Zonite to each quart of cleaning water.

Disinfecting Homes

Spray or sprinkle with whisk broom a solution of Zonite over carpets, rugs, draperies, etc., especially in corners and around radiators, registers, and in closets, cupboards, etc. For this purpose use 1 part Zonite to 60 parts water, or 2 teaspoonfuls to a pint of water.

Your Refrigerator

If your refrigerator has been standing for any length of time without ice in it, don't fail to put Zonite into the water with which you wash it. This will kill all germ life and purify it, leaving it sweet and sanitary and without odor.

Zonite

The Non-Poisonous Antiseptic, Germicide, Disinfectant, and Deodorant.
Zonite has 100 vital uses in every home.
ZONITE KILLS ALL ODORS and leaves no odor of its own.

Zonite is the most economical product of its kind. Full pint, 25c; quart, 40c; gallon, $1; at all drug stores.

LENZ ARGUES FOR STRAIGHT TRAFFIC

Police Head Believes It Best on Calhoun Street in Rush Hours.

Convinced that the "straight traffic" plan is the best methods for dealing with the traffic problem on Calhoun street during the busy hours of the day and evening, Chief Charles Lenz, of the Fort Wayne police department, has issued a statement in support of his plan. The statement follows:

To the Public:

As our city is growing rapidly and unfortunately we have very narrow streets in the downtown district, and as a great many of our citizens have automobiles, the streets and cross walks in the downtown district frequently become very much congested, and for that reason it is necessary from time to time to make new traffic rules and laws in order to keep pace with the growth of the city and for the protection of all, both pedestrians and vehicles, while traveling on and through this congested district.

New traffic laws, however, should not be only made for the benefit of automobile drivers, but also for the benefit of all pedestrians, who are forced to cross over the streets in the downtown district when shopping or otherwise. There never has been a time in our city when the streets have been more congested than at the present time, and this condition is brought about by the great number of automobiles that are driven on our streets continuously day and night, and it has become a burdensome question as to its regulation. In order to regulate this traffic and if possible avoid accidents, laws must be made, but, as stated above, not only for automobile drivers, but also for pedestrians for the safety of both, and for that reason it is my opinion that all citizens should be interested in this matter and should be treated equally alike, and the pedestrians should have the same rights in crossing over the streets on the cross walks as well as the automobiles and other vehicles.

This city, however, has been very fortunate and has not had very many serious accidents, but, as stated above, conditions are at hand when more serious accidents can be expected, and will happen unless some other arrangements are made to meet the growing conditions as to both the increased number of automobiles, as well as the growth of the city, which will throw more pedestrians upon the street from day to day.

In observing conditions in the downtown district, at least at the corner of Wayne, Berry and Main streets, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 10 p. m., it is my opinion that nothing but straight traffic should be allowed at either of these corners, and through the busiest time of the day and night. By regulating the traffic in that way and by pedestrians and vehicle drivers traveling with the semaphore at these corners will no doubt avoid a great many accidents.

The law should be made clear so it may be plainly understood by both drivers of automobiles as well as pedestrians who are about to cross the street at either of these intersections. They are not permitted to cross over unless the smaphor is placed in the position for them to do so. It may be possible for the younger class of people to be on the lookout in crossing the streets with automobiles going in either direction and possibly cross in safety, but on the other hand it is very dangerous for old people and children, who will become easily confused in crossing the streets with automobiles upon them, and accidents in this case cannot be avoided. It is further my opinion that when laws are being made they should also be made for old and feeble people as well as for children, and not only for those who may be faster on their feet and able to make their getaway before they are struck down by some automobile or other vehicl.

I have had several interviews with automobile drivers who prefer turning to the right off and on Calhoun street at these corners mentioned above. This may be all right and may prove successful, but it is my opinion that this will prove dangerous to pedestrians crossing over from one side of the street to the other, and not as safe as if they were crossing the street from one side to the other with the automobile going in the same direction. For instance, some automobile driver driving west on Berry street onto Calhoun, who intends to turn to the right off Berry onto Calhoun, to go north, and at the same time there are quite a number of pedestrians at the northeast corner of Berry and Calhoun streets, wanting to cross over to the northwest corner of Calhoun street and Berry street, from the east side of Calhoun street to the west side, and this automobile turns to the right at this same corner, would make it almost impossible for the pedestrians to jump back upon the sidewalk before being struck or injured, as a great many people become confused, especially when they are watching the traffic north and south and some other vehicles have the right to go from East Berry street to Calhoun street and turn north on Calhoun street, and this no doubt would cause a great confusion and accidents would be the result.

It is my opinion that all laws should be made for the benefit of the general public, for pedestrians and automobile owners and for the safety of both. I am only interested in this matter as a city official and a servant of all the people, and am asking at this time for the co-operation of all the citizens, as all good citizens of this city are interested in the good and welfare of the city, and for that reason I am making this statement, and that a law may be made so that every one, children as well as grown persons drivers of automobiles and other vehicles, may pass through the downtown district without being injured or possibly killed, and that the law should be made for the benefit of all and not for the few.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES LENZ, Chief of Police.

ROANOKE NEWS.

Roanoke, Ind., June 21.—William Young, of Huntington, spent Sunday in Roanoke with his mother, Mrs. Young, of Vine street.

The I. O. O. F. lodge is considering the building of a new driveway leading from their cemetery to Seminary street. As north Main street will perhaps be torn up for several months, this looks like a good move as it is very hard to gain an entrance to the cemetery at this time. Also it will be convenient to enter from one side and exit the other. The cemetery is a very well kept place and the new drive will add greatly to its convenience.

One's Life is Too Short to Be Thrown Away in Grieving; Try Smiling

Is Christ You Companion? Introduce Him to Others

Constantly With You, His Spirit Will Lighten the Burdens and Smooth the Pathway as You Go Along.

A man who traveled for a large Chicago house, decided that if he was to talk satisfactorily to customers, he must know the firm's catalogue thoroughly. The catalogue contained more than one thousand pages, but he set to work to learn the descriptions of all goods noted. It was his custom, when leaving for a trip, to cut out a few pages; these he would study carefully either during the long hours of travel, or during the evenings in his hotel room. The work never was done, for periodical revision of the catalogue always gave him fresh work.

When that young man became a Christian, he decided that, since he was to travel through life in the interest of the Lord Jesus Christ, he must know the bible as thoroughly as he knew the catalogue of his firm. But somehow, it was not so easy to learn scripture, as it had been to learn the catalogue. He began with John 3:16, and it was a month before he could repeat the simple words in public, without stumbling. But he persisted in his efforts until he was able to repeat entire chapters, or to quote passage after passage, selecting and arranging these according to the needs of the man to whom he was talking. When he made a public address, his use of scripture was a marvel to his hearers.

Opportunities to refer to the scriptures were numerous. On the train, in the hotel and on the streets, as well as in the church, he approached men, and many of those to whom he spoke, were led to Christ.

Once he was seated in the lobby of a hotel when a bell boy handed a telegram to a man at his side. The recipient read it, then rose from his seat and began pacing rapidly back and forth, swearing as he went.

The Christian traveler thought he must speak. Approaching the profane man, he said: "You seem to be in trouble. I wonder if I can help you."

"Trouble? Talk about trouble!" came the reply. "You don't know what trouble is. I go home once in three months. I expected to make my regular visit in two weeks, but just now orders came from the house to go out for three months more."

"That is trouble," was the sympathetic response.

Having heard this word of sympathy, which he could feel was spoken by one who appreciated the situation, the man was ready to hear the message of the traveler who knew the Word.

"Evidently you are traveling alone," he began.

"Sure I am! With whom should I be traveling?" came the surprised answer.

"I traveled alone for a long time," the Christian continued, "and I had my troubles, too. I did not know what to do, until I was introduced to the Lord Jesus Christ. He has been my companion ever since."

The man looked as if the Christian did not know what he was talking about, but he proved that he did know by saying: "Jesus promised to be with me. He said, 'Lo, I am with you always.' Here are his words," and he took his bible from his pocket and turned to the chapter and verse.

Many other passages of scripture were quoted, while the men continued in conference.

And when the moment came for the disappointed men to start on his three months' trip, he took his new friend by the hand and said: "Thank you for introducing me to Him who will be my companion, too."

Is Jesus our companion? Are we introducing Him to our friends and acquaintances?

"Smile for Your Health's Sake" is the Advice of Famous California Smile Girl

It Will Do You More Physical and Mental Good Than All the Tonics You Can Find in a Day's Search of the Medical Advertisements is Miss Thompson's Claim.

(By Lillian B. Thompson.)

My friends tell me that my smile is contagious; that it can brighten a whole room full of gloomy people. It should have some effect, for, since my girlhood days, I have practiced smiling.

I have found that a real, heartfelt, cheerful smile is a panacea for human ills. Smiles refresh; frowns depress. One's mental attitude towards the problems of life affects in a large measure the condition of his liver. Smiling for health's sake, puckering the face into a cheery expression when things look wrong, chasing the gloom from your contenance when you feel like crying will do more for your physical and mental good than all the tonics you can find in a day's search through the medical advertisements.

A year or so ago a girl friend of mine thought she had met with a disappointment. She moped around like a picture of grief. She sighed and sometimes wept. It worried me and even irritated me, for she is just as sweet a girl as grows. She pined over her "worry" until wrinkles started in her forehead and about her pretty eyes and lips. She looked prematurely old in three months.

When I ran into her apartments in the afternoons for a chat, she used to say my smile was the only thing she knew in a false world. She took a grim sort of pleasure in contrasting her gloom with my cheerfulness. It was her foolish idea—one she had slowly manufactured—that all the world was bad and awry just because one poor specimen of mankind had broken a promise.

She worried me a little and provoked me more. I decided that she could smile as well as I. The smile treatments began. I made her go out to comedies with me. We read funny stories together. I laughed at her and with her. If I saw anything with real humor in it, I took it to her. Little by little I made her see that cheerfulness was better for her than glooming. Gradually she realized the foolishness of worrying about something that was past and gone. After awhile she learned to look on the bright side of life and is now one of the cheeriest, healthiest and most interesting of my friends. Smiles won.

Smiles will bring a reward in more ways than one to anybody willing to practice them. Your face may be set like an iron mask or despair, but consistent lessons in smiling will break the cast of gloom, change your facial expression, make you over again. If you are a chronic grouch, smiling will come hard at first, but if you keep at it you will win. There's not the slightest doubt about it.

My health is always good. I really believe my smiles help my physical being. A sunny disposition is a great aid to good digestion. Ask your doctor. I know, because I have proved it by my own experience.

The next time you feel grumpy, a bit out of sorts, try a smile—several of them. Maybe they will be sad, crackly sort of smiles, but keep 'em going. You will find the novelty working a change in you.

The HEALTH SMILE is only one of a wide variety that I put into good use in my life. But it is an important one. One's life is too short and too precious to be thrown away in grieving. Try smiling for your health's sake, just for a starter.

Next week I'll tell you about the BEAUTY SMILE. This kind will, I presume, interest women readers only, since men are not supposed to be concerned in beauty for their own part. But the health smile, the one I have described in this story, applies to everybody—Mr. and Mrs. Gloom and all the little Glooms.

LILEIAN BENFELDT THOMPSON. "My health is always good," she says. "I really believe my smiles help my physical being."

PERSONAL LIBERTY

Two well dressed men were walking down the street of one of our principal southern cities at midnight. In front of them was a man shabbily dressed with a look of hunger and desperation on his face. As the three passed a brilliantly lighted store window one of the gentlemen said to the other: "Did you catch a glimpse of that man's face?" "No, what about it?" "It was a terrible face. I believe that man will kill himself before morning." "Well, you can't prevent it. What of it?" "I don't know, but I think I can prevent it. Suppose we follow him?" They did follow him for several blocks. Finally he turned and made his way rapidly toward the river. Down by one of the obscure piers he paused, close by one of the piles that pierced the flooring, and with the gesture of despair stepped toward the edge of the pier and looked down into the water. He then straightened himself and in another moment would have flung himself into the river but one of the gentlemen who were standing in the shadow of the warehouse called out in a quiet, but firm voice: "My brother, if you are in trouble will you let me help you?" At the words "my brother" the man trembled, stepped back, covered his face with his hands and staggering against the pier burst into sobs so awful that the man who had taken it on himself to rescue him could not say a word for several moments. Finally he learned in broken ejaculations the man's story. It was an old, old story—wife and children in a home of wretched poverty, rent due, no work, crying for bread, wife sick, no friends. That was all. Suicide seemed the only way out. "I was going to drown myself" he said. "I do not know but what it would be the best thing to do after all." But the man who had called him "brother" found work and a home for the despairing soul. And by magic of word, which heals all false distinction, he made the man to live again.

ALCOHOL AS A CAUSE

The National Conference of Charities and Correction which met May 10-15 in Indianapolis gave much time to the discussion af alcohol in its relation to the problems of poverty and crime. Generous space was given to an anti-alcohol exhibit prepared by the National W. C. T. U. This consisted of posters, maps and charts presenting the social and economic phases of the subject, and incidentally the close relationship between the work of Charities and Correction and that of temperance. Pan[illegible] showing the relation between alco[illegible] and insanity, loaned to the W. C. T. [illegible] by the New York State Charities' [illegible] association, were a feature of this [illegible] hibit. Temperance workers regard[illegible] as a most gratifying advance that c[illegible]itable and correctional societies [illegible] sociological congresses (as that held [illegible] New Orleans in April) should be emphasizing inebriety as one of the chief causes of poverty and crime rather than as one of the effects.

GOD'S JEWELS

In a jeweler's window there is a little colorless stone, no bigger than your finger nail, and the price is one thousand dollars. That little stone that takes so much money to buy, is a jewel. Jewels are the most costly things in the world for sale. Sometimes when parents wish to speak of their children they call them their jewels, because they are so precious.

There is a diamond in the crown of the Czar of Russia, called the Orloff diamond, that is worth many millions, and it has a very interesting history. Long ago it was the eye of an idol in India. There was a Frenchman who saw it there, and made up his mind that he was going to get it. So he made a piece of glass that looked just like it, and one night he got into the temple, and took out the diamond and put the glass in its place and ran away. After a little while he began to be afraid to carry such a valuable treasure in his pocket, so he sold it to a sea captain for ten thousand dollars. The captain took it to Europe, and sold it to a merchant for one hundred thousand. After being bought a number of times more, it was purchased by Count Orloff, for Empress Catherine of Russia, for more than half a million dollars. The czar values that diamond because it cost so much.

God calls us His jewels, because we cost Him so much. He paid far more for us than the Russian empress paid for the Orloff diamond. He gave His Son for us. It is no wonder that He calls us His jewels.

Some jewels are shams. They make diamonds out of paste so skillfully that they look just like the real thing. They seem like diamonds, but they are worthless, and if you take one of them to a jeweler he will tell you at once that it is paste.

There are some people like that When we first see them they seem genuine and good, but after we have come to know them better we find out that they are shams; insincere and untruthful and wicked. We cannot always tell a sham when we see one, but God can. No one can deceive Him.

Then there are some jewels that have flaws in them. Once I saw two diamonds. They were the same size and looked just alike to me, but I was told that one was far more valuable than the other. I said, "How is that?" The man who was showing them to me handed me a magnifying glass and I looked through it and saw that there was a tiny flaw in one of them, so small that I could not have seen it without the glass. That little flaw made a great difference in the value of the diamond.

When jewels come out of the ground they are often coarse and rough, and before they can be sold they must be polished. They must be ground, and cut and rubbed. This is hard for the jewels, but it has to be done if they are to be perfect.

God's jewels need to be polished, too. That is why very often God sends us trouble, and suffering and pain. It is to make us perfect. The writer of the Hebrews spoke of Jesus being made perfect through sufferings. That is the way God deals with us. He sends us suffering to make us perfect, as the diamond is made beautiful and perfect through polishing.—Stuart Nye Hutchison.

PERSONAL LIBERTY.

What is to become of the fundamental doctrine of personal liberty; that a man may eat and drink what he pleases? What is to become of the theory that the development of standard and sterling qualities in man can only be accomplished by stress and strain and temptation? These are serious questions that go to the root of human progress.

In regard to the first proposition, it seems plain to me that the principle of personal liberty can not be so extended as to cover actions which injure society. The principle of free speech is well established, but free speech which incites riot and bloodshed is not permitted even in this free country.

The right of the individual to eat and drink what he pleases and wear the clothes that he likes is restricted by the fundamental principle that a man's actions shall not threaten evil to society at large. If one insists on eating poisoned food and giving it to his family, he threatens the existence of the state. If one should choose to walk the streets naked, he would offend the rights of other people, and thus threaten society. Doctor Mary Walker found that woman's clothes hampered her activities as a war nurse. She had, however, to get an act of congress to permit her to wear a man's garb undisturbed. This may seem a silly thing.

In so far as I can see, a woman does not threaten society in any way by wearing a man's garb. She only threatens convention, and yet the law regulates wearing apparel in the interests of decency, propriety and good morals. The drinking of intoxicating beverages is a threat not only to the man who drinks, but to society at large, and thus, without interfering with the fundamental rights of the individual or restricting a proper personal liberty, the state may say, "Thou shalt not drink."

YOU CAN'T DRINK AND MAKE GOOD

Modern Business Sets Pace Too Fast for Drinking Man's Mind to Keep Up—He is Not in the Running.

Science Proves by Delicate Instruments of Precision that He Thinks, Sees, Hears and Acts More Slowly Than the Man Who Doesn't Drink.

NOTHING will destroy the usefulness of a strong brain as quickly as alcohol—it is just as disastrous to man's delicate mental machinery as a handful of sand to the mechanism of a watch. A dollar watch will stand a great deal more sand than a hundred dollar one. That will explain why some men can drink quantities of liquor and brag that it doesn't injure them—and it will explain why a few drinks are so injurious to another.

Bright business ideas, ambition, energy and execution fade under the influence of alcohol like a dream, to be replaced by air castles, "large talk," laziness, sluggishness and neglect.

These conditions are not only found in the drunkard who drinks all the liquor he can get, but are even more strongly marked in the steady three-or-four-drinks-a-day drunkard. He, of this latter class, lays great stress to the declaration that he is not a drunkard—yet his system and brain are fully as saturated with alcoholic poison as the other man's. One takes his poison quickly—the other slowly.

Slow poisoning—quick poisoning—and physicians have always reckoned slow poisoning the surest.

WITNESSES OF GOD.

God has never left the world without a witness of Himself. He has graven His name upon His works. Sun, moon and stars testify to the fact of a Creator. "Rain from heaven and fruitful seasons" testify to the fact of a Provider. "The invisible things are clearly seen from the creation of the world, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead." Footprints indicate a traveler, a house an architect, a picture an artist, a supper a cook. At a certain dinner at the Holland House, a foreigner declared that he did not believe in a Creator. Presently Sidney Smith made some remark about the good dinner they were enjoying, which was enthusiastically seconded by the foreigner. "By the way," said Sidney Smith, "may I ask, sir, whether you believe in a cook?"

WHAT THANKS DO YOU GIVE HER?

She spent a long hot hour getting it. And you thought it was a fine meal. But did you take a second to tell her so?

Maybe she was so pleased watching you enjoy her cooking that she didn't eat much herself. (Notice the women who do the cooking in hot weather, and you'll see that they haven't much appetite.) But she was quick to see when you needed a second helping.

Maybe, when you had finished, you lighted your cigar, and picked up the evening paper, and went out to the front porch. And you felt perfectly complacent in the assurance that you had completed a good day's work.

But her work was not done. She had to go out into the stuffy kitchen and spend another hour over the steaming dish pan.

And she didn't get even a tip for her trouble.

Not that she wanted it. What she wanted was something like this:

"Gee, Flo, that was a dandy dinner. Bet nobody in this street had a better!"

What will your little word of appreciation mean to her?

The difference between tears and smiles over that measly dishpan; the difference between a song mixed with the rattling of the dishes, and a sob hidden by the scouring of the kettles.

Such a little thing for you to say, so much for her to hear.

Women are like that. Do you ever stop to think, man, that unless you take a little pains to put some joy into the life of the woman who is your wife, she isn't goin to have any too much of it?

Temperance Notes.

Some people seem to think that temperance is wrong because if all the saloons were closed the women would have nothing to pray about.

The man in the gutter has a right to rise on his elbow and, pointing to the nearest saloon, say: "My government licensed that thing to make me what I am!"

If it is worth while for you to try to raise your sons and daughters to be good citizens, it is worth while for the government to remove from their path a temptation placed there by men who profit by their downfall.

* * *

Why do we oppose beer? Because, under the influence of alcohol, the lower primitive impulses are let loose to run riot in the body and mind, so that the man who is always alcoholized by the frequent so-called "moderate" use of beer is set several rungs down the ladder of evolution.

* * *

Boiled down, this is the question: "Is the trade in alcoholic beverages right or wrong?" If it is fundamentally right, it is within the province of government to license it and restrict it. If it is fundamentally wrong, if its effect upon the community is bad, then makeshifts, compromises and regulations are not in order. It is the positive duty of government to oppose everything which is injurious to citizens.

THE HEART OF BRUCE.

Bruce, who fought so gallantly for Scotland, came to his dying bed with one ambition of his life unrealized. He called his faithful follower, Black Douglas, to him, and made him swear that after his master Bruce was dead, he would take out his heart and, embalming it, bear it to the Holy Sepulchre and deposit it there. Douglas took the heart of Bruce, enclosed it in a golden casket, and with one hundred knights for an escort, started for the journey. Passing through Spain, they turned aside to help the Spaniards against the Moors. In the battle, the Christians were driven before the fierce Mohammedans. Douglas, seeing that the day was almost lost, called his followers, and taking the heart of his master from his bosom, threw it far into the midst of his enemies, shouting "Forward, heart of Bruce, and Douglas will follow as was his wont." Although Black Douglas fell, they won the fight upon that rally.

O heart of Jesus, thou hast gone before us into every place of misery where humanity festers, and sins, and suffers, and gasps and dies. To this end wast thou born, and for this cause earnest thou into this world. Though we are weak, thou art strong, and will give strength to thy believing children.

Fly Catechism for the Summer Season --Teach It to Your Children

Here is a fly catechism for this summer. Teach it to your children:

1. Where is the fly born? In manure and filth.

2. Where does the fly live? In all kinds of filth, and he carries filth on his feet and wings.

3. Where does the fly go when he leaves the manure pile, the garbage pail or spittoons? He goes into the kitchen, the dining room and the store.

4. What does the fly do there? He walks on the bread, fruit and vegetables. He wipes his feet on the butter and he bathes in the milk.

5. Does the fly visit persons sick with consumption, typhoid fever and cholera infantum? He does and he may call on you next carrying the infection of these diseases.

6. What diseases does the fly carry? Typhoid fever, consumption, diarrheal disease, diphtheria, scarlet fever, and, in fact, any communicable disease.

7. How can harm from flies be prevented? By destroying all the filth about the house, keeping the garbage can covered, spraying manure piles with borax solution and screening all doors and windows.

Some preparations of face powder are the cause of inflammation of the eyes.

This form of inflammation occurs from obvious reasons almost exclusively in women. They complain that the vision is blurred, that they cannot read or sew for any length of time or that the lids burn and itch and that rubbing the lids only aggravates the itching.

Many of these toilet powders, commonly known as "rice powder" contain ingredients which irritate the delicate membranes of the eye.

Sixteen samples of so-called rice powders were recently analyzed, and of the number only two consisted entirely of "rice" and only six contained any "rice" at all.

Women who use face powder should be careful to select only those preparations which are known to be pure.

In applying powder to the face, it is much safer to use a cloth and rub the powder on the skin, rather than to apply it with a puff, as by the latter method the powder is driven upward and lodges on the moist eyeball. The tears change into a gummy substance, which lodges behind the eyelids and produces inflammation.

Since toilet articles do not come under the federal and state food and drug acts, they can easily be adulterated.

Many beauty washes and face enamels used by women have been found to contain various dangerous drugs, including lead carbonate, lead plaster, corrosive sublimate or ammoniated mercuric chloride, calomel, white precipitate, bismuth subnitrate, zinc white and many more equally harmful.

Cosmetics, as ordinarily used, also tend to clog the pores or irritate the skin and thus they frequently interfere with the normal, healthy action of the skin.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF THE FARMER

SCABBY SHEEP ARE UNPROFITABLE

Scabies in Sheep, Commonly Known as Sheep Scab, is One of the Oldest Known, Most Contagious, and Most Injurious Diseases Affecting Sheep—When Allowed to Spread it Causes Great Financial Loss to the Industry—Dipping Will Control This Disease.

By M. IMES.

The history of sheep scab dates back to the earliest ages of civilization. It is a highly contagious skin disease, easily transmitted from one sheep to another, and spreads very rapidly after being introduced into a flock. Indeed, this is one of the most injurious diseases which affect sheep. It is caused by a small animal parasite, commonly known as a "mite," which lives on the skin. Although the disease is not hereditary, it is possible for a newborn lamb to become infected from a diseased mother shortly after birth, and this fact has led some sheep owners to think it is hereditary. Besides common sheep scab there are several other varieties of scab affecting sheep, each caused by a distinct species of mite, but they are of comparatively little importance.

When allowed to spread, sheep scab causes great financial loss to the industry. These losses are caused by (1) a decrease in the quantity of wool produced, (2) loss in weight and general condition from irritation and other effects of the disease which render the animals unthrifty, and (3) the death of large numbers of infected sheep. While the disease is highly contageous, insidious in its nature, and severe in its effects, it yields readily to proper treatment and is easily cured. A sheep owner should never allow scab to remain in his flock, as it can be easily eradicated by proper dipping.

Common scab was formerly the greatest drawback to the sheep industry of the United States, but during the past decade great progress has been made in its eradication. The system of grazing sheep on the open ranges of the western part of the United States was such that the flockmasters had great difficulty in keeping the flocks free from scab. The sheep were very frequently exposed to the disease by infectious ranges and trails, "picking up strays" from infected flocks, and in many other ways. It became desirable for the Department of Agriculture to extend aid to the industry by controlling the interstate movement of sheep to prevent the carrying of the infection from one state to another. Arrangements for cooperative work with the live-stock sanitary authorities of the various states concerned were made by the Bureau of Animal Industry with the object in view of completely eradicating the disease. This work has been in progress for about 10 years, and during that time the disease has been reduced to a minimum over the entire area and nearly all the formerly affected states have been released from quarantine. The disease has been so nearly eradicated that at present the economic losses from this cause are practically nil. In view of the highly contagious nature of the disease, however, it is very important that the work of eradication be pushed to completion in order to prevent the disease from again becoming prevalent.

With our present knowledge of and experience in sheep-scab eradication work, it is comparatively easy to reduce the infection to a point where it ceases to cause economic loss, but the complete eradication of the parasite over such vast areas is a problem requiring patience and diligence. Where the eradication work is supervised by a well-organized force of trained field men, the percentage of infected flocks can be reduced very rapidly until it reaches a fraction of 1 per cent; but to reduce that fraction to zero requires very careful and systematic work, with the full co-operation of the sheep owners. As soon as the disease is reduced to a point where the economic loss is little or nothing, many sheep owners lose sight of the importance of continuing systematic efforts for complete eradication. It is necessary, however, for the protection of the sheep industry that the efforts be continued until the pest is completely eradicated.

Since the quarantine has been removed and compulsory dipping discontinued the sheep owners in some communities have allowed their dipping vats to go to ruin through lack of use and care. All vats should be kept in repair, and for several years to come each sheep owner will probably find it wise to dip his sheep at least once a year as a precautionary measure.

The only rational treatment for common scab consists in using some external application which will kill the parasites. Feeding sulphur and salt and various other preparations to sheep will not destroy the parasites and consequently will not effect a cure. Hand dressing, or "spot doctoring" as it is commonly called, consists in soaking the affected parts with a medicated solution of strength sufficient to kill the mites. This acts as a palliative and tends temporarily to check the disease, but will not effect a cure. The only conditions under which hand dressing can be advised are (1) when the disease develops in a few sheep of the flock during severe winter weather or just prior to lambing, in which event the infected sheep should be isolated from the flock and may be given a hand dressing to keep the disease in check until arrangements can be made for dipping the entire flock; (2) all sheep affected with hard scab should be separated from the flock just prior to dipping and the crusts or scabs broken up with a cob or stick and the spots soaked well with dip a little stronger than is used in the bath. It can not be too strongly emphasized that hand dressing, or spot doctoring, will not cure scab; in fact, in many cases it is responsible for spreading the disease, for the reason that the sheepman too often depends on this method to effect a cure. Meantime the disease is spreading throughout his flocks and the premises occupied are becoming infectious. Temporizing methods in dealing with sheep scab are expensive in the long run and should never be used or depended upon.

Dipping consists in immersing the sheep in a medicated solution that will kill the parasites, and is the only practical method known for eradicating the disease from the flock. The usual method is for the sheep to enter one end of a vat filled with dip, through which they swim, and leave the vat at the opposite end. The dip or solution should be used warm in order that it may penetrate the fleece and the hard scabs or crusts. Two dippings 10 to 14 days apart are necessary to effect a cure. The first dipping kills the live mites but does not destroy the eggs. Within 10 days after the first dipping the eggs on the skin at that time will have hatched out, but the new mites will not have reached maturity or laid eggs. The second dipping kills the new mites hatched subsequently to the first dipping.

As a basis of practice it may be stated that one dipping will not cure scab. Sheep in full fleece will retain more of the dip in the wool than freshly shorn sheep or lambs with short wool. If the active principle of the dip used is only slightly volatile and the sheep have heavy fleeces, one dipping will sometimes effect a cure. The reason for this is that sufficient dip remains in the wool to kill the new crop of mites. One dipping, however, can not be depended upon to cure the disease, and it will fail to do so in the large majority of cases. It will certainly fail unless conditions are just right; consequently all scabby sheep should be given two dippings with an interval of 10 to 14 days between dippings. The entire flock should be dipped regardless of the number showing infection. To pick out the ones showing scab and dip no others will result in failure, as the disease will continue to develop in the undipped portion of the flock.

If the dipping is to be successful it is necessary to give close attention to the details and to see that the work is carefully and thoroughly performed. Sheep should not be dipped immediately after shearing; a period of at least 10 days should elapse between shearing and dipping, in order that the shear cuts may heal. It is dangerous to dip sheep in some of the dipping preparations, especially lime-and-sulphur, if there are any fresh wounds on the animals; consequently dogs that bite the sheep should not be allowed in the dipping corrals. The chutes, pens, and dipping vat should be closely examined for nails, broken boards, or any object that may puncture or wound the skin of the sheep. Animals having fresh wounds when dipped in lime-and-sulphur usually develop a condition commonly known as "blood poisoning," and the mortality from this cause is high. It does not occur unless there are fresh wounds on the skin. After the wounds have granulated or healing is well started there is little or no danger from this cause. Rough handling of the sheep at the time of dipping results in more harm and damage to the flock than is caused by the dip. When sheep are placed in the dipping vat by hand the men handling them should be instructed to do so carefully. They should not be allowed to catch the sheep by the ears; this is sometimes done and has resulted in breaking or bruising the skin, causing the heads to swell after dipping and resulting in considerable death loss.

PROGRESS IN AGRICULTURAL CLUBS

By Means of Agricultural Clubs, Thousands of Boys and Girls Are Being Interested and Instructed in the Various Branches of Farm Work, to Their Pleasure and Profit, and to the Benefit of the Community and the Country.

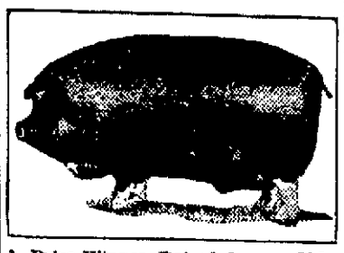
By B. LARA.

There has been an increase of more than forty-one thousand one hundred in the membership of various boys' and girls' agricultural clubs conducted by the state agricultural colleges and the Department of Agriculture in the northern and western states alone.

Two years ago there were one hundred and ten thousand and seventy-seven members of the various agricultural club projects in the thirty-three states covered by this work. One year ago the membership had grown to one hundred and fifty-one thousand one ninety-four, exclusive of the enrollment in the mother-daughter canning clubs.

This work is being carried on cooperatively in twenty-six of the thirty-three states in the northern, central, and western territory by the Department of Agriculture and the extension departments of the state colleges of agriculture. In practically every state short courses for boys and girls and special demonstration schools have been held at the colleges and in the field. During the past year, one thousand five hundred and fifty-seven club members attended the mid-winter courses at the colleges, nine hundred and sixty-eight of these having their expenses paid by local contributions as a recognition of their achievements in club work. Of the thirty-eight club members who, as champions in their states, districts, or counties two years ago, have become recognized as National All-Star Club members, thirty-one are now attending high schools, agricultural, or other colleges, three of the remaining seven have already graduated from high school, and one will go to an agricultural college this next fall.

Experience has shown that the work in the boys' and girls' clubs can be carried on with even greater success without the aid of large cash prizes and awards. The net profits from the work itself have been found to be the best possible incentive. The members have their attention directed to problems of farm and home management, crop rotation, soil building, etc., and in practically every state in which the work is being carried on a large number of club members are now working out three and four-year rotations of crops. The profits which they derive from club work they are spending on getting an education, or for purchase of pure-bred stock and labor-saving machinery. Many are even buying land and thus acquiring an invaluable sense of dignity and independence.



A Prize-Winner Raised by an Oklahoma Boy.

In the canning work, nine hundred and thirty-eight public demonstrations were held during the year, with a total attendance of one hundred and eighteen thousand, three hundred and sixty-seven. These demonstrations were held primarily for the club members, but parents were always invited and, as a matter of fact, more than half of those present were grown men and women. One of the great advantages of this club work, indeed, is the fact that it serves to stimulate the parents as well as the children.

YELLOW LAWNS ARE EASILY MADE GREEN

If your lawn is yellow rather than green, don't let the dandelions make you blue. There is an easy method of killing them. This is by spraying with a solution of sulphate of iron, according to W. L. Oswald, of the seed-testing laboratory at University Farm, St. Paul, Minn.

Heavy growths of dandelion may be killed by spraying from a nozzle that gives a mist-like spray with a solution of 1½ pounds of sulphate of iron to a gallon of water. An ordinary garden sprinkler does not give good results. The solution should be sprayed over the lawn about three days after the grass has been cut and on a bright day when the possibilities of rain are slight. The lawn must not be cut or watered for three days or more after the application.

The lawns may be sprayed once a month during the entire summer, starting at the time the dandelions appear. With proper care the spray will not injure the grass. Care should be taken in applying the solution to keep it off concrete walks, as it permanently discolors them. Stains in clothing made by the sulphate of iron are not removable.

If there are only a few dandelions on the lawn, Mr. Oswald says, they may be removed by cutting them off just below the surface of the ground with a knife. Gasoline or kerosene applied to the crown of the individual plant will kill it.

Permanent relief from dandelions and other weeds can be secured only by getting a thick vigorous growth of grass. This is secured by using plenty of fertilizer and grass seed.

NOT ENTIRELY NEW.

An item going the rounds to the effect that a yellow rambler rose has been discovered by an explorer in China, and that its seed will shortly be introduced into the United States, where the species is now unknown, has aroused, it would seem, the indignation of half the gardeners in the latter country. The item says, among other things, "Those who take delight in the crimson rambler will be glad to welcome the new flower to this country." If one will look over the seed and plant catalogues received this spring it will be discovered that they contain very pretty pictures of a yellow rambler rose that has long been an early summer bloomer over a wide area of the United States.

CLEAN SEED.

Unless the grain for both sowing and feeding is cleaned of weed seed, each succeeding year will show more and more weeds. Many an entire farm has become almost depleted from this cause alone.

A Stairway Like This Makes It Easy to Get Over a Barbed Wire Fence.

A patch of stony, unproductive ground can, in a few years, be converted into a joy for the youngsters, by planting it to hickory trees.

Nothing adds so much to the comfort of everybody on the farm as dry, solid paths or walks running from the house to all of the outbuildings and connecting the latter.

If you do not have the energy to build a dipping tank for the hogs, pour some coal oil over the pond where they wallow, and it will aid materially in disposing of the lice.

A self opening and closing gate is appreciated in cold and stormy weather.

It will only take a good day's work to make a split-log drag and it will pay for itself over and over the first year.

A gasoline engine and a manure spreader are cheaper than the wages of a farm hand, and they can be always had.

If you are thinking of trying alfalfa, start with a small field, say two or three acres. If your experiment fails, the loss will not be so great, but alfalfa will grow in almost any soil or any climate if it is handled right.

EXPERIMENTS WITH SHEEP.

Probably the latest thing in experiment stations is an exclusive sheep experiment plant now being established by the federal government in Idaho.

System in the dairy should supersede all other matters on the farm.

EFFECTIVE METHODS OF FREEING INFESTED LAND OF CANADA THISTLE

The Soil Upon Which This Persistent and Troublesome Weed Flourishes, is Apt to Be of Good Natural Fertility and it Usually Pays to Reclaim Thistle-infested Fields.

In the states north of the Ohio River, probably no plant bears such a bad reputation as does the so-called Canada thistle. This marvellously prickly plant abounds in grain fields, pastures, and meadows throughout the Central West, and is locally common in the northeastern states. It is found in parts of West Virginia, Kentucky, and Missouri, and of late years has been increasingly troublesome in the grain-growing sections of the Northwest. Canada thistle, or simply "thistle," has been condemned in the laws of twenty-five states, and at least one hundred local communities, no other three plants together having received so much unfavorable attention. Certainly no plant is more generally and heartily disliked, unless it be the sand bur of the southern coastal plain.

The cause of the remarkable vitality of Canada thistle and the point that distinguishes it from other prickly plants that are commonly mistaken for it is the long cord-like perennial root. This root penetrates the soil at a depth of eight to fifteen inches, or more, and gives rise at frequent intervals to leafy shoots. Thus it will often be found that an entire patch of thistles is attached to one root, and is in reality but one plant. The root is exceedingly hardy, and can live over winter or through a prolonged drought in a dormant condition. Pieces of the root that are broken off by a plow or cultivator and carried to other places will await a warm, moist period, and then begin to send up leafy shoots, thus establishing a new patch forthwith. If the leafy stems are cut down, others will be sent up to take their place, and this process may be repeated from two to eight times before the root becomes exhausted.

The point that must be kept in mind in fighting Canada thistles is that it is the roots, rather than the tops, that must be killed. Simply cutting off the tops a few times has much the same effect as pruning an apple tree. But if the tops are cut off deep and frequently, the root must eventually suffocate through lack of leaves. Bearing this in mind, any of the following methods will be found effective:

1. Summer Fallow—Most suitable for one-half acre or more of thoroughly infested land, from which little revenue could be expected anyway. Plow deep in the fall, exposing the roots to the frost. Harrow in the spring to kill seedlings of annual weeds. Let the thistle grow until the first blossoms appear (about June 1) or until there is danger of other weeds going to seed. Plow shallow and from then until frost use disk harrow often enough to prevent thistle leaves from making over four inches of growth. If the thistles get over six inches high at any time, all the previous work will be undone. This applies to all methods. Follow during second year with a cultivated crop, giving it a little extra cultivation and hoeing out individual thistles.

2. Partial Fallow—(1) For grain fields or old meadows. Cut the crop early for hay, if necessary, to prevent thistles from seeding. Allow thistles to grow for four to six days, then plow, and proceed as in 1 for remainder of season.

(2) For cultivated ground. Allow thistles to grow until first blossoms appear. Plow shallow. When thistles are about three inches high, disk thoroughly and plant late smother crops, as below.

3. Smother Crops—Combination of above. A good method on rich ground. Cut grass or grain early for hay as in 2 (1) above. Plow shallow four to six days later. Leave for four to six days more and disk thoroughly. Then sow smother crop of buckwheat (4/5 peck), rape (broadcast 6/8 pound), millet (¾ peck), or fodder corn in check rows. After the crop is off, keep thistles down by disking until frost. Hemp and alfalfa are excellent smother crops in sections where they are grown. Alfalfa may be either spring or fall sown, according to custom, but the surface of the ground must be clean and well prepared before planting.

Canada Thistle.

4. Cultivated Crops—Most generally useful method. Corn in check rows best crop. Have ground clean before planting. Equip cultivator with nine-inch sweeps instead of ordinary shoes. Keep sweeps sharp and cultivate frequently. Hoe the corn after laying by, and cultivate the ground after harvest with a disk harrow until frost. Repeat second year.

5. Hoeing and Cutting—Best for small patches. Stake out the patch and visit regularly with a sharp hoe or scythe at least twice a week.

6. Chemicals—There is no chemical that in reasonable quantities will kill Canada thistles with one application, unless applied directly to the cut root. For spraying use sodium arsenite (a violent poison), two pounds in ten gallons of water; common salt, one pound in 1½ quarts of water; or crude carbolic acid, diluted one-half. If animals are salted on a small patch of thistles, it will finally disappear. Frequent spraying of the thistle with the above chemicals may be used instead of cutting in rocky or other inconvenient places.

7. Miscellaneous—Sheep will sometimes graze thistles to death if forced to do so. Small patches of thistles may be smothered by covering with overlapping strips of tar paper or building paper, weighting the laps down with earth and leaving the paper on for eight to ten weeks during the summer. A coating of straw or manure one foot or more in depth will answer the same purpose.

Concrete Roller

A concrete roller may be made as a hand roller to be operated by one or two men or as a horse roller, when it is, of course, larger and heavier. A hand roller for two men suitable for rolling lawns should be made about 18 inches in diameter and 24 inches long. This size of roller weighs about 530 pounds or 265 pounds per foot of length.

A form for making a concrete roller may be easily and cheaply made. For a roller 18 inches in diameter and 24 inches long, cut a piece of sheet iron 24 inches by 56½ inches. The edges must be cut even and must be square. This may be bent in a circle and nailed, if necessary, to two sets of wooden clamps made for this purpose. Wire the iron form with No. 16 wire to hold the form from opening at the joint when the concrete is placed. Grease or oil the inside of the form thoroughly so that it will not stick to the concrete.

To make an opening for an axle or shaft, place a ¾ or ⅞-inch iron pipe in the center of the form.

The concrete should be one part cement, two parts sand and four parts stone or gravel. It will take a little less than one bag of cement for a roller of the above dimensions.

A small roller for rolling seeded ground may be made by pouring concrete into a piece of pipe which forms the outer surface.

TEN HEALTH COMMANDMENTS.

1. Keep windows open day and night.
2. Do not spit.
3. Breathe through the nose by keeping the mouth shut.
4. Drink pure water.
5. Eat slowly, take well-cooked meals, and cultivate regular habits.
6. Wear loose clothing of seasonable material.
7. Take regular open air exercises in sunshine if possible.
8. Wash whole body at least once a week.
9. Work, but do not worry.
10. Get house drains certified by sanitary authority.—Elizabeth Gregg in Health.

Does it pay to spray? Most certainly it does

FOOD VALUE OF FRUITS.

Fresh fruits have but little food value, but their use in dietaries is of great importance, nevertheless, on account of the mineral constituents which they contain. These constituents are made of potash, combined with various vegetable acids, namely, tartaric, citric, malic, oxalic, etc., which render the blood more alkaline and the urine less acid. The anti-scorbutic value (prevention of scurvy) of fruits is due to these constituents. A case of scurvy is quickly bettered by the use of fresh fruits.

LET THE CHICKENS HELP.

Many a fruit grower fails to properly cultivate his orchard for fear he will peel the trunks of his trees and damage the rootlets by doing this work. Just cut the soil under the trees and scatter fine seed and the fowls will do the work just right, also enriching the soil at the same time.

Don't try to sell your produce in a market that is already over-supplied.

The good dairy cow eats largely, digests amply, and milks abundantly.

THUMPS IN PIGS.

Thumps in young pigs result from too much feed, or too little sunshine or exercise, or both. The remedy is to reduce the sow's feed and compel the pigs to take plenty of exercise in the open air and sunshine. This treatment is only effective for pigs that have not been weaned, since thumps in older pigs is usually caused by trouble in the lungs or bronchial tubes.

Home canning is growing by leaps and bounds.

BUSINESS FARMING.

"One-eighth of farming is science, three-eighths are art and one-half is business," is a classic quotation by Dr. Seaman Knapp, for years one of the leading men of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington.

LONG-LIVED TREES.

Of all our fruit trees, the apple tree makes the greatest fight for longevity. As long as an old tree has any living bark, the effort for new growth of wood and of an effort toward usefulness is evident.

FERTILIZING ASPARAGUS.

The manures most suitable for asparagus are those strong in nitrogen. Horse, sheep and hen manure are excellent. Nitrate of soda gives good results. Potash is another important element. A good source of it is wood ashes, but commercial forms are also good. A good plan is to apply the barnyard manures as a mulch in the winter after the ground is frozen, so as to prevent the frost from going deep. In the spring the coarse remains may be worked into the soil, but it is better to rake off the refuse and apply some finely rotted manure.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, June 21.—Weakness developed in the wheat market today owing to lower cable quotations and to improved weather in the southwest. The foreign decline was attributed in part to an important failure in London. Rallies here were not well maintained. Opening prices, which varied from ⅛c to ⅜c down, with July at $1.03 to $1.03⅛ and September at $1.05½ to $1.05¾, were followed by a decided further setback and then by upturns.

The close was nervous, ¾c to ⅞c net lower, with July at $1.03@1.03⅛, and September at $1.05½.

Liberal country acceptances of bids from here tended to ease corn. Trading here, though, was of large volume and almost evenly divided. After opening ⅜@½c off to ⅛@¼c up, the market underwent a moderate general sag but later scored a rally.

The close was unsettled at ¼@¼c to ⅝c net decline.

Oats paralleled the action of corn. Commission houses leaned to the bear side.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, June 21.—Shipping shares and Rock Island issues featured today's early operations, showing marked strength as a result of overnight developments favorable to those properties. Marine preferred rose over a point and Rock Island as much or more, with heavy dealings in the debentures at a gain of two points. Denver and Rio Grande preferred also manifested much activity and strength, rising 2⅜. Mexicans were again in favor, Petroleu mgaining 2¾, with a point for American Smelting. Continental Can gained two points. U. S. Steel and Crucible Steel were higher by a point, with 1½ for Beet Sugar.

Interest in other low priced rails, notably Lake Erie and Western, Toledo, St. Louis and Western and Texas and Pacific, was revived, these issues showing advances of two to four points. Standard rails were neglected, however, aside from occasional activity in Reading and Lehigh Valley. Motors recovered fully from the early week's reversals, Willys-Overland rising 13½ points, with 6½ for Chandler and 6¼ for Studebaker. Coppers also improved, despite lower prices abroad, but zinc shares were heavy, profit taking materially reduced gains in all quarters before midday. Bonds were irregular.

BABY BONDS BUILD WEALTH AND CHARACTER

Baby Bonds are indorsed by many of the local business men, not only because they cultivate savings habits, which they realize is highly desirable in any community, but also for the fact that these savings habits never fail to mold character. Little extravagances, which frequently lead to bad morals, are displaced by a habit of denial which makes character of a higher quality.

Baby Bonds are in $10 denominations, secured by first mortgages on local real estate and bearing six per cent. interest. For further information, call the Wildwood Sales company, Shoaff building.

THE Place For Wife and Kiddies Is LAFAYETTE PLACE

Where else can you find a home site with so many features that the wife and kiddies will enjoy as in Lafayette Place?

Think what a blessing those $8,400.00 worth of playgrounds will be for the Mother!

Consider how much more enjoyment she can get out of life by being free from worrying about them while they romp in this playground.

Picture her, after the housework of the day is done, running over to the Community Club House for a few hours' real rest.

Frankly, is there any place you know that has such great possibilities for a home?

PROMINENT MEN'S CLOTHING STORE GOES OUT OF BUSINESS.

Barker-Rose Co. Begin Big Closing Out Sale Tomorrow.

Following the leasing of its store the Barker-Rose company, prominent Calhoun street clothiers, announce for tomorrow the start of a big general sale for the disposal of its stock and fixtures preliminary to winding up the business.

For several years the Barker-Rose company has occupied the building at 714 Calhoun street where it had become favorably known as one of the better stores of the city. Recent announcement was made by the firm of the leasing of its store by the S. S. Kresge company, the big corporation that operates five and ten cent stores in all leading cities of the country. This corporation already occupies the building adjoining the Barker-Rose company, and proposes to add the building occupied by the latter to its present quarters.

Failing to find other suitable quarters, the Barker-Rose company, close out entirely and discontinue. The store has been closed the past three days preparing for the great sale that starts tomorrow. The whole store will be turned into one vast bargain carnival with many extra salespeople to help in the task of caring for the crowds sure to attend. As the building must be vacated August 1st, prices have been cut to a point to insure quick results.
